MINTER COMPANY Laurens, S. C.

MADDEEN NEWS.

Madden, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Bess Wright, one of the most lovable of women, and her brother, Walker Martin of Lexington, N. C., have returned home. They were here for the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. Allison.

Miss Julia Cunningham of Mountville, spent the week-end with her cousins, Misses Kate and Azile Wofford.

Miss Nellie Bolt of Anderson, was the charming guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Dennis Culbertson last week. She was quite popular with the younger set and her many friends regret that her visit has come to a close.

Miss Maggie Lou Martin of Laurens spent the week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Finley.

Miss Louise Dean charmingly entertained her friends on Saturday night with a lawn party. About thirty-five guests were present and all report a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Emma Monroe and Mrs. Anne Dickard, who so faithfully watched at the bedside of their cousin, Mrs. Allison, returned home Wednesday after the funeral.

The Home Coming day at Prospect was a pronounced success. Those who loved the old church in by-gone days came back to mingle with us again, to swap experiences, and to talk of those who had already taken the journey to the far away country and were resting just across the way. Circumstances so shaped themselves that our former beloved pastor, the Rev. J. D. Pitts was prevented from speaking to us, so the order of exercises was reversed and the Hon. R. A. Cooper of Laurens, made his address in the morning instead of in the afternoon as had been planned. His talk on the Bible proved to be both timely and interesting, and the close attention of the crowd proved in itself its appreciation.

"Uncle Tom" true to his promise sang his solo much to the enjoyment of we who know and love him best. It is to be hoped that this occasion will be made a permanent one, so that all of "our folks" may have one day to come back to Prospect to talk of Auld Lang Syne and to teach the younger generation the old church's traditions and its hopes for the future.

Madden, Aug. 30.—Mrs. M. T. Allison whose serious sickness was noted in last week's Advertiser, died at her home at Madden at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, after lingering nine days, almost unconscious. Mrs. Allison was the oldest child of Elligh and Betsy Allison Cunningham. She has only one remaining sister, Mrs. Mollie Teague, who has the deepest sympathy of the entire community. The devotion of these two sisters, the last of a large family, was beautiful to behold. Mrs. Allison had six brothers and a husband in the late war, two of her brother dying during the war, John H. Cunningham, killed in the first day's fight at Gettysburg, and Joseph L., died of typhoid fever in a Richland hospital. Her husband, Jasper A. Allison, a noted rural school teacher in his day, also died during the war of fever at Adams Run. His was the first body interred in the Prospect cemetery at New Prospect, 53 years later his widow was placed by his side.

Her pastor, Rev. Jodie Martin, not being enabled to get here, Mr. C. B. Bobo of Laurens, in heart feeling and appropriate words conducted the funeral exercises at New Prospect church. Her children all preceded her to the grave, but her grandchildren, on whom she lavished her tenderest deceptions, grieve sorely for the loss of a friend and counsellor. Her five grandsons, Clyde and Brooks Martin, of Greenville, Larry Martin of Spartanburg, Walker Martin of Lexington, N. C., Bob Copeland of Clinton, and a nephew, Shaw Cunningham acted as pall bearers.

Mrs. Allison was a remarkable woman in many respects. Though 82 years old yet her heart she kept young and all the young, as well as old, wept sorely when the stately old lady, known and loved as "Aunt Mag" was called home.

YOUR BODY

Protests Against Calomel. You have noticed the disagreeable effects of calomel, that sickening nausea that is characteristic. There is no reason for tearing up your system in such a drastic manner.

Liv-Ver-Lax, that wonderful vegetable compound, is just as useful as calomel for toning up your liver and ridding your system of stagnating poisons, and it does not make you feel badly like calomel. It is pleasant to take with no unpleasant after effects. Keep it in your home for health's sake.

If Liv-Ver-Lax is not entirely satisfactory, your money will be returned without question. The original bears the likeness of L. K. Grigsby. For sale at 50c and $1 by Laurens Drug Co.

JONES NEWS.

Jones, Aug. 30.—We are very grateful to our friends for their liberal patronage of the ice cream festival and cake walk. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the delightful occasion.

Rev. Copeland, of Brewerton, gave us a forceful sermon at his last appointment.

Messrs Herbert, Tucker and Bobbet have purchased Ford cars.

Messrs J. F. Wideman, S. H. McGhee, Baker, Sneed, Sumner and Dr. Neil of Greenwood, Samuel McCuen, of Abbeville, Ed. Bolt of Laurens, Eugene Martin, of Donalds and W. A. McCord of Spartanburg, were recently in our midst.

The friends of Dr. Barney Smith, of Dillon, who was reared at Brewerton, will be pleased to learn that he is meeting with great success as a specialist of pellagra.

Mrs. G. B. Riley had a severe stroke of paralysis on the 24th, and is in a very critical condition. All of our people profoundly sympathize with the family and cherish the hope that she may survive the attack.

Mrs. David Major of Coronaca, visited her parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. F. Morrison last week.

Mrs. Frank Buzhardt visited her son in Athens, Ga., recently.

Ware Shoals and Abbeville crossed bats Saturday afternoon. Result of game 6 to 1 in favor of Ware Shoals.

Mrs. G. W. Jenkins and sons, William and Walter of Columbia are visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones.

Prof. C. A. Fellers, of Columbia, a former teacher of the Jones high school, delivered a splendid Sunday school address here yesterday. Prof. Fellers is held in high esteem by our people and we are always delighted to have him with us.

Surely, it is unnecessary to appeal to the good people of Greenwood county to turn out on the 14th of September and vote for prohibition. Intemperance is a fearful curse and I hope the State will go overwhelmingly for prohibition.

New Ginnery—I have opened up an entirely new short staple ginning outfit in the Watts Mills ginnery and will appreciate the patronage of the public. Will begin operation about September 10th. Bring me your cotton.

"TAY" IRBY IN ACCIDENT.

Painfully but not Seriously Injured in Automobile Accident in Spartanburg Election Night.

Pierce Irby, known by all his friends as "Tay", was painfully hurt in an automobile wreck in Spartanburg last Tuesday night. From the newspaper reports, it appears that he was riding with John Mills when the car hit a ridge in the street left by workers on a sewer line. The car jumped clear of the ground and landed sidewise against an embankment. Mr. Irby was knocked unconscious and had to be carried to the hospital, where his condition for awhile caused considerable uneasiness. He soon regained his mental faculties, however, and in several days had recovered enough to be removed from the hospital. Though he was painfully hurt, his face and body being considerably lacerated, he was not permanently injured. It is understood that Mr. Irby and Mr. Mills were alone in the car.

IF I ONLY HAD THAT MONEY IN THE BANK NOW

QUIT THAT "GET RICH QUICK" SPECULATION

"Last year I had some money saved up" he said, "and IF I had kept it in the Bank and left it there it would be there NOW, with more added to it. But a stranger came along with an enticing looking scheme and I bit. If I had had any sense I would have asked my BANKER about these 'good things' before I invested and LOST my money.
