

A Last Appeal.

To the Advertiser Readers:
 Next Monday night at nine o'clock the Automobile Contest closes, after which time your subscription will help no one of the contestants. Before that time it will help me wonderfully and will be so much appreciated. I see so many whose subscription will be out within the next twelve months. You will then pay up for another year. Won't you please just pay up now and give me credit for the votes, then you will not be troubled again so soon and you will be helping one who has worked so hard as to deserve your help.

So many, who were not prepared to pay up when I was around to see them, promised to turn it in at the office for me. I have a list of them all and see that many have already done so, but many of them have not settled as yet and I wish to ask them to do so at once. I am checking each one off as he pays and assure you that it is as much appreciated as though you had paid me in person.

Kindly remember that a five-year subscription, new or old, or both together, gives me 5,000 votes extra. Don't want to ask anyone to do more than they are able, but do ask for it if you can possibly do.

Thanking you all for the Ford, I am,
 Yours very sincerely,
 Mrs. B. R. Toda.

At Warrior Creek School.
 An oyster supper for the benefit of the Warrior Creek school will be given at the home of Mr. Sam Burns, next Friday night. The public is invited.

DIALS NEWS.

Dials, Dec. 13.—The members of the Wesley Adult Bible Class and the members of the two organized women classes, entertained each other and their friends on last Friday afternoon at the church with a most enjoyable open air banquet. The weather was ideal for such an event and the vands were all that the most fastidious could wish. The speakers for the occasion were Prof. Wilson, who completely captured his audience by his eloquence having for his subject the "Bible and Literature", and the Rev. T. W. Munerlyn who in his usual pleasing style paid a glowing tribute to the organized class as a whole.

Mr. John R. Hellams of Spartanburg was in our midst last week looking after business interests.

Mrs. Arthur Harris spent last week in Greenwood, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Smith Boyd.

Mrs. W. P. Childress of Laurens, visited Mrs. I. S. Brooks last week.

Miss Ostell Willis, was shopping in Laurens Monday.

Miss Laree Abercrombie was the guest of Miss Beulah Armstrong Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brooks of Gray Court, and Mrs. B. A. Sullivan of Laurens, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. I. S. Brooks.

The first known snow of the season fell here Saturday afternoon. Its stay however, was of short duration, much to the disappointment of the average small boy.

Sunday was a very disagreeable day, with very little traveling, everyone seeming to prefer their own hearthstone.

Mrs. Jim Sumner and Mrs. Hellams of Hickory Tavern spent Monday with the family of Mrs. J. R. Browlee.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who were so thoughtful of us during the recent sickness and subsequent death of our little boy. The memory of the many kind deeds will ever remain with us.

Poor Man's Advantage.
 The sleep of the laboring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.—Ecclesiastes, 5:12.

Ancient Almanacs.
 Almanacs are in existence that were compiled in the eleventh century, but they are in manuscript; the first printed almanac was issued about the year 1475.

The Spring Eyes.
 Flatbush—"How's your garden looking?" Bensonhurst—"Well, I saw a rooster looking at it through the pickets of the fence, this morning, and it seemed to look good to him."

Must Travel to Know.
 The world is a country which nobody ever yet knew by description; out must travel through it one's self to be acquainted with it.—Chesterfield.
