

NATIONAL SLOGAN SUGGESTED BY PROMINENT MEMPHIS DRUGGIST

Would Remind the Public to Prevent Sickness by Removing the Cause

T. D. BALLARD

A prominent druggist of Memphis says: "Much sickness could and would be prevented if the people would only remember that constipation is one of the first causes. As a reminder, I would suggest the slogan.
"Rexall Orderlies, the laxative tablet with the pleasant taste."
"I suggest Rexall Orderlies as I know their formula and believe they are the best remedy for relieving constipation. They can be used by men, women or children."

BRANDEIS APPOINTED ASSOCIATE JUSTICE

Received With Unconcealed Surprise by Senate and All Washington. Was Not Among the Talked of Candidates. Interior in the noted Ballenger-Washington, Jan. 28.—Louis L. Brandeis, of Boston, was nominated by President Wilson today for the place on the supreme court bench made vacant by the death of Associate Justice Lamar.

The senate received the nomination with unconcealed surprise—in which all official Washington joined, because Mr. Brandeis had not been mentioned among the long list of eligibles which President Wilson considered, or among an equally long list of aspirants who presented endorsements.

Some senators announced to their colleagues that they were opposed to the nomination, but declined to be quoted to that effect. The only senator found who was willing to publicly record his opposition at this time was Senator Wadsworth, republican, of New York.

Senators who approved the nomination were not lacking, although they too, avoided public expression of their views. They felt sure, however, they could command the necessary majority to confirm the appointment.

"I have nothing whatever to say; I have not said anything and will not," was Mr. Brandeis' only comment tonight, as he went off to dine with President Wilson at Secretary McAdoo's house.

Monday the senate judiciary committee, to which the nomination was referred, will appoint a subcommittee which, according to precedent, will consider the nomination and make a report. If today's talk of opposition amounts to anything, it will develop in the committee. There has been no contest of any note over a supreme court appointment since the days of President Cleveland.

It was learned tonight that among the endorsements sent to the president urging Mr. Brandeis' appointment was one from Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester, whose celebrated controversy with Secretary Ballenger brought Mr. Brandeis into the public eye six years ago. He appeared as chief counsel for the forces opposing the former secretary of the interior in the noted Ballenger-Pinchot controversy which sent its ramifications into many phases of national politics at the outset of President Taft's administration.

Although celebrated as a lawyer Mr. Brandeis has been devoting practically all his time of late to the Zionist movement in this country, which has for its object the repatriation of the Jews to a nation of their own in Palestine. If confirmed, he would be the first Jew to sit on the supreme court bench.

Some of the senators disposed to express opposition to Mr. Brandeis today were democrats who sought to put their objections on political grounds. Senator James, of Kentucky, the native state of Mr. Brandeis, unreservedly told them the nominee was a democrat. Justice Lamar, whom he would succeed, also was a democrat. Six of the eight justices now on the bench are republicans.

The senators who approve the nomination of Mr. Brandeis declared that the opposition was largely in the realm of talk which would disappear as the appointment was considered with mature deliberation. They concede however, that a contest over a supreme court appointment was not out of the ordinary and recalled that Chief Justice White had one vote cast against him when President Taft elevated him to the head of the bench.

Treat Catarrh by Nature's Method.

Every Breath of Hyomei Carries Healing Medicated Air to the Infected Membrane.

Nearly every one who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it with sprays, lotions, and the like. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would probably have said the only way to help catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with a simple preparation called Hyomei you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day successfully treat yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle does not give permanent relief, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained at any time for a trifling sum. It is more economical than all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only treatment known to us that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

The Laurens Drug Co. have sold a great many Hyomei outfits and the more they sell, the more convinced they are that they are perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not relieve.

TILLMAN VENTS HIS WRATH ON MEYER

Daniels Praised as "One of Greatest Secretaries Navy Ever Had." Republicans Must Take Blame.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Secretary Daniels was praised as "one of the greatest secretaries the navy ever had," and former Secretary Meyer was assailed today by Chairman Tillman of the senate naval committee in a speech on "the truth about the navy." Senator Tillman took Mr. Meyer to task for his recent declaration before the National Security League, that "the fundamental defect of the navy department is that it has no brain and no competent military organization."

"Mr. Meyer forgets," said Senator Tillman, "if he ever knew, that when he left the navy it was nearly 6,000 men short; that 46 per cent of the men discharged in good standing were leaving the navy, while 85 per cent are now re-enlisting; and that during his incumbency there were 10,360 desertions. Yet he has the cheek to hold his successor responsible for conditions which are due wholly to his own shortcomings. As against 10,360 desertions while Mr. Meyer was secretary, so far—about two and a half years—there have been only 4,375 since his successor entered office."

"The head of the navy himself is not a pampered and petted darling of inherited wealth, but a red-blooded, upstanding, forward-looking American who is a graduate in the hard school of experience and a practical man with wholesome ideas."

Senator Tillman praised other officers of the navy who, he said, were "not known at all in the drawing rooms in Washington or Newport."

"While Germany had already won second place, as shown by von Meyer's first report," said Senator Tillman, "he never could persuade his party—he tried only half-heartedly—to grant money enough to recover the lost ground. It is true the program he recommended in 1909 was quite respectable in size, but his party associates, who are now clamoring for the democrats to make good republican deficiencies in a naval program, did not give him the money. So that it is proven beyond possibility of dispute that the republican party is solely responsible for our present status—lack of officers, lack of personnel and lack of ships."

"It makes a great difference whether one is on the inside looking out or whether he is on the outside looking in."

Is Your Comb Full of Fallen Hair?

What to Do When Hair Comes Out. Loose hairs in your comb and brush is Nature's way of waving a red flag in your face to tell you that your hair and scalp are losing vitality and that it is time you did something for them. Don't disregard the warning. A little attention now may mean long, thick luxuriant hair for you for years to come. A little further neglect and thin, dry, dull, lifeless brittle hair and finally baldness may result. To vitalize the scalp 'til it tingles with vibrant energy—to make every hair on your head healthy—get a package of Parisian Sage from the Laurens Drug Co. or any good druggist in town and rub a little right into your scalp with the finger tips.

Parisian Sage acts directly on the entire cell life of the hair—from root to tip—helping healthy growth and stimulating a beautiful glossy texture and glorious luxuriance. Notice how quickly your hair is coming out on brush and comb—how it is easier to handle and dress and how all signs of itching or dandruff quickly disappear. It is not expensive.
