

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

WHAT CAN YOU DO FOR CATARRH?

Ask Yourself the question. How often has the doctor failed, as have ointments, salves, vapours? What you should do.

The easy, common-sense method—that costs so little—that is so quickly and vigorously effective—is often the last resort of many Catarrh sufferers. Why, it is hard to say. One of the specialists of the Swift Specific Company in Atlanta—a physician of standing and national reputation because of his knowledge of blood disorders, made the assertion that if the majority of Catarrh sufferers would buy and faithfully take S. S. S., they could effectually get rid of Catarrh.

S. S. S. goes straight to the seat of trouble, the blood. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through the veins and arteries, enables the mucous surfaces to exchange acids and irritating substances for red blood corpuscles that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all Catarrhal poison. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in process of purification.

S. S. S. is made from barks, roots and herbs that are food and tonic for the blood. It stimulates—gives the blood power to throw off poisons. You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely Catarrh often infests the entire system.

You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a remarkable remedy for all blood affections, such as Eczema, Rash, Itchings, Tetter, Psoriasis, Boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write The Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 11, Atlanta, Ga. Avoid substitutes.

BOTH TIDWELL AND WOODS CONVICTED UNDER MANN ACT

Sensational Turn of Events in Famous Case, Accused and Convicted of Transporting Mrs. Tidwell. Tidwell Later Acquitted.

Greenville, May 4.—George W. Tidwell, Sr., who is under a sentence of seven years for manslaughter in Greenville county, and W. G. Woods, formerly a salesman of Greenville who was a sensational witness at the first trial and conviction of Tidwell, pleaded guilty in Federal Court at Pensacola today to an indictment returned yesterday charging violation of Mann white slave, according to dispatches which The Greenville Piedmont received from Pensacola.

A dispatch says "Tidwell will only be turned over to Greenville authorities in case Federal judge decides to discharge him. No date is fixed yet for him to be arraigned for sentence.

This is the most sensational and unexpected turn of the famous Tidwell case since the legal battles were fought for the life and death of the gray-haired slayer who killed R. Emmett Walker, paymaster of Carolina, at the mill office on the morning of March 12, 1914.

It was alleged that both Tidwell and Woods transported the former's wife, Isabella Tidwell, from Georgia to Pensacola, and from Pensacola to Mobile, Ala. Woods and Mrs. Tidwell were first arrested in Mobile on the 16th of January on warrants from the United States marshal's office from the Pensacola district. She was detained as a witness.

At the time Tidwell was thought to have instigated the arrest, but on January 20 he was arrested having gone under the assumed name of G. W. Attwell. It was alleged that he transported Mrs. Tidwell from Mobile, Ala., to Pensacola, Fla., in violation of the Mann act for immoral purposes. Certain provisions of the act stipulate that where a husband transports his wife for immoral purposes he is guilty.

Sentence is yet to be imposed upon Tidwell and Woods, according to the information received from Pensacola.

Will He be Brought Back?

Tidwell was out on a ten thousand dollar bond at the time of his arrest and was being sought for at the time. He expressed his willingness to return here and begin serving his sentence of seven years, but the federal authorities would not release him until the federal law had taken its course. Since he pleaded guilty today to violation of the act, another cloud has formed over the situation here.

Sheriff Hendrix Rector last night received a telegram from the United States marshal at Pensacola advising him that he could get Tidwell. The sheriff today communicated with Gov. Manning to secure a requisition for his extradition from Florida and the chief executive informed the sheriff that he would bring the necessary papers with him when he arrived here tomorrow afternoon. Sheriff Rector intended to leave here about Friday for Pensacola.

However, he will now await further instructions from Pensacola as to what the government plans to do about the defendant. If they deem it advisable for Tidwell to serve the federal sentence first he will not be brought here for some time. The offense is regarded by officials as very grave and it is not improbable that a heavy sentence will be imposed.

Withdrew Plea.

Pensacola, Fla., May 4.—Geo. W. Tidwell, Sr., withdrew his plea of guilty in federal court yesterday afternoon, went to trial and was acquitted last night after the jury had deliberated an hour and a half. The defendant took the stand in his own behalf and related all of his troubles. He will be turned over to South Carolina authorities, and is held in the county jail to await the arrival of Sheriff Rector.

Mrs. Tidwell has agreed to return to relatives in South Carolina.

Tidwell Related His Story.

On the stand Tidwell gave status of the case against him in South Carolina. He swore that on the train before reaching Greenville, he was told that his wife and daughter were in Greenville. Arriving he found them stopping at a hotel and found that they had visited a questionable resort with W. G. Woods and Walker, paymaster of a cotton mill. After a stormy discussion with wife and daughter Tidwell said he determined to force Walker to marry his daughter. He sent Walker word to come and see him, promising not to harm him. He said Walker visited him at his hotel, but held his hand on his hip pocket as he entered the room. When asked to marry his daughter, Walker refused, saying she was not of his class, he testified. Tidwell then ordered him out of the room. Later he said he visited W. G. Woods in regard to the escapade with his wife and

BETHEA TALKS OF SEN. MCLAURIN'S RACE.

McLaurin's Purpose is to Head Off Lever, Pollock, Blease and Others. Bethea Not Worried.

Columbia, May 4.—Lieutenant Governor Andrew J. Bethea sees in Senator John L. McLaurin's announcement for lieutenant governor an effort to use the political pulmotor to vitalize what the lieutenant governor terms a political corpse. He declares the statement of the senator that the office of lieutenant governor is one "which no grown man wants and a live one won't have" a confession of the petrified state of the senator, speaking politically, and does not think the breath of political life can be pumped back into him.

The present occupant of the office of lieutenant governor further analyzed the announcement of the senator to be an effort to further his own senatorial ambitions and to "put one over" such possible opponents as Congressman Lever, W. P. Pollock, former Governor Blease and others who are credited with having an eye on the seat now filled by Senator Tillman by getting in the race one head ahead of them. And the lieutenant governor doesn't think it takes a Solomon to figure this out.

He thinks also that the senator's reference to the office of lieutenant governor shows a lack of appreciation of many men who have held that office and helped to make illustrious the history of the State and says it is unworthy of him.

Mr. Bethea says there is ample time before the campaign for him to say whether or not he will run for reelection but he is "calling" Senator McLaurin and analyzing his announcement as he sees it. His statement in full is:

"I am not worried over McLaurin's announcement for lieutenant governor. The office belongs to the people and not to me and he or any other man who can comply with the rules of the Democratic party has a right to run. There is ample time before the campaign opens for me to give the public my views, whether I stand for this office of some other.

"It does not take a Solomon, however, to see that McLaurin's real purpose is to head off Lever, Pollock, Blease and others in an effort to succeed Senator Tillman in the United States Senate.

"Commissioner McLaurin's statement that the office of lieutenant governor is 'an office no grown man wants and no live man would have' is unworthy and shows a lack of appreciation of many men who have helped to make illustrious the history of South Carolina. But distinguished men like Christopher Gadsden, John Drayton, Richard de Treville, D. K. Hennigan, W. D. Simpson, John C. Sheppard, Eugene B. Gary and many others of high character and ability need no defense at my hands."

WHY DANDRUFF CAUSES BALDNESS

Get rid of dandruff if you have it and the sooner the better. Dandruff causes baldness by choking the pores of the scalp so that the hair roots do not obtain proper nourishment.

There is just one delightful hair tonic so compounded that besides ending itching scalp almost overnight, and stopping hair from falling, will remove every particle of dandruff after just a few applications.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Parisian Sage, a hair beautifier, tonic and scalp invigorator that every druggist knows always produces results. Thousands of women use it because they know that nothing else makes the hair so radiantly beautiful and fascinating. The Laurens Drug Co. always guarantees Parisian Sage.

Woods told him he loved her. Tidwell said he decided to allow his wife to leave the state, get a divorce and marry Woods. Later, Tidwell said he visited Walker at the cotton mill and they engaged in a scuffle as he was approaching the building. He shot at Walker four times and missed and carefully saved one shot and shot him through the breast. Said Walker was an athlete, a member of the Y. M. C. A. and passed the contribution box in church.

Tidwell said last autumn he met his wife and Woods in Dothan, Ala., and furnished money to pay for their tickets to Pensacola, where he thought Woods might secure employment. At that time he was willing to help them as he had decided to let his wife get a divorce. He advanced them more money before leaving them here, and going to Gulfport. On the stand he said he still loves his wife.

After Tidwell left his wife and Woods here they went to Mobile where they were arrested. On the stand Woods said he was tired of Mrs. Tidwell before he came to Florida. Woods pleaded guilty yesterday morning and Judge Sheppard has not set date yet for him to be sentenced.

I can say my bowels are much more regular. My heart is stronger. My appetite is much better. My throat is much better.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for Peruna."
