

What is Home Without an Heir!

This is a subject that has a place in all minds in all times. And it naturally directs thought as to the comfort of the mother during that wonderful period of expectancy. Mothers who know recommend "Mother's Friend." It is an external remedy for the straining muscles, enables them to expand without undue strain, assists the organs to crowd against nerves, to pull at ligaments, to thus avoid pain. Thus restful days are secured, restless nights are experienced, morning sickness, headache, apprehension and other distresses are among the various troubles which women everywhere relate they have been escaped by using "Mother's Friend." And by its effect upon the muscles the fetus is retained and they return to their natural, smooth contour after baby is born. Get a bottle of this invaluable aid to expectant mothers. Any druggist will supply you. It is harmless but wonderfully effective. Write to Broddell Regulator Co., 211 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a special 10-cent guide book for women interested in the subject of maternity. It will prove an inspiration. It contains information that every woman should know all about. Write to

JUST PLAIN COUNTRY.

Beauty to Be Found In Rural Scenes Round About Home.

Like many another person of the present day, I have from time to time traveled as far as my means would permit—and a little farther—exploring countries new and strange or now and strange to me, climbing high mountains, sailing broad seas and making the acquaintance of coasts as full of wonder and of mystery, swept by the wings of gulls, washed by green waves, as were the far shores of Odysseus' wide adventure to Ithaca. And I have had huge enjoyment in it all, standing to watch at distant corners of the earth the pageant of wind and wave and cloud, trudging up unknown hills in a fine mood of adventure, driving across mountain passes into countries as fresh and as enchanting as if they had been created overnight to meet this first fresh sense of quest.

Yet sometimes and oftentimes I realize that no strange shore or wonderful mountain range has brought a sense of pleasure quite so deep as that which comes to me in mere country, the plain country of the land of home. I do not mean any of the show regions of America. The glories of the Canadian Rockies, the wonders of the Yosemite, are unknown to me. I mean the common country, of old-fashioned fences and winding roads, where tangles of alder and sumac cluster by the gray rails or gray stone—common country, where the bay grows long in June and the woods creep close to the hayfields and a little stream perhaps goes threading its way softly between the grasses.

Here is no sense of effort in your enjoyment. All is near and dear, familiar, perhaps for generations a part of your forefathers' lives. There is no need to try your eyes to take in the meaning of jagged rock outlines and heaped earth masses or stretches of desert sand. You have not purchased an expensive ticket whose worth to the uttermost penny must be extracted from the panorama before you, making you study it anxiously, eager to do your duty by every shade and outline. You do not have to strain to the sublime, as you do when confronted by scenery, capitalized scenery—capitalized in every sense of the word. You do but sit quietly upon some green bank, full of unforced pleasure that hardly names itself pleasure, so unconscious it is.—Scribner's.

Quarries of Carrara.

The wealth of the city and province of Carrara, Italy, which has a population of 220,000, is derived from the 500 quarries, which give employment in one way and another to over 8,000 workmen. The quarries are situated in the mountains above the town, and the stone is brought down to the plain to be sawed and worked, largely in shops connected with the homes of the workmen. Explosives are used to obtain the largest size blocks, although wire saws driven by electricity are used in a few instances to quarry the blocks to the desired dimensions.

Russian-American Calendars.

The Russian calendar is thirteen days behind the calendars of other Christian countries, and unless this fact is familiar to correspondents in the United States considerable confusion arises over the dates of letters, telegrams, etc. Usually in Russian business correspondence both dates are used, the Russian date having after it the letters O. S., meaning old style, and the date of foreign countries, N. S., meaning new style. For instance, the Russian Christmas occurs on Jan. 7 N. S. and the Russian New Year's day on Jan. 14 N. S.—Commerce Reports.

Pat's Retort.

An English tourist was being taken through the country by an Irish jockey. They were traveling along the road when an ass put its head over the fence and began to bray with all its power.

"Well, Pat," said the Englishman, "is that the 'Wearin' of the Green?'"

"Arrah, no, yer honor," said Pat; "that's 'Johnny, I hardly knew you.'"—Chicago Herald.

Glaciers Are Brittle.

An authority on the subject says that the substance of a glacier is brittle, though solid, and that its descent down a valley is caused by its constant fracture produced by gravitation and the sliding forward of the whole mass, the surfaces of the fractures speedily reuniting by regulation.

Ornamented.

Old Mrs. Blunderby was telling her caller about a play she had been to the evening before. One of the characters was an Englishman of the "silly awes" type. "He did look so awfully ridiculous with that monologue in his eye," chuckled the old lady.—Boston Transcript.

Safety First.

Mr. Newed—Will you have a piece of this angel cake, darling? Newed (cautiously)—Well, dear, you—er—know I don't care much for cake. Did you make it? Mrs. Newed—No; mamma sent it over. Newed—Give me two pieces, please.—Indianapolis Star.

There's more to a cigarette than merely "pleasing your taste." Other cigarettes, besides Chesterfields, can do that.

But Chesterfields do more—they begin where the others stop!

Because Chesterfields satisfy!—they give you the true meaning of smoking!

Yet they're MILD!

This new combination ("satisfy," yet mild) can be had only in Chesterfields—because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!
