

NEWBERRY CROWD HEARS SPEAKERS

About Three Thousand at Campaign Meeting.

Newberry, July 1.—Before a crowd of 3,000 people the candidates for State offices presented their claims for the various offices today, winding up the second week of the county to county canvass. The crowd was composed largely of farmers but there were several of the Blease leaders present from Greenwood, Abbeville, Laurens, Anderson, Columbia and Clarendon county. The audience gave Former Gov. Cole L. Blease a cordial reception and several times during his attack on the administration of Gov. Manning his followers voiced their approval.

Gov. Manning made a vigorous presentation of his administration, telling of the laws placed on the statute books favorable to the farmers and the laboring people. He dwelt at some length on the law enforcement record, saying that the blind tigers and gamblers had been driven to cover. The governor took up the work of the State tax commission and its efforts towards equalization of the burdens of taxation, and then told of the borrowing of money to run the affairs of the State government at 2 per cent. interest, the lowest in the history of the State. He showed the business advantages to the State and the large amount saved for the taxpayers in the refunding of the bonded debt.

Tells of Asylum.

Mr. Manning went into details concerning the reorganization of the State Hospital for the Insane, describing the conditions which he found in that institution when he came into office as "so horrible as to beggar description". In telling of his intention to continue his law enforcement policy the governor said: "I have no apologies to make for anything I have done, for I did what I thought was right". He was given a bouquet of flowers.

Former Gov. Blease was greeted with cheers when he arose to speak. He at once struck at the administration of Gov. Manning, describing it as the most lawless and extravagant in the history of the State. The former governor claimed that his campaign had caused Mr. Manning to revoke the commissions of negro notaries public. He jumped on the boards created under the present administration. He especially assailed the board of charities and corrections and the tax commission and its chairman, A. W. Jones, charging that he paid nothing but a poll tax "and 85 cents of that ought to be returned." He read a letter from the auditor of Clarendon county in reference to the return which Gov. Manning made of his property in that county, charging that it was worth very many more times than the price at which it was returned for taxation. Mr. Blease was presented with several baskets and bouquets of flowers and baskets of peaches.

For Law Enforcement.

Robert A. Cooper followed Mr. Blease. Several of the audience had left but he went into his subject and soon held their close attention. Mr. Cooper said that he reiterated today what he said two years ago, that enforcement of the law was the paramount issue of the campaign, that no people could be a great people and no State a great State until it was law abiding. He said that if elected governor he would not interfere with the verdict of juries unless shown that there had been error. The Laurens man advocated building up the country schools and said he was in the race on his own man and asked the people to judge him on his merits. He was given some applause when he concluded.

J. M. DesChamps was hoarse but he made himself heard without difficulty and he made his daily vigorous assault on factionalism. He called on the people to do away with petty politics and to get in behind those things which go to upbuild the State and make for the betterment of mankind.

John T. Duncan was the last speaker and he told the crowd of the "system."

Andrew J. Bethea, candidate for lieutenant governor, opened the speaking this morning. His opponent, Dr. E. C. L. Adams, was detained in Columbia on business and sent a telegram to this effect to the chairman which was read to the crowd. D. W. McLaurin and S. T. Carter for State treasurer, George W. Wightman and W. Banks Dove for secretary of state, W. T. Thrower, James Canler, Albert S. Fani, G. McD. Hampton and W. H. Kelly for railroad commissioner, presented their claims to the Newberry audience.

The meeting was held in Jones grove, P. T. Hunter, county chairman, presiding. The Rev. J. W. Carson offered prayer.

Taking Big Chances.

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should be prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

Hill-Jones.

Cross Hill, June 28.—On Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. Amelia Hill, Miss Lucia Brooks Hill was married to Mr. Arsic Pierce Jones, of Nichols, S. C., Rev. W. D. Ratenford performing the ceremony. A few friends and relatives were present. The bride wore a lovely corsage of midnight blue, with accessories to harmonize. She is an attractive young woman, known by her gentle womanly graces. For the past two years she has been teaching in Darlington county, in the graded school at Mont Clare, S. C.

Mr. Jones is a handsome young man, being one of Marion county's most progressive and successful farmers. The young couple have a host of friends who extend to them best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on a north bound seaboard train. They will be at home to their friends at Nichols, after July the 1st. Mrs. Amelia Hill has issued cards of announcement.
