DIALS NEWS.

Dials, Sept. 4.—The primary is over, the political arena is closed until the 12th when the final will be written. The results of the election in some instances was a surprise, as well as keen disappointment. Some of our best men who offered for office were defeated. Consequently there are sore hearts as well as glad congratulations. But such is the life of the politician, and it can be said of most, they went down in defeat with dignity and honor.

It took no prophet, however, to prognosticate the re-election of Sam. J. Nicholls to congress; notwithstanding his inability to meet the voters, with one exception, face to face, as his official duties delayed him in Washington up to the eve of the election. Yet there was no necessity of his appearing before the people. For two years as well as last year, he stated his platform on every stump, and his congressional record speaks for itself.

The fourth district is proud of her brainy young congressman, and could hardly have done otherwise than send him back to congress, despite the inane campaign dope and hot air spouted by his opponents.

Though comparatively a young man, Mr. Nicholls has proved his efficiency, and ability to serve all his people and South Carolina as a whole, as well.

Mrs. Alec McCall has returned from a peasant visit with relatives in Belton and Easley.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gray of Shiloh, were the spend-the-day guests of Mr. Floyd Curry and family Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Gray and little Haskell, Jr., spent Tuesday night with Mr. Harris Curry and family.

The Sunday school convention including every denomination in Laurens county, which meets annually, will convene at Dials church, Sept. 13th and 14th. Preparation for the entertainment of the delegates are under way and a large delegation is expected. Prominent Sunday school workers will be present and will address the meeting both days.

Mrs. H. Y. Simmons, accompanied by her little grand-daughters, Ethel Owings and Sara Harris, visited relatives in Greenwood last week.

Miss Majorie Ropp, of Gray Court, was the guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Brooks.

One of the most delightful social events of the past week was the lovely affair given Thursday evening by Misses Marie and Mattie Simmons in honor of their attractive houseguest, Miss Nelle Lipford, of Donalds. The spacious home was thrown open to the assembled guests, to whom the time passed all too soon in progressive conversation and listening to some especially good musical numbers, rendered on the piano by Misses Cecil Owings and Marie Simmons. In the hall and parlor, tables were laid for two handed rook, which game was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Among those present were, Mrs. John Simmons, Misses Marie and Mattie Simmons, Nelle Lipford, Emma Harris, Cecil Owings, Salie Brownlee, Laura Hellams, Clara McCall and Messrs. John Simmons, Ernest, Marvin and Pierce Harris, George and Frank Yeargin, David Brownlee, I. M. Owings, Charles McCall, Leon Hellams, Frank Curry and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harris and children visited Mr. P. M. Hellams and family Thursday.

Miss Clara Campbell was the charming hostess to a large number of her friends Wednesday evening, when she entertained with a lawn party. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Quite a number from here attended the box supper and lawn party, at Eden schoolhouse, Friday evening. Judging by the crowd present it was a success both socially and in a financial way.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

LIVER TROUBLE.

The Laurens County Sunday School Association is auxiliary to the South Carolina Sunday School Association, which is a co-operative effort on the part of all denominations to improve Sunday School conditions and Sunday School workers. It advocates the latest and best methods of Sunday School work and stands only for those interests that are common to Sunday Schools of all denominations. The plans and methods suggested by this Association are practicable for all Sunday Schools, as they do not touch on Church doctrines. The work is by way of suggestion, not by authority; therefore it helps many, it hinders none. The object is helpful and brotherly co-operation, not organic union. The officers of the Association are leading Christian business men of all evangelical denominations.
