

PEOPLES DRUG STORE

The Peoples Drug Store, owned and managed by Mr. T. E. Todd, is one of Laurens' most thriving institutions. Mr. Todd is a native of Laurens and has a host of friends throughout this community. In the month of February 1916, he bought out the place that he is now operating, it being formerly known as Rays Pharmacy. Mr. Todd has made numerous improvements on this store since he purchased it, all goods are new and up-to-date. He has a full line of everything that goes to make up a first class drug store. Mr. Todd is a man imbued with lots of public spirit and civic pride and is willing at all times to lend a helping hand in any movement that is for the betterment of the town and county.

FARMERS NATIONAL BANK.

No city of Laurens' class has better banking facilities than exist here.

Prominent among the financial institutions that go to make up this most important factor in the city's development, is the Farmers National Bank, an advertisement of which setting forth the particulars of its business appears elsewhere in this edition. This is the youngest bank in the city, the success of which is a source of gratification, as is attested by the increase of deposits, both individual and savings.

Much of this bank's prestige is due to its efficient officers and the high character and standing of its directors.

The directors of this bank are as follows: M. J. Owings, J. S. Machen, B. B. Blakeley, H. J. Martin, R. B. Bell, J. C. Owings, T. F. Babb, W. B. Sloan, J. E. Owings.

Mr. M. J. Owings is president, J. E. Owings, cashier; and C. T. Franks, Asst. cashier. This bank has a capital of $50,000, surplus and undivided profits, $1,839.25; individual deposits, $15,359.50; savings deposits, $18,128.94; time deposits, $13,537.85.

MINTER COMPANY.

The Minter Co. operates one of the largest stores in the city of Laurens. They give employment to about fifteen people which means a whole lot to the working class of people in a town of this size. The members of this firm are as follows: E. P. Minter, president; W. H. Anderson, vice president; R. A. Babb, sec.-treas.; T. E. Babb.

incorporated and now it is known as the Minter Co. Mr. E. P. Minter is a large property owner in the town and county, and operates several farms. He operates 16 plows. He is also a director of the glass factory, which is located here and is president of the Home Building and Loan association. The other members of this firm are also large property owners in the city and are well liked and admired by the entire community.

Cuts a V Shaped Ditch

A SYSTEM of such ditches will make your farm produce more abundantly. You can reclaim the waste acres and make every foot pay. You can do it at a saving, for here is a machine that will pay for itself several times over the first season and keep on doing it year after year.

THE Martin
Patented

Farm Ditcher and Road Grader

is great for terracing hillsides, cutting ditches, cleaning out old ditches, leveling bumps, filling gullies and grading roads.

It's made of steel and will last a life time. It's adjustable for narrow or wide cuts; is reversible—throws dirt to either side. Try it 10 days—your money back if you want it, but you won't.
