DIALS NEWS.

Dials, Jan. 15.—A death that caused much sadness throughout this community was that of Miss Irene Godfrey which occurred in a hospital at Hendersonville, N. C., to which place the young girl had been rushed from her home in Tuxedo, N. C., for an operation for appendicitis. The young girl never recovered from the operation. Wednesday the body, accompanied by loved ones and friends from Tuxedo, arrived on the noon train, the interment taking place in the Dials cemetery surrounded by a concourse of sorrowing friends. The services were conducted by the Rev. G. H. Harley.

Miss Godfrey was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Godfrey. She was about seventeen years of age, a girl of sweet Christian character, beloved by all who knew her. She is survived by her parents, two sisters, several brothers and a wide family connection. The sympathy of the entire community go out to the bereaved ones.

Mr. Godfrey and family will return to their old home at this place during the coming week, where they will reside, Mr. Godfrey having given up his position in Tuxedo.

Miss Sue Thomason visited relatives in Fountain Inn last week.

Mrs. Wm. Gray of Gray Court, spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. I. S. Brooks.

Mr. John R. Hellams of Spartanburg, was a business visitor in our midst last week.

Mrs. Festus Curry and little daughter, Mavis Clare, have returned from a visit with relatives in Bennettsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Huff of Augusta Cross Roads, were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Owings.

Misses Geell Owings and Eileen Curry of Hillside, and Kate Curry, of Fork Shoals, spent the week-end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Yates Cox, of Durbin, spent Sunday night with Mr. Sam Switzer and family.

Miss Easterling, of Bennettsville, is staying a while with her sister, Mrs. Festus Curry.

Mr. C. P. Brooks of Laurens was a visitor at the home of his mother Sunday.

Miss Annie Wright, accompanied by her friend, Miss Walsh, spent the week-end with her parents at Tylersville.

Mr. Geo. Frady and family have moved to Gray Court, where they will make their home.

The Rev. G. H. Harley filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The sermon denoted much thought, and made a pleasing impression on the large congregation present.

Mrs. J. M. Bolt of Greenville, was the week-end guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Brownlee.

HICKORY TAVERN NEWS.

Hickory Tavern, Jan. 15.—If the bad weather continues we are going to have more bad roads.

There is a great deal of sickness in our community at this writing. Messrs Wellie Abercrombie and R. M. Bolt both are in a serious condition but we hope to see them out among their friends soon.

Mr. M. A. Sumerel, of Pea Ridge section, spent Wednesday night with Mr. J. M. Sumerel and family.

Mr. W. M. Abercrombie is putting in a telephone line. He has all the posts in and will put the wire on in a few days.

Mrs. Hattie Durant and children, of Georgia, were the week-end visitors of her sister, Mrs. W. M. Abercrombie.

South Carolina Come-to-Sunday-School Day.

Sunday Schools of all denominations in South Carolina are expecting to observe Sunday, February 11th, as "South Carolina Come-to-Sunday-School Day". The officials call for this day was issued by the South Carolina Sunday School Association and endorsed by officials of the State and by the leaders of the various denominations; and, in addition, the States of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Arkansas will observe the same day.

The purpose of the day is to get as many people as possible to attend Sunday School on this occasion, interest them in the Sunday School and Bible study, and give opportunity to all, who will, to become regular members of the Sunday School. "Everybody in Sunday School on February 11th—If you're not there, you'll be lonesome", is the slogan.

OYSTER SUPPER AT OWINGS.

Men's Bible Class Hosts to People of the Community.

On Friday evening at 5 o'clock the Men's Bible Class of Owings gave an oyster supper and other refreshments to the men and ladies of the community. This occasion proved a most enjoyable one to all present. The speaking was of a high order being very much to the point as regards Sunday School work. The first speaker of the evening, after Mr. Wilson had made some introductory remarks, was Mr. P. W. Moore. The next speaker was Mr. Jas. H. Sullivan. Both of these gentlemen gave some helpful reasons for attending Sunday School and some good effects of the adult Bible classes.

After the oysters were served the following toasts were given: "Owings" by R. T. Wilson; "Our Class" by P. W. Moore; "The Men in Sunday School", by Rev. Mr. Harley.
