GOVERNOR'S RACE

Is Candidate of State Warehouse Association.

Columbia, Feb. 13 .- A new political faction was set in motion last night when the State warehouse association "recommended" John L. McLaurin of Bennettsville for governor and Oscar K. Mauldin of Greenville for licutonant governor. Mr. McLaurin and Mr. Mauldin promised to make the race. Senator J. A. Banks presided at the meeting.

The netton of the member in the troducing politics into the proceedings has caused a split in the ranks of the State warehouse association. When a State licket was proposed, M. O. Danizler of Orangeburg, R. M. Cooper of Wiszeky, members of the executive committee of the association and E. W. Dable, former president of he South Carolino, State Farmers' union, withdress from the meeting,

In his speech of accentance Mr. Mc-Lauvin gald the lie would make the State warehouse system an issue in Sinte politics and that he would begin his campaign' for governor next gummer. He said that he would rather be werehouse commissioner than govration was parcionally to the system and that he would enter the race to save the State warehouse. The labor union and the secret farmers' secieties will be asked to join in the Mc-Laurin gubernatoria' boom.

The meeting of the association was held last night in city council cham-
