Commends N. B. Dial.

Editor The Advertiser:

I want to say that I have known Mr. N. B. Dial, candidate for the United States Senate, all my life. I want to say in his behalf that he is a good business man and a friend of the working man and is always ready and willing to aid a man who is willing to help himself.

I am a farmer and also run a saw mill business. Whenever I needed a sale for my lumber or to finance business Colonel Dial always loaned me a helping hand. In 1913 when cotton dropped so low he took my cotton receipts and loaned me money to tide over that panic. He is the founder of the second bonded warehouse in the State for the storage of cotton to help the farmer. I know of many instances where he has saved men from financial failure by prompt assistance and indulgence. He is the man to represent us in this critical period.

Yours very truly,
E. G. BRAMBLETT.

GIRLS! ITS YOUR STEP THAT ATTRACTS!

Says women pay too much heed to their faces instead of their corns.

Watch your step! A brisk, lively step is what charms more than a lovely skin, but your high heels have caused corns and you limp a little. That's bad, girls, and you know it. Corns destroy beauty and grace beside corns are very easy to remove. Rid your feet of every corn by asking at any drug store for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, touchy corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out without pain.

This freezone is a gummy substance which dries instantly and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding skin.

Women must keep in mind that cornless feet create a youthful step which enhance her attractiveness.

SOLDIERS OF MANY NATIONS MARCH IN HONOR OF FRANCE

All Allied Nations Represented in Monster Parade in Paris on Bastille Day.

Paris, July 14.—Heroes distinguished during the war in all the entente allied armies participated in a monster parade through the streets of Paris today in celebration of the fourteenth of July—Bastille day. American troops from the first and second divisions, recently cited in army orders, represented the United States army. One detachment took part in the capture of Cantigny, while others were in the Chateau Thierry fighting.

All the American units had been in France more than a year and wore two service stripes. The American expeditionary forces were showered with flowers by French girls and were received all along the route with the greatest enthusiasm.

The parade was reviewed by President Poincare, who was accompanied by Gen. John J. Pershing, the commander-in-chief of the United States forces in France. The Americans occupied second place in the column. All branches of the French army service were represented. The Alpine Chasseurs received an ovation while singing their well known Alsatian song along the line of march. Historic French regiments, with battle flags of the Napoleonic wars, as well as the engagements in the present war, including the battles of the Marne, the Verdun, the Somme, the Aisne and Champagne, were cheered with "Vive la Poilu", while girls threw flowers to them.

A battalion of Belgians followed the Americans. Then came British contingents, including the Grenadier guards, the Black Watch, Irish Guards, Canadians and New Zealanders. Bagpipes accompanied Highlanders who came out of the trenches yesterday.

The Italian representation included Alpine units. A detachment of the Polish army was loudly cheered by the crowds. A band played a Sousa march, while many Poles greeted the American expeditionary soldiers lining the streets with "Hello American boys!"

Czecho-Slovaks who had fought on the Russian front, carrying the banner recently presented them by President Poincare, sang a battle song that was pleasing to the spectators who cheered them. The song was timed to marching cadence and the singing was as perfect as the unity of the lines of the chorus.

A Russian detachment of the French Legion of Honor, officered by Russians, occupied a place in the parade. A battalion of Greeks and Portuguese also was present. Part of the line was taken up by French marines, sailors and cavalry.

American ambulances concluded the procession and here again the overseas soldiers were showered with flowers and cheered.

Unfavorable weather, with frequent rain, did not prevent all viewing points of the parade obtainable from being crowded. Many persons had taken up their positions the night before.

By special arrangements wounded soldiers were given good places to see their comrades.

The line of march was from the Bois de Boulogne through various wide avenues to the Tuileries Garden. As the official party left, President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau received ovations. Marshal Joffre, hero of the Marne, also was enthusiastically cheered.

LAURENS MAN LOSES HOPE.

"For 10 years I suffered severely from stomach trouble. The doctors said I had cancer of the stomach and nothing would do but an operation. I took my last round of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy 2-1-2 years ago. Since then I sleep well, eat what I want and feel fine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrh, mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

MINGLED HUMOR AND DRAMA.

R. A. Walsh Uses Novel Acts in "The Honor System."

"The Honor System," William Fox's intensely human melodrama, while in its gripping appeal tugs strongly at the heart strings, is far from being a somber picture of life in its most distressing phases. This gripping drama, to the production of which the state of Arizona lent its entire resources and which vividly portrays conditions along the Mexican border, has been justly described as "the greatest human story ever told."

Its humaneness lies not only in its faithful depiction of the struggle between virtue and the unseen powers of graft, but in the flashes of rare humor that light the picture like flashes of sunlight.

Many of these touches are inspirations on the part of R. A. Walsh, of the Fox Film Corporation, whose masterly work in directing "The Honor System" stamps him as one of the foremost directors of the cinema world. Among the most novel things he did was the use of animal actors to supply part of the humor. There are rabbits, dogs, geese, rats, horses and other members of the animal world in the cast of "The Honor System." Any motion picture director will tell you that no actor, not even the most temperamental of the tribe, is quite so hard to manage before the camera as an animal actor.

This big feature will be shown at the Opera House Friday of this week. Also Texas Ritchie "The Strong Man from Texas" in person.
