

MADDEEN NEWS.

Madden, Aug. 13.—A large crowd attended the baptizing at Prospect Sunday afternoon where seven young girls and three young lads went down into the water to arise "to walk in newness of life". We trust that these young people may be helpful and loyal to the church and their lives a benediction to all.

We were glad to greet the following friends from other churches, who enjoyed the services with us: Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Dunlap and daughters, of Laurens; Col. and Mrs. John Wharton, of Waterloo; Mr. Tom Madden and Miss Nora McDaniel, of Mt. Pleasant. The many friends of Mrs. Minnie Finley Lawrence, of Seneca, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Finley of Westminster, were surprised and delighted to greet them Sunday afternoon. These good folks are former Laurens county people and are here and at Waterloo on a visit to numerous relatives. We were glad to see they were looking so well and their lines evidently have fallen in pleasant places.

Mesdames Georgia Martin, Mattie Langston and Pearl Brown are three of the good mothers of our community that have been on the sick list. We are glad to report all better and hope to see them out soon.

All hearts were saddened when it became known that John Watkins was dead. His body was brought up from Columbia Sunday afternoon and was buried in Mt. Pleasant cemetery Monday morning at 11 o'clock. A large concourse of neighbors and friends were present. Rev. J. R. Williams conducted the funeral exercises. The Scripture lesson was taken from the words of the Saviour to Mary and Martha. "Thy brother shall live again." The hearts of all go out in deepest sympathy to the parents, brothers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Traywick Long and sons came up from Cheraw for the funeral of their brother, John Watkins.

Several from here attended the old soldiers' reunion at Quaker.

Mrs. Jim Roper, Mr. and Mrs. Will Woods and Mrs. Charley Roper were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Moore and Mr. Walter Moore were visitors of their mother, Mrs. Ella Moore Sunday. They went up to greet their brother, L. L. Moore and bride, who have returned from their honeymoon. Mr. Lewis Proffitt, who is in the Ordnance department, and Miss Alice Proffitt, of Columbia, were visitors to homefolks for the week-end.

(Intended for last week.)

Madden, Aug. 5.—After a week of rain the sun shines brightly again and farmers are in the meantime whittling and discussing whether it will be best to plow the crop again.

Protracted meeting closed at Prospect Friday night with an addition of 10 youthful members. Rev. R. J. Williams, the visiting preacher, was greatly loved by Prospect people and his preaching was helpful to young and old.

The writer recently had the pleasure and privilege of reading a letter from one of our soldier boys near the far-flung battle line in France. "I am just behind the firing line and will be in in a day or two. Don't worry about me. Rest assured when me and my Lewis gun do get into the fight, what we will do for 'Old Jerry' will be a plenty." Bully for you, Claude, Uncle Sam has no better shot than you and we all know you will do your duty.

Misses Fannie Hudgens and Marie Madden, who are taking a business course at Greenville, came down for the week-end. They were accompanied by a friend, Miss Miller.

Mrs. Viola Gentry, after spending the week of meeting with her sister, Mrs. Lena Brown, left for home near Darbin Saturday.

Mrs. Della Cunningham, of Mt. Pleasant enjoyed the meeting at Prospect, her old home church, as well as delighted her many friends with her presence, for she is a favorite here. She was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Griff Finley.

Miss Ora Powers is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Mattie Bobo Poole near Langston.

Miss Jimmie Atkins was the recent guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lee Langston.

Miss Myrtle Bishop, a charming young lady, of Tuman, after a pleasant visit here with Miss Azile Wofford, returned home Monday. Miss Bishop was one of the efficient teachers of the school of which Miss Wofford was principal and their work together made a lasting friendship.

Mr. P. H. Martin, of Atlanta, is spending his annual vacation with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brown and daughter, Miss Ruth, were the enjoyable guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wofford Sunday. We were interested in hearing that their son, Yates, who is in the aviation service, is going on up in his chosen line of service. He is expected home for a few days before he sails for overseas duty. We hope he will get home, as expected, the latter part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Wash Long and their charming daughters, of Waterloo, were pleasant callers recently of the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wofford.

A triumph of modern pharmacy that is destined to bless the whole world—that is the opinion of physicians and druggists who are familiar with the new calomel that is wholly free from the objectionable effects of the old-style calomel.

An occasional purifying of the system and thorough cleansing of the liver are absolutely essential to health, and, as all doctors know, calomel is the only drug that accomplishes this result. Now that the unpleasant and dangerous effects are entirely removed, the popularity of the new calomel, Calotabs, will be vastly increased. Its effect is delightful. One tablet at bedtime, a swallow of water—that's all. You wake up next morning feeling fine, your liver cleansed, your system purified and with a hearty appetite for breakfast.
