

LANFORD NEWS.

Lanford, March 24.—We were sorry to hear of the death of a bright young woman, Miss Ruth Mattox, who died at Enoree last week. Her remains were brought here and tenderly laid to rest, by a large circle of relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Prince, pastor at Enoree. Miss Ruth passed her childhood days here until about 4 or 5 years ago when she moved to Spartanburg where she was engaged in telephone service. She leaves a father, two sisters and one brother, with whom we deeply sympathize.

Miss Fay Hill, of Enoree, Mrs. C. D. Cox, Miss Cooper were visitors at the home of Mr. M. L. Burnett during the week, to examine the beautiful new piano he has recently purchased for his little daughters.

Mr. Belton Lanford and Misses Etolia and Florrie Lanford, of Woodruff, were guests of relatives and friends here Sunday. We were all glad to see them back in their old home town again.

Miss Daisy Harris, the home demonstration agent met with the school and the Rural Improvement association Friday afternoon and gave some very valuable demonstration to sewing club and the ladies enjoyed some of the dainties made with the good mayonnaise, tomato jelly, salads, sandwiches, etc., which Miss Harris is an expert in making.

The all-day singing at Enoree was well attended Sunday and it was announced that Lanford is to have one next Sunday, March 30th. All are invited to attend. Bring your lunches with you and spend the day in singing beautiful songs of praise to our Master and it will be a day well spent in the service.

Mr. A. R. Holmes has had his house remodeled and it looks like a new residence, which adds very much to the appearance of the place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Ferguson of Spartanburg and Mrs. Lou Ferguson and little daughter of Laurens, and Mr. Harper Higgins of Union, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Higgins.

Mrs. Bonnie Price and Mrs. E. L. Thompson, of Greenwood, are visiting the former's grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Thomas.

Mrs. T. A. Drummond attended the woman's meeting held at Spartanburg last Friday and Saturday and reports a very helpful and inspiring meeting. Some of the effects of the meeting were seen Sunday in the organization of a Y. W. A. band.

Mrs. R. T. Crow, Mrs. W. T. Cooper, Mr. A. L. Crow and family went to Spartanburg Saturday, to do some spring shopping.

Mr. J. R. Patterson was in Laurens last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Annie Nabors.

Mr. B. W. Johnson and family, Mr. R. L. Moore and family, and Misses Ruth and Nannie May Lanford, all of Arcadia, visited their parents Sunday.

Mr. Talmage Patterson has landed safely on this side and will be at home at an early date.

There will be an ice cream supper given at the school house Friday night, March 28th. Let everybody come and buy lots of cream, to help out the school. Captain W. R. Richey, of Laurens, has been invited to make a talk and tell of some of his experiences overseas.

It has been agreed and announced that during this year there will be union services for all congregations at one of the churches on each 5th Sunday morning. The services next Sunday morning will be held at the Presbyterian church when some invited speaker will conduct the worship.

Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15, were observed as opening days at the millinery store of the Misses Rudd. Quite a crowd of ladies were in town and found a beautiful display in the latest styles of millinery fashions ready for their inspection and choice.

Miss Lizzie L. Griffin of the Cross Hill school, spent the week-end with relatives in Greenwood.

Miss Mildred Wilson went to Newberry Friday, where she visited her parents for the week-end.

Misses Carry and Lucile Fuller, of Atlanta, were here Saturday and Sunday, to see their cousin, Mrs. Zell Guthrie and others.

Miss Mary Hill of the Mt. Pleasant school was here Friday to Sunday, with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Patterson were the guests of Mrs. J. F. Poole Sunday. Messrs. W. P. Poole, P. F. Poole, Clarence Sanders and C. R. Cooper were business visitors in Laurens Saturday.

Miss Maude Poole spent Friday afternoon with Miss Lila Clark.

Little Margaret Poole has been on the sick list, but is much better at this writing.

Mrs. W. P. Poole and son, Callie, visited in Clinton recently.

CROSS HILL NEWS.

Cross Hill, March 24.—Marriage began in Cross Hill again last Tuesday when Mr. Hoyle Coleman led in marriage Miss Beatrice Ward at the home of the bride four miles below this place. Mr. Coleman was discharged from military service a few weeks ago at Camp Jackson and is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Coleman.

The second wedding occurred Wednesday when Mr. W. Arthur Workman, a prominent and successful farmer, was joined in matrimony to Miss Beula Turner, both of this section. The marriage ceremony was performed at Clinton. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. John W. Turner.

Both of these couples are settled on farms where they are beginning life in their new relations with happy hearts and cheering hopes of future prosperity. They have the congratulations of many friends.

At the Laymen's Convention held at Greenwood last week the Cross Hill Baptist church was represented by Rev. J. G. Wilson, Messrs. A. M. Hill, S. H. Goggans, L. E. Martin, J. A. Davenport, A. J. McKittrick, W. P. Culbertson and John B. Wharton.

Messrs. W. P. Thomason and M. L. Smith of Laurens, were here on 3rd Sunday morning and spoke at the Baptist church in the interest of the Laymen's Missionary movement.

TYLERSVILLE NEWS.

Tylersville, March 24.—Our farmers are very busy trying to get their farms ready to plant. There has been so much rain that they are badly behind.

The funeral of Mr. M. B. Poole, who died at the Laurens hospital early Saturday morning, was held at Langston church at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. J. R. Williams, his pastor and Mr. C. B. Bobo conducted the services. Quite a number of people attended the services.

Miss Lidie Peterson, of Spartanburg, spent the week-end with homefolks.

Mr. Henry Poole spent Sunday with Mr. W. P. Poole.

J. B. Nall, Secretary.

I have purchased the Royal Bred Stallion and will stand him at Laurens, S. C., this season. He is a big bone horse, weighs 1,200 lbs., fine driver, gentle and kind. Most any kind of a mare bred to him would bring a good colt.

You can see by his Registration Certificate that he is bred in the purple.

Come and look him over. The fee will be $15.00 to insure.

The Horse at present can be seen at W. P. Childress & Son's Sales Stables, Laurens, S. C.
