

PROFITABLE SESSION OF BAPTIST WORKERS

Waterloo Baptist Church Hosts of Union Meeting Saturday and Sunday.
Cross Hill, March 31.—The union meeting held at Waterloo Baptist church Saturday and Sunday was a success in every way. The attendance was fairly good, the spirit in which the several speakers entered their respective subjects was unusually fervent, and the unanimity which pervaded all deliberations vied with the warm fellowship for first place. The Christian's Prayer Life, discussed by Messrs. W. C. Wharton, T. B. Brown and Rev. C. E. Vermillion enlisted the thoughtful consideration of everyone as these men presented the Biblical obligation and the experimental results of such a life. Following this was a very impressive discussion as to the responsibility for the scarcity of ministers at this time, by Messrs. J. H. Wharton, T. S. Langston, and R. D. Boyd. As a result of this discussion the following resolution offered by W. P. Culbertson, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our Baptist churches should pray fervently the Lord to call more men into the Gospel ministry and that they should enlarge their support to the ministry.

The union then adjourned one hour for dinner, during which time everyone sumptuously enjoyed the hospitality for which the Waterloo people are noted, while they partook of an abundant spread on a table prepared nearby.

In the afternoon two other interesting topics were considered, a splendid pace for which was set in the devotional exercises conducted by Pastor J. G. Wilson.

The first of these was, God's Claim on One-Seventh of Our Time and One-Tenth of Our Income, and the speakers were John R. Finley and Rev. John G. Wilson. As a result of these discussions a practically unanimous vote was taken that one-seventh of our time and one-tenth of our income belongs to the Lord and His kingdom service. The last subject for discussion was reached at three o'clock. This was, The Relation of our Church to Christian Education. The speakers, Messrs. B. Y. and W. P. Culbertson, brought forth the idea that the mission of the church is to educate or train in Kingdom work as well as preach to the unsaved. That in fulfilling this mission it must support any and all means for Christian education.

On Sunday morning just after Sunday school, Messrs. J. C. Miller, W. C. Wharton and B. Y. Culbertson spoke on the subject, Business Men and Business Methods in the Lord's Business, after which the missionary sermon was preached by Rev. Chas. E. Vermillion, of Laurens. Text, Matt. 22:21, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's." Many were the favorable comments on this discourse. The union then adjourned to meet at Beavertown in June.

The first fifth Sunday union service of the several Cross Hill congregations was held at Liberty Springs Presbyterian church Sunday morning and was well attended. The sermon was preached by Rev. John G. Wilson of the Baptist church. The song service was an enjoyable part of the worship.

NAUSEALSS CALOMEL BEST MEDICINE FOR A LAZY LIVER

Calotabs, the New Kind of Calomel, Does the Work Without the Slightest Unpleasantness of Danger

You have always thought of calomel as the best and surest medicine in the world, but too nauseating for you to take. That was the old-style calomel. Now science has taken the sting out of calomel by removing its unpleasant and dangerous qualities, and has kept all its good liver-cleansing and system purifying effects.

The next time you are bilious or constipated, ask for Calotabs, the new nausealss calomel. Sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. One tablet at bedtime, with a swallow of water,—that's all. No taste, no gripping, no nausea, no salts. You wake up in the mornin' feeling fine, your liver active, your system purified, and with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger of salivation. Your money back at any drug store if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(adv.)

THIRTIETH HEROES WARMLY WELCOMED

As the troops passed up Main Street scores of them were recognized by people standing along the curbing. Greetings were uttered in tones that could be heard above the tumult, but with eyes that looked dead ahead, the men marched on, only an occasional smile breaking out despite all military regulations.

There was no break in the line of spectators though fathers and mothers followed their sons for blocks with their eyes.

"If I'd known the whole State was going to turn out to see Dave when he came home, I don't think I would have objected to his going in," said one farmer. "And I don't believe I'll shoot the local board as I had about made up my mind to do," he concluded.

When the troops were passing and the eye was weary with seeing and the ears tired with hearing, a band came in view. Its drum major sighted the reviewing stand, and his baton waved vigorously.

There was a rattle from the drum, and then the opening notes of Dixie burst on the air. The crowd was electrified, and cheer after cheer rent the air that had become momentarily quiet. An old Confederate veteran, with his hat in his hand, said, "That tune, you can't beat it."

Among those present on the reviewing stand were: Brig. Gen. W. E. Cole, commander of Camp Jackson; Brig. Gen. L. D. Tyson and wife, Corp. G. W. Batson, Lieut. J. C. Dozier, Sergt. Gary E. Foster, Lieut. Col. T. B. Spratt, Mr. and Mrs. Christie Benet, Capt. E. W. Springs, Senator E. D. Smith, Governor Cooper and Mrs. Cooper, Adj. Gen. W. W. Moore, Senator and Mrs. N. B. Dial of Laurens, Congressman A. F. Lever, Congressman F. H. Dominick, Capt. Morris Lumpkin, Colonel Booker and Mrs. Booker, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Munsell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Robertson, W. A. Coleman, T. B. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barron, C. O. Hearn, W. A. Cornack, Rion McKissick, William Banks, Joe Sparks.

Directly behind the last company came the wounded soldiers from Camp Jackson in automobiles driven by members of the Red Cross motor corps. The men received a rousing reception all along the line, and apparently enjoyed the outing which the parade afforded them.

After having passed up Main to Elmwood Avenue, the columns passed down Sumter Street and the men were dismissed near Gervais.

At once the soldiers flocked to Main Street, where they were served with edibles at the booths along the thoroughfare.

Last night Main street presented a scene of movement and color. The amusement places were crowded to the doors and restaurants and soda fountains were full to capacity until late at night.—The State.
