GRAY COURT TO HAVE NEW BANK

Application Made for Charter for Peoples Bank with a Capital of $50,000. Open September 1st.

Gray Court, July 8.—Application has been made for a charter for the Peoples bank which is proposed to have ready for business by September 1st, with a capital stock of $50,000. The petitioners for the charter are F. T. Curry, J. A. Curry, L. R. Brooks, A. M. Owings, Dr. J. W. Benson, G. F. Dorroh and P. R. Abercrombie.

A meeting was held Saturday afternoon at which time the organization of the bank was tentatively executed. F. T. Curry is to be president of the new bank, L. R. Brooks will be active vice-president and A. M. Owings will be cashier. The meeting Saturday afternoon was presided over by F. D. Holt.

It is proposed to have the new bank ready for business by September 1st. A handsome building will be erected to be used as the home of the new bank, although it is not hoped to have the building ready by the opening date. Temporary quarters will be secured until the proposed structure can be erected. The new building will likely be erected on the lot adjoining the store of L. T. Curry and the office building, although no decision has been made as to the site.

The promoters of the new banking institution are among the leading business men of the town and section, and are connected with several of the largest industries in this section. J. A. Curry, one of the petitioners for a charter, is mayor of Gray Court.

The Peoples bank will be the second bank for Gray Court, the Bank of Gray Court having been organized a little more than ten years ago. R. L. Gray is president of this bank while L. R. Brooks, who is to be active vice-president of the Peoples Bank, has been cashier of the Bank of Gray Court since its organization. A. M. Owings formerly was cashier of the Bank of Owings.

NEWS OF EX-KAISER'S TRIAL SURPRISES

Much Surprise Expressed That William Hohenzollern be Tried in London. Trial Will Probably Be Held This Fall.

London, July 5.—The allies, according to the Daily Mail have received assurances that the Dutch government in the last resort will not refuse to surrender the former German emperor for trial.

The newspaper says that the necessary formal objections will doubtless be raised to maintain the rights of Dutch sovereignty, but as the demand for his person can be made in the name of the league of nations, national rights will not be infringed and there is no doubt the Dutch government will be quite willing to get rid of the unwelcome guest.

London, July 4.—The only surprise of the report by Premier Lloyd George on the work of the peace conference to the house of commons yesterday, was the news that the former German emperor would be tried in London.

The decision to bring the former emperor to London, with other prominent accused persons, has been a well-kept secret, and it is understood that Mr. Lloyd George was responsible for the proposal. Holland, however, has yet to be reckoned with, it is reported. Dutch public opinion has seemed to strongly support the kaiser's right of asylum there, and there are many predictions that Holland may refuse to give up the deposed monarch and that the powers will not coerce her.

Great state trials in England, of which there have been none for many years, have been held in Westminster Hall, but it is not believed that William Hohenzollern will be given that honor. The procedure for this trial will be laid down by a commission, which will be appointed by a committee to execute the provisions of the peace treaty. Five judges will be chosen by the British, American, French, Italian and Japanese governments and it is expected they will constitute the court. In that event, the Earl of Reading, lord chief justice, will sit for Great Britain and Edward Douglas White, of Louisiana, chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, is regarded as the logical choice of the American government. Parliamentary gossip holds that the former emperor certainly should not be given a privileged position in court, but should be put in the dock like any other man charged with a crime.

Trial is looked for this autumn, if it occurs, and steps for the kaiser's extradition are expected to be taken soon, if not already begun. Dutch newspapers have discussed Count Hohenzollern's extradition ever since he took refuge in Holland, the general sentiment appears to be that it would be a humiliation for Holland to surrender the former monarch at the demand of the powers.

The Handelsblad, of Amsterdam recently said, regarding the former emperor and crown prince:

"Both of them have been admitted to this country as a matter of fact, not as a matter of right, for no authorization to travel or reside in Holland has been issued to them in accordance with the law of 1849 relating to foreigners, nor are they interned as dangerous foreigners under the temporary law of 1898, which requires that a foreigners to be interned must be deemed dangerous to public order, safety, health or morality."

The newspaper points out that foreigners not in possession of an authorization to travel or reside here may be put over the frontier from which they came.

Legal opinion here is that Holland's action in assigning residences to William Hohenzollern and his son constituted permission for them to reside in Holland. The prospect of having the kaiser in England as a state prisoner has given the public a great topic of discussion.

Amsterdam, July 4.—There is nothing to prevent the former German emperor or the former crown prince from leaving Holland at their pleasure, according to a high government authority at The Hague quoted by the Amsterdam Telegraaf correspondent. If either of them should leave however, the official quoted said, the surprise of their departure would be "unpleasant both for the Dutch government and the Dutch people."

"Should here come, however, a demand for the former kaiser's extradition," the official said in an interview, "and should he then want to depart suddenly, it is possible he will be prevented. He can, according to the law of extradition, be 'arrested,' at the request of a foreign government, but a demand for his extradition must be made within a certain period."

"When the demand for extradition comes it will be examined in the light of laws and treaties first. The law to be considered is the extradition laws, Article II, whereof specifies offenses for which foreigners will not be extradited. Extradition also is subject to a number of other restrictions, formalities and guarantees. Should there come a demand which is technically correct and in order the government must first obtain the advice of the tribunal under whose legal jurisdiction the person wanted is residing. Ameringer being in the department of Utrecht, the tribunal of that department would have to decide whether the former emperor should be extradited."

"The former kaiser must be heard by a tribunal. The hearing may take place en-camera and at that hearing he could be represented by counsel. Within fourteen days after the hearing the tribunal must inform the minister of justice of its decision whereupon the government would act."

The Telegraaf correspondent says the Dutch government intends to adhere strictly to a judicial point of view and "to put it mildly, it is very doubtful whether the extradition would be permitted."

A Doctor's Gift to The World

A Remedy to Overcome Catarrh and Catarrhal Conditions was Dr. Hartman's Legacy to the World of Suffering.

The Doctor early recognized the insidious nature of catarrh and consecrated his life to checking the ravages of the worst of all health destroyers.

PERUNA

The Greatest of All Catarrh Remedies

Catarrh first attacks the mucous linings in the nose, throat, lungs, stomach, bowels or any other part of the body. Unchecked it finally breaks down the tissues and chronic ailments develop which, if not fatal, are always difficult to cure.

Guard your health with Peruna. Don't wait until too late. Peruna is excellent for coughs, colds, effects of the grip and all catarrhal inflammation and congestion of the mucous linings.

Many startling recoveries have been recorded.

TOOK IT FOR CHRONIC BRONCHITIS.

"I was troubled for four or five years. A few doses of Peruna would always bring relief. In the Spring of 1914, I began taking Peruna in earnest and used twelve bottles and have not had an attack in two years. I feel better and can do more work than in ten years. Peruna also cured me of chronic Bronchitis and I recommend it as a splendid remedy."
MR. O. F. McBRIDE,
Santa Fe, Ohio.

HAD CATARRH IN WORST FORM

"I had catarrh and was all run down. Many claimed it was consumption and I really thought so myself. I had a pain in my lungs and left side, no appetite, could not sleep, always weak and tired. My weight was 89 pounds. I took fifteen bottles of Peruna and am entirely cured. I now weigh 135 pounds. Thanks to Peruna."

Pulls New Stuff In "SUNNYSIDE"
Chauffeurs the Cows, Mows the Floors, Entertains Woodland Nymphs

"New Stuff" is the best description of "Sunnyside." It is real comedy in the best sense, for there is a thread of pathos running through the story, Charlie appears in the character of the hired man of a small town country hotel and store. His manifold duties give ample opportunity for new and ingenious business.
