NUMBER 14

SENATE REJECTS AMENDMENT TO SHANTUNG CLAUSE

Long Debated Amendment is Voted Down with 55 Against and 35 For. Fourteen Republicans Voted with Democrats.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The long debated Shantung amendment to the peace treaty, presented by Senator Lodge and approved by the foreign relations committee, finally was rejected in the senate today with a majority of an even score against it.

In the vote of thirty-five to fifty-five, fourteen Republicans swung over to the pro-treaty forces, while three Democrats lined up with those supporting the proposal. Of the six senators absent, two Republicans were put on record as in favor of the amendment and one Republican and three Democrats as opposing it.

The roll call, which came at the end of another six and a half hours of sharp debate, in reality swept away six amendments instead of one, each change in the treaty text having been numbered separately by the committee in its decision to strike out the word "Japan" and substituting the word "China" throughout the sections relating to the province of Shantung. By unanimous consent, however, the six changes were debated and voted on as one.

Only three of the committee's forty-five amendments now remain to be acted on by the Senate, thirty-six previously having been rejected. Of those remaining, one relates to American representation on the reparations commission and two to equalization of voting in the league of nations' assembly.

The vote in detail follows:

For adoption:
Republicans—Ball, Borah, Brandegee, Calder, Capper, Curtis, Dillingham, Fall, France, Frelinghuysen, Gronna, Harding, Johnson (California), Jones (Washington), Knox, LaFollette, Lodge, McCormick, McLean, Moses, New, Newberry, Norris, Page, Penrose, Phipps, Poindexter, Sherman, Sutherland, Wadsworth, Warren, and Watson—32.

Democrats—Gore, Reed, Walsh (Massachusetts)—3.

Total for adoption, 35.

Against adoption:

Republicans—Cott, Summins, Hale, Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, Lenroot, McCumber, McNary, Nelson, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling and Townsend—14.

Democrats—Ashburn, Bankhead, Beckham, Chamberlain, Culberson, Dill, Fletcher, Gay, Gerry, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Hitchcock, Jones (New Mexico), Kendrick, King, Kirby, McKeller, Myers, Nugent, Overman, Owen, Phelan, Pittman, Pomerene, Ransdell, Robinson, Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith (Arizona), Smith (Georgia), Smith (Maryland), Stanley, Swanson, Thomas, Trammell, Underwood, Walsh (Montana), Williams and Wolcott—11.

Total against adoption, 55.

The six senators absent or paired were:

For adoption—Fernald, Republican, Maine; and Elkins, Republican, West Virginia.

Against Adoption—Edge, Democrat, New Jersey; Johnson, Democrat, South Dakota; Martin, Democrat, Virginia; Smith, Democrat, South Carolina.

After the vote was completed, Senator Lodge announced that later he would move to strike out entirely the sections awarding the Shantung rights to Japan. Notice also was given by a number of the Republican senators who opposed the committee amendment that they would present reservations dissenting from the Shantung award.

More than twenty senators took part in today's debate, extended speeches being made for the amendment by Senators Johnson of California, Sherman of Illinois, and LaFollette of Wisconsin, all Republicans, and against it by Senators Phelan of California, a Democrat, and McCumber of North Dakota, a Republican. Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, injected into the discussion a bitter denunciation of the attitude of some Irish-Americans, and sharp replies were made by Senators Phelan and Gerry, Democrats, Rhode Island.

After the roll call a few minutes was devoted to the formal reading of the long treaty text, and the leaders expect to continue the task tomorrow. The general prediction was that a vote on the remaining amendments would not be reached before the middle of next week.

* "AUNT KATE" WRITES OF THE REST ROOM. *

Dear Advertiser Readers:

Have you been up to see and enjoy the new innovation in Laurens? What, you ask? Why the recently fitted-up Rest Room. I was in on opening day and am mighty glad I had those few moments. I suspect, had it not been for my good old friend, Judge Wright, I'd have missed that opening. I went in to speak to the genial Clerk of Court and the Judge came in fairly beaming on us all with a flowing streamer on the lapel of his coat. "Where to now, Judge?" I asked, pointing to his badge. "Are you off to an old soldiers' reunion or have you just joined the W. C. T. U.?"

"Aunt Kate", he said solemnly, "Don't tell me you don't know that the Rest Room is having its opening day. Go up, go right up; they'll be disappointed if you are not there!" And up the stairs I went. You all know where it is, do you not? In the Court House, up stairs, in the old Red Cross headquarters. Our County Demonstrator, Miss Daisy Harris, and good motherly Mrs. Bagwell, were on hand to greet all callers. Mrs. Bagwell presided over the register and Miss Daisy pinned the badges.

The larger room is admirably fitted up with comfortable chairs, lounge, writing desk and other conveniences, not forgetting the small white bed upon which the wee ones will gladly sleep, while the tired mother rocks or rests on the lounge. And the Victrola! I liked to have forgotten that.

"What shall we play for you," "Aunt Kate," said Miss Daisy, as she looked through the records. "Shall it be rag time or—?" "Child, if you can find me an old time melody—sorter soothing like, while I rest." Here's "Old Oaken Bucket"; how will that do? I lay back with closed eyes and heard "How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood.

When fond recollections present them to view."

And the picture I really saw in my mind's eye was one in Appleton's First Reader—a great big, old rambling farm house, rose covered piazza and a little girl with the longest handle broom I ever hope to see, and just in front was a deep old well, the old oaken, moss-caked bucket had just been drawn up by a windlass and a be-whiskered farmer was bending to get a drink. I always got so thirsty when I came to that picture that I'd go invariably and get a drink of water before I'd read "See Bessie Sweep the steps". I like the old song for it does bring up the good old days, but I want to stop long enough to say that that same old moss-covered bucket and its accompanying windlass has, I verily believe, sent more farm women to the grave and to the asylum than any other one cause.

I beg your pardon, dear Reader, for going so far afield, but I'm back at the Rest Room now. The Kitchen is fitted up for preparing hot lunches, a cup of tea or coffee. I am trying my best to figure out where I can slip away from these never-ending home duties and get that cup of coffee Mrs. Bagwell has promised me. If she just can get me a little sugar!

Will the Rest Room be a success? Well, that depends. Will we use it? That is the answer. The business girls, the merchants and the business men have made it possible. It is a long-felt want at last supplied. As I see it, if we country people are willing to meet kindly intentions half way and utilize the Rest Room, it will prove a great help to us. Let us tell our friends: "Meet me at the Rest Room in Laurens." Doesn't that sound alluring?
