JENKINS EXPLAINS HIS SIDE OF THE CASE

American Consul Declares He Refuses to Give Bail to Compromise His Case.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 9.—"I am now in prison, because I will not even compromise with them under any circumstances," W. O. Jenkins, the American consular agent at Puebla, Mex., declares in a letter received by John E. Edgerton, of Lebanon, Tenn., today, who was captain of the Vanderbilt football team when Jenkins played tackle.

Writing in the Puebla prison, Jenkins said: "I regret very much the great notoriety that has been given to my bit of hard luck, in being carried away by some bandits who live near here, but it has been unavoidable, although it would have been forgotten if the authorities had not tried to cover up their criminal responsibility in allowing this city to be unguarded, by charging me with my own abduction. So they have used every means possible to get certain evidence to cover up their absurd pretensions.

"I have never in all my life seen such a farce as they are carrying out here, for I have been condemned without being allowed to present a single witness in my behalf, though I had them ready, and even presented them to the courts, but was told that they were too busy to hear them. At the present moment (Nov. 21) the secretary of the embassy of Mexico City is here taking this testimony, that it may be presented to the state department inasmuch as the courts refuse to accept it.

"I have plenty of testimonials to offset any false evidence that they can possibly produce, but, as I say, Mexico justice is of a certain brand at the present time, and it can't be changed."

CARLISLE STILL IN THE HOSPITAL

Two-Score More Years in Prison or Electric Chair Confronts Daring Bandit.

Douglas, Wyo., Dec. 3.—Two-score more years of prison life, or a sizzly death in the electric chair, confronted "Bill" Carlisle, train bandit, as he lay today in a hospital, with a bullet hole in his chest, while armed guards hovered in the background of hospital nurses, to prevent escape.

Carlisle was shot down in a cabin yesterday by Sheriff A. S. Roach, of Wheatland, as the bandit, cornered, reached for an automatic pistol to give battle. The posse had railed Carlisle since Sunday morning, through a blizzard by team, on horseback and finally on foot when drifts of snow were encountered too great for a mount to traverse.

The outlaw, who had eluded pursuit since his escape from the state prison at Rawlins on November 15 and subsequent robbery of the Los Angeles Limited train near Medicine Bow, Nov. 18, was strapped to a pack horse for the decent down Laramie Peak, 18 miles southwest of here, then bundled into an automobile and rushed to this city.

Just what disposition will be made of him has not been determined. He was serving a life sentence which had been commuted to from 35 to 50 years when he escaped. In the meantime a new crime for which death is the possible penalty, has been committed by the outlaw. For the present, it was said, he will be kept in the hospital here, later to be transferred to prison.

Carlisle has been in Wyoming since the train robbery.

In Memory of Mrs. Viola Miller.

On the morning of the 18th, one month ago today, just as the dawn was breaking, the death angel entered our home and claimed his own jewel, our precious mother. She was a kind and loving mother, always ready to lend a helping hand, and was sick a long time but bore her suffering with utmost patience and was willing and ready to submit to God's will. We miss thee from our home, dear Mother; we miss thee from thy place; a shadow over our life is cast; we miss thy loving face.

Our home is dark and lonely; although we humbly submit to God's will; there is a vacancy in our home that can never be filled.

Whose love can equal the love of a Mother; whose devotion so loyal and true; who suffers so much with such joy for another; who works with such pleasure as mother, for you?

You hail with delight the friendship of others; you revel in love of the sweethearts you won; yet where do you find a friendship like mother's; unbroken till death calls and life's work is done.

HER DAUGHTERS.

SERIES 1920 Studebaker Cars

We Have Just Received Two 1920 Model Big Six and Eleven Special Sixes.

We want you to see these new models before buying. This is the most wonderful Car in America at the price. No other car at the price has cord tires as regular equipment. These Cars are very scarce and we are fortunate to get an allotment. In order to get our full allotment we sent 13 drivers to Detroit to bring them through the country. If you want one better place your order at once. Four of these Cars are sold and delivered. It may be a long time before we can get another allotment. We will be pleased to give you a demonstration of this wonderful Car.

THE BIG SIX

The series of Big-Six, with its 60-horse power motor, 120-inch wheel base and seven-passenger body, gives to the motorist a rare combination of actual power, range of speed, hill-climbing ability, beauty of line and appearance, genuine comfort and operating economy. Owners get 14 miles and more per gallon of gasoline and over 8,000 miles per set of tires. Truly a big car in size, yet it is comparatively light in weight--its 3,125 pounds being so evenly distributed, and its chassis so perfectly balanced that you are assured of perfect ridgid comfort at two miles an hour or at a mile a minute.

Equipped with a beautiful straight-side slanting windshield with artistic side lights and storm proof ventilator base glove box and extension light in tonneau; large plate glass window in rear of Gypsy top; genuine hand buffed leather upholstery, silver-faced jeweled clock and recording instruments; walnut steering wheel with instrument board and glove box of the same finish; cord tires and shock absorbers. Body and hood are a Brewster green with gold striping on the wheels and louvres.

PRICE DELIVERED IN LAURENS $2400.00

THE SPECIAL SIX

Equipped with a powerful, highly economical and efficient 50-horse power, split-head motor, of Studebaker design and manufacture, with improved carburetor and hot-spot intake manifold. This series 20 special-six gives every assurance of a car ready for any emergency. Its 110-inch wheel base makes possible the comfortable, roomy, five-passenger touring car body. Even with its high power, motor and spacious body, the Special Six touring car weighs but 2,850 pounds.

Its standard equipment is complete, including cowl lights at the corners of the wind shield; walnut steering wheel and instrument board of the same finish; outside and inside door handles; tonneau light with convenient extension; genuine leather upholstery; Gypsy top with oval plate glass windows in the rear; and cord tires. The body is a beautiful Studebaker dark blue.
