CHEST CLOGGED UP WITH HEAVY COLD?

Don't give it a chance to "set in"—use Dr. King's New Discovery

THAT dangerous stage where a cold or cough or case of grippe might get the better of you may be nearer than you think. Prompt action with Dr. King's New Discovery will avert a long siege.

For fifty years it has loosened congested chests, dissipated tight-packed phlegm, broken vicious colds and coughs. Give it to the youngsters—take it yourself. There will be no disagreeable after-effects. 50c. and $1.20 a bottle. At your druggist's. Give it a trial.

Bowels Become Normal

—liver livens up, bile flows freely—headache, biliousness, tongue-fur, stomach-sourness, disappear when Dr. King's New Life Pills get in their natural, comfortable action.

Purgatives, never pleasantly corrective, sometimes habit-forming, should not be taken to rack the system violently. Nature's way is the way of Dr. King's New Life Pills—gently but firmly functioning the bowels, eliminating the intestine-clogging waste, and promoting the most gratifying results. Cleanse the system with them and know the boon of regular bowels, 25c. at all druggists.

ALLEN RADICALS OFF FOR RUSSIA

Alexander Berkman, Emma Goldman and Other Undesirables Deported to Russia by the Government.

New York, Dec. 21.—The United States army transport Buford—"Ark of the Soviet"—sailed before dawn today with a cargo of anarchists, communists and radicals banned from America for conspiring against the government. The ship's destination was hidden in sealed orders, but the 249 passengers it carried expected to be landed at some far northern port giving access to Soviet Russia.

"Long live the revolution in America," was chanted defiantly by the motley crowd on the decks of the steel gray troop ship as she churned her way past the Statue of Liberty. Now and then they cursed in chorus at the United States and men who had cut short their propaganda here. Not until the Buford steamed out of the narrows between Forts Hamilton and Wadsworth did the din cease. Over their heads, whipping in the wind, the Stars and Stripes floated from the masthead.

The autocrats of all the Russians on the transport were Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, his boon companion for thirty years. With them were 245 men and two women—Ethel Bernstein and Dora Lipkin. None knew where they would debark and even Captain G. A. Hitchcock, commander of the veteran transport, was no better off. At daybreak tomorrow Col. Hilton, commanding the troops on board as guards, will hand the skipper his instructions. Only a few high officials of the war and labor departments know the ship's destination.

The voyage will last eighteen days unless it is prolonged by unfavorable weather. The presumption is that the Buford will land at Hange, Helsingfors or Aboin, Finland, which are connected by rail with Biel-Osporoff, on the Russian frontier. It was intimated in official quarters that arrangements have been made with the Finnish government to permit the passage of the Russians through that country.

The transfer from Ellis Island to the Buford of the agitators who have preached death and destruction was an event unique in the annals of this nation. Seized in raids in all parts of the country, they were mobilized here for deportation. An elaborate screen of secrecy was thrown about the preparations for sending them away.

It was in the darkest hours of night that an army tug drew up at the dock at the immigration station to take aboard the undesirables for the seven-mile journey down the bay to the Buford. Two dozen soldiers armed with rifles and as many immigration inspectors carrying night sticks, patrolled the shores of Ellis Island until the tug arrived at 5:15 a. m. The reds were marched single file between two lines of guards from the immigration barracks to the boat landing, each carrying his or her baggage. A score of agents of the department of justice circulated among the Russians waiting to begin their long journey. These agents and the soldier guards on the island went on board the tug with the deportees and took them to the transport.

A revenue cutter and two other army tugs formed an escort for the reds and one tug lay alongside while they were being transferred to the Buford, to prevent attempt by those reluctant to leave, to swim the half-mile to the shore of Staten Island.

While the anarchists had professed joy at the thought of returning to Russia a few of them wept and most of them seemed downcast as they stepped on board the tug for the grim journey through the darkness of the harbor to the troop ship. The air was cold and a biting wind was blowing as they huddled on deck. "Good-bye America," sobbed Miss Bernstein as the tug plied past the Statue of Liberty with her lighted torch held proudly aloft. The girl was leaving behind Samuel Lipman, her fiancé, facing a twenty-year term in the Atlanta penitentiary for violating the espionage law.

Berkman was defiant to the last and threatened secret service men as he stepped from the soil of the United States.

"To hell with America," came a deep bass voice from the anarchists' tug as it passed a boat crowded with more department of justice men.

The chant of "Long live the revolution in the United States," was started by Peter Biansky, general secretary of the union of Russian workers, as the Buford got under way at 6:15 o'clock. Proof of membership in this organization, which was formed here in 1907 by a Russian who is now chief of police of Petrograd, caused most of those in the party today to be deported. Its constitution advocates the use of violence.

Miss Goldman was so unconcerned that she slept until after midnight, although the rest of the party remained up all night. All were notified immediately after dinner last night that they would be deported before daylight. They had not expected it so quickly.

Anthony Caminetti, commissioner-general of immigration, took personal charge of plans at the island during the night and accompanied the tug down the bay. Representatives Johnson and Siegel, members of the house committee on immigration, both were there as were Francis P. Garvan, assistant attorney general and William J. Flynn, chief of the secret service of the department of justice.

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a jimmy pipe packed with Prince Albert! That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five aces out of a family deck! So, when you hit Prince Albert, coming and going, and get up half an hour earlier just to start stoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parca. —well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!

Tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Christmas

The spirit of Christmas says: "Get together, forgive, forget, be kind—be helpful—stop kicking, knocking, fretting and stewing."

Stop boasting and boost the other fellow. Pull the discouraged worker out of his little gloom-land and make him smile.

All hearts should be thrown open to let the sunshine in. Then we'll grin at our grudges and be regular fellows.

The spirit of Christmas makes all men friendly. It is the great equalizer of humanity—it brings folks into harmonious fellowship.

Worries are forgotten. Frowns fade away. Wrinkles become twinkles, bent shoulders straighten up, and sobs disappear in Christmas good cheer.

The world needs Christmas and its wonderful Spirit of Love and co-operation. We need it; O, so much more than ever before. We need it every day—as much as on Christmas day.

The spirit of Christmas is a free gift for all. Let's take it and know the full joy of the happiness that goes with it.

With the Season's Greeting, from WELLS CLARDY CO.
