

NASHVILLE GETS THE NEXT CONVENTION

Thirtieth Reunion Closes in Asheville, Daniels on Program. Fifty Thousand Dollars to be Asked of Legislature for History.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 29.—Nashville, the home of "Old Hickory" and the city in which his remains were laid to rest, was chosen as the next meeting place of the Thirtieth division. Col. Albert L. Cox, of Raleigh, was elected president; Capt. Frank P. Bowen of Knoxville, reelected secretary and treasurer, and other officers were chosen this afternoon during the business session which brought the reunion of the Thirtieth division to a close.

Sergt. Maj. Guy H. May of Knoxville, Tenn., was elected first vice president; Private Harold Turner of Spartanburg, S. C., second vice president, and Sergt. Harry L. Baumgardner of Asheville was elected third vice president. Work of Captain Bowen in bringing to Asheville a crowd conservatively estimated at more than 5,000 men and in providing a program that entertained the veterans and perpetuated the memory of their glorious achievements was praised. He was again chosen to occupy the same post by unanimous acclamation. Brig. Gen. Samuel F. Faison, in behalf of the Old Hickory association, presented Col. H. B. Springs of Greenville retiring president, with a large loving cup as a token of the esteem in which he is held.

Chaplain A. I. Foster of Nashville, was elected association chaplain succeeding Chaplain John McSween, Jr., of Timmonsville, S. C. Resolutions adopted by the association made members of the nearest kin of those who died, honorary members, the 12 men from the Thirtieth division who won 15 of the 78 congressional medals, also Maj. Gen. George W. Read, commander of the corps in which the Thirtieth gained distinction, Gov. Thomas A. Bickett, of North Carolina; Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, ex-Gov. Richard I. Manning of South Carolina.

Of particular significance was a resolution relating to vocational training of those honorably discharged from the armed forces. The government in continuing the training was commended and those who are training were urged to take it. The legislatures of Tennessee, North and South Carolina will be called upon to appropriate $50,000 each for the preparation of a history of the Thirtieth division. The resolution would also empower the governor of each state to appoint one person to become a member of the board of editors of such history.

Reported unfavorably by the committee was a resolution introduced by Old Hickory post No. 2, of Nashville, Tenn., asking the legislatures of the three states to appropriate $20,000 each for the purpose of making and erecting suitable markers on the fields of battle showing the progress of the Thirtieth division in combat in Belgium and France. The resolutions committee did not favor the bill, holding that it was tantamount to asking the legislatures for a monument to themselves. The resolution was killed by a narrow plurality.

A resolution enabling an officer to be elected during his absence was passed. Under such conditions was Col. Albert L. Cox chosen, the colonel being unable to attend the reunion.

Efforts looking to a corps convention of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth divisions were expressed in a resolution commending the sister division.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH BRAMLETT

Mary Elizabeth Bramlett was born May 19, 1859, and departed this life Sept. 16, 1920, at the age of 61 years, four months. She was born and reared in Laurens County, being the daughter of the late W. D. Morgan and granddaughter of Mrs. Rosa Franks.

She joined the Methodist church in early childhood, but after her marriage to T. J. Bramlett, joined the Baptist church. She was true to her church at the different places she lived, and at the time of her death was a consistent member of Beulah Baptist church.

The deceased had been in declining health for two years, and was an invalid for several months preceding her death, but she bore her afflictions in a manner that witnessed clearly to her strong faith, and she often expressed herself as resigned to the will of God.

"Aunt Betty," as she was familiarly known, was a kind friend, a loyal wife and a good mother, and will be greatly missed in the home.

Her body was laid to rest in the Chestnut Ridge cemetery on the day following her death.

Besides a husband, the following children survive her: Mrs. J. C. Owings of the Shiloh section, W. M. Bramlett, of Belton; R. J. Bramlett of Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. J. M. Langston and Misses E. J. and T. N. Bramlett of Laurens, Mrs. J. L. Knight and Messrs. H. T. and A. C. Bramlett, Jr. of the Green Pond section.

Those loved ones are comforted with the assurance she is at rest, and one day they shall meet again.

"Thou art gone from us dear mother, And the parting gives us pain; But we are comforted with the promise That some day we'll meet again."

—Children.

Reduction In Prices of Ford Products

The War is Over and War Prices Must Go. Effective at Once Ford Cars, Trucks and Tractors Will Be Sold F. O. B. Detroit at the Following Prices:

Touring Car without starter	$440.00	Coupelet with starter and demountable rims	$745.00
Touring car with starter	$510.00	Sedan with starter and demountable rims	$795.00
Runabout without starter	$395.00	Ton Truck with Pneumatic Tires	$545.00
Runabout with starter	$465.00	Fordson Tractor	$790.00
Chassis	$360.00

The Ford Motor Company makes this reduction in face of the fact that they have on hand immediate orders for one hundred forty six thousand sixty-five cars and tractors. The company will suffer a temporary loss while using up the material bought at higher prices. They are willing to make a sacrifice in order to bring business back to a going down basis as quickly as possible and maintain the momentum of the buying power of the country. Henry Ford says "the war is over and it is time war prices were over." There is no sense or wisdom in trying to maintain an artificial standard of values. For the best interests of all it is time a real particular effort is made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to regular pre-war standards. We are at your command with regular Ford efficiency in service and eagerness to fill your orders.
