McPhail-Reid

A wedding of much interest to many friends throughout the state was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McPhail yesterday evening when their daughter, Miss Lola McPhail, was joined in marriage to Mr. Mace Frank Reid.

Promptly at 6 o'clock Miss Sarah Bolt descended the stairway to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, rendered by Mrs. M. L. Roper, where she was joined by Mr. Joseph Coy Reid, brother of the groom. Miss Bolt was attired in a striking gown of orchid taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink Columbia roses. Next came the ring bearer, little Miss Mary Brooks Harney in a dainty dress of silver lace with a fluffy bow of pink tulle caught with pink rosebuds and carrying the ring in a silver basket. She was followed by the bride who entered on the arm of her only sister, Miss Lucy McPhail, the groom being met at the altar with his best man, Mr. Roy B. Owings. The bride was handsomely gowned in Duchess satin trimmed in Princess lace and pearls. Her veil was caught with pearls in an Egyptian effect. The maid of honor was dressed in green taffeta trimmed with gold lace. The ceremony was then performed by Rev. Samuel H. Templeman, pastor of the First Baptist church.

After the happy couple had been showered with congratulations, a reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. McPhail in honor of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burgess, Miss Martha Owings and Mr. Shell McDaniel met the guests at the front door and directed them to the living room where Dr. and Mrs. Rolfe E. Hughes directed them to the ceremony room. Here they were entertained by Capt. and Mrs. W. R. Richey and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harney. From here the guests were directed to the dining room where Mrs. C. M. Clarke cut cream and Mrs. John F. Bolt cut cake. Mr. and Mrs. L. Connor Fuller and Mrs. Geo. S. McCravy assisting in entertaining. Misses Amy Wolff, Alpha Bolt, Ruth McAllister and Virginia Sullivan served. From the dining room the guests were directed to the hall where Misses Martha Owings and Julia Childress and Mr. Pack Childress served punch and Misses Elizabeth Young and Carolyn Fleming and Mr. Tom Easterly assisted in entertaining. Miss Beas Childress and Mr. Anthony Fuller presided over the bride's book, while Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bolt entertained in the gift room.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony room was decorated in ivy and ferns with lighted candles casting a soft glow over the pretty scene. The dining room was prettily decorated in pink dahlias and ferns while the living room was in golden rods and chrysanthemums. The library was decorated with pot plants and cut flowers.

Saturday morning Misses Bruce and Martha Owings entertained for Miss Lola McPhail. The game of "42" was enjoyed after which the hostess served salad and coffee. The guest of honor was given a handsome bottle of perfume. Misses Dial, Bolt and Darlington, three other brides-elect present, were each given dainty handkerchiefs.

Gray-Wyman

The following account of the marriage of Miss Lucile Gray, formerly of Woodruff, will be read with interest here where she has visited and has many friends and relative. Among those who attended the wedding was her cousin, Mrs. Charles H. Rounds, who was spending the summer in Saluda at the time.

Coming as a complete surprise to many friends in Asheville is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lucile Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray, of this city, to Mr. George Wyman, of Boise, Idaho. The wedding took place last evening at 7 o'clock at the handsome home of the bride's parents, No. 2 Howland road, Rev. Dr. E. K. McLarty, pastor of the Central Methodist church, officiating. In the presence of a small gathering of friends and relatives. The house was especially arranged for the occasion with quantities of large pink and white dahlias. Mr. Gray gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a smart tailleur of midnight blue trimmed with squirrel and a chic hat of gray with gray accessories. Her carriage was of bride's roses. The only attendant was Miss Martha Gray, a sister of the bride. She was gowned in a cream georgette frock and carried an armful of sunburst roses. Mr. Wyman had as his best man, Mr. John Mills, of Greenville, S. C. Miss Kate Laxton rendered the wedding music. Immediately following the ceremony there was an informal reception. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wyman left for Boise, Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Wyman is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray and with her parents had been making Asheville her home for the past year, coming here from Woodruff, S. C. She is a graduate of Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C., and has a wide circle of friends in this state as well as her native state.

Wednesday morning Miss Pattie Wilkes entertained in honor of Miss Margaret Dal, one of the fall brides. After playing a number of games of 42, the hostess served a delicious salad course with iced tea. Miss Dial was presented a lovely gift for her trousseau. The home was beautifully decorated with a mass of cut flowers and potted plants, making a very pretty setting for the occasion.

Miss Carolyn Fleming delightfully entertained at a bridge luncheon on Thursday morning for Miss Margaret Dial, a bride of the week. There were five tables of players. After several rounds of bridge the cards were laid aside and a delicious five course luncheon was served on the card tables. There were three of the fall brides present, Misses Lola McPhail, Lucy V. Darlington, Sarah Bolt, and Miss Fleming presented each of them with a lovely hand made handkerchief. Miss Dial was given a beautiful silver bell.

Mrs. Jerome Christopher entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Darlington and Miss Dial. The house was beautifully decorated in fall roses and zinnias. The game of 42 was enjoyed after which the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. H. K. Aiken and Mrs. W. D. Ferguson. The guests of honor were presented with dainty pieces of lingerie for their trousseaus.

Friday morning Miss Rebecca Lake entertained for Miss Lucy Vance Darlington, whose wedding to Mr. Edward McCravy of Greenville takes place the early part of November. There were five tables of bridge and forty-two. After several hands the hostess served a delicious salad course with coffee, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Phinny, Misses Margaret Dial, Sarah Bolt and Lola McPhail were each presented with dainty little tea balls and the guest of honor was given a lovely silver bell.

Mrs. Earnest Machen entertained the "42" Club Friday afternoon. There were five tables of players. The hostess served a tempting salad course with hot chocolate. Mrs. Hiers and Mrs. McKemie assisted the hostess.

Mrs. W. E. Meng chaperoned seven eleventh grade girls, including Misses Nancy Meng, Margaret Lake, Beatrice Babb, Dorothy Fairry, Caroline Holmes, Leora Hunter, and Eleanor Miller, accompanied by Mack Hudgens as driver to the football game in Asheville Friday. On the way home they stopped in Greenwood to hear Rev. Gypsy Smith. All say they had a most enjoyable time.

On Saturday afternoon, October 9, Miss Ruth McAllister delightfully entertained in honor of three fall brides, Misses Lola McPhail, Sarah Bolt, and Margaret Dial. The color scheme of red and green was tastefully carried out in decorations and refreshments. During the afternoon progressive hearts were played. The hostess presented the honor guests with suitable tokens of the occasion—framed mottoes on "Friendship." A tempting salad course was served.

Mrs. W. D. Ferguson entertained the bridge club on Saturday afternoon. There were six tables of players. After the cards were laid aside the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Christopher, Mrs. James Todd and Miss Darlington served a lovely salad course with coffee.

NOT AN ISOLATED CASE

Many Similar Cases in Laurens and Vicinity

This Laurens man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news. Ask your neighbor.

J. W. Henderson, S. Harper St., Laurens, says: "My kidneys were badly disordered and I suffered from pains in the small of my back across my kidneys. I felt nervous and out sorts, and my kidneys didn't act as they should. I would have dizzy spells and a dull ache in the back of my head. There was a sediment in my urinations, too. I surely was in pret-dread shape. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and bought a box at the Laurens Drug Co. Doan's immediately relieved me and soon fixed me up in fine shape." (Statement given November 23, 1914).

On March 26, 1918 Mr. Henderson said: "I have had no use for a kidney remedy since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I know Doan's are just as represented and am glad to give another endorsement." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEGROES START CAMPAIGN FOR HOSPITAL FUND

Meeting of Colored Pastors Called for Friday Morning of This Week to Discuss Plans.

Rev. M. A. Cunningham, chairman of the committee from the Tumbling Shoals Baptist Association, colored, to raise the fund of $15,000 to supplement the gift of the late Mrs. Corinna Gibson for a colored hospital, has issued the following appeal to colored workers to meet at the Bethel A. M. E. church Friday morning of this week:

To the Public in General:

The Tumbling Shoals Association, in its annual session at Princeton, voted unanimously to put forth a strenuous effort to raise a pro-rata share of the fifteen thousand dollars towards supplementing the eleven thousand dollars given by Mrs. Gibson to erect a hospital for colored people in Laurens county.

We are asking the pastors and one layman from every church in Laurens county to meet in the Bethel A. M. E. church, Laurens, Friday, Oct. 15, at 11 o'clock a. m. to consider some plans for raising the money. We will be thankful for any advice or assistance our white friends may render us. Yours for the cause.

M. A. Cunningham,
Chairman of the Committee.

James Stucky Says, "Rat Cost Me $125 For Plumbing Bills."

"We couldn't tell what was clogging up our toilet and drains. We had to tear up floor, pipes, etc., found a rat's nest in basement. They had choked the pipe with refuse. The plumber's bill was $125. RAT-SNAP cleaned the rodent out." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, and $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Laurens Hardware Co., Putnam's Drug Store, and Kennedy Bros.
