

WATTS MILLS NEWS.

Watts Mills, Oct. 18.—The community fair, which was held here on Friday and Saturday, October 18th and 19th, was quite a success in every respect. It was well attended and much enjoyed by all. We appreciate the opening address given on Friday evening by Hon. G. W. Wright, which was indeed interesting to all. The community house was very beautifully decorated, the color scheme being white and green.

The floral exhibition was simply beautiful. The display of fancy work was very fine, indeed each line of exhibits were so beautifully and tastefully arranged. We feel sure the fine music which was rendered by our Watts Mills concert band was very much enjoyed by all present and added so much to the interest of the occasion.

We wish to express our gratitude and further show our appreciation by giving due credit to our community worker, Miss Bettie Richards, for her labor and faithful services in planning and arranging for this occasion and also to Miss Irene Ray who so kindly assisted her in this work.

Mr. Edd Hullendar, a young man of twenty-five years, calmly passed away at his home here on Saturday night, October 16th, after a lingering illness. The funeral service was held in the home on Sunday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. H. C. Martin. Immediately afterward the remains were interred in the cemetery at this place. Mr. Hullendar leaves a widow and one small child, who have the deepest sympathy of their many friends.

Rev. H. C. Martin filled his regular appointment here on Sunday morning and preached an excellent sermon from I Timothy: 6-12. On Sunday evening Mr. C. B. Bobo gave an interesting address on "Deaconship" as it was the time set apart for the ordination of deacons. We were very glad to have Bro. Bobo with us on this occasion to assist in the service.

On Sunday afternoon, October 17th, Miss Flora Starnes and Mr. Chas. J. Baldwin were happily united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. H. C. Martin.

On Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock a B. C. P. U. was organized here, which we hope will be of great benefit.

The quarterly conference was held here on Sunday afternoon, preaching by the Presiding Elder.

LANFORD NEWS.

Lanford, Oct. 18.—The Rural Improvement Association will have its regular monthly meeting next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We especially invite all patrons to be present. Miss Harris and other county officers are expected to meet with the Association. The school children always have a very enjoyable little program every Friday afternoon, so it would be very interesting to meet with them and observe their work. Both faculty and pupils are always glad to have the patrons visit the school.

Mr. Edd Taylor and family went to Union Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Crow.

Mr. Walter Cox, of Laurens spent Sunday with his cousins, Vernon and Gilbert Cox.

Miss Pearl Chapman spent the week-end with her parents at Fountain Inn.

Misses Lewis and Burgess were in Laurens Saturday.

A notice was posted on the gin house door a few mornings ago, not to gin any more cotton after October 20. Signed "Everybody."

We wish to correct a little mistake in our last week's news, when we said Mr. W. D. Patterson was 65 years old. It should have been 55. A slip of the pen had cheated him out of ten years and too, he does not want folks to think he is an old man yet.

Mr. Louie Lanford, from Furman, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Ethel Lanford.

Mr. Charles Waldrep spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waldrep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Johnson have returned home from a very pleasant visit to their son in Arcadia, Mr. B. W. Johnson.

Miss Rawlins, of Manning, came Saturday to assist in the school at Central. She is a schoolmate of Miss Burgess and spent the night with her.

A deplorable tragedy occurred near here Sunday morning when Mr. Claud Owings shot and killed his father, Mr. Allen Owings. The exact particulars have not been learned here.

C. Burns & Co. are cutting the prices now to meet the market conditions.
