DIAL-CALHOUN

On last Thursday evening the marriage of Miss Margaret Dial to Mr. John Chiles Calhoun was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dial. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. H. K. Aiken and Miss Blanche Simmons rendered a beautiful musical program; then to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Frances Davis, the bridal party entered as follows: Miss Josephine Calhoun, as bride's-maid, gowned in pink satin and real lace with court train and also with pink Killarney roses; Mrs. W. H. Dial, dame of honor, in orchid velvet carrying purple orchids and lilies of the valley; the groomsmen, Messrs. Moore, Dial and Bennie Tolbert; the ushers, Mr. Albert Dial and Dr. Ellis Gray; the flower girls, Lattie Evelyn Reper and Harriet Easterly dressed in pink tulle and carrying baskets of rose petals which they strewed in the bride's pathway. The bride, exquisitely lovely in a handsome gown of white duchess satin and real lace with court train and veil, aproned coronet fashion entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She was met at an altar, draped in aubrey and with silver candelabras, holding the white candle, by the groom and his best man, Dr. Ben Hillo and the service was read by the Rev. Mr. H. ... of the bride.

An elegant reception was given immediately afterwards, attended by a large number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilke received at the front door, and Mrs. W. J. Moore and Mrs. Harney in the hall conducted the guests to the receiving line proper, which consisted of the bride party, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dial, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Calhoun, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Crum, and Miss Tommie Duckett. The drawing room was beautifully decorated with quantities of cut flowers. In the library, made festive with potted plants and fall flowers, Mrs. Kathleen Sitgreaves presided at the bride's book. In the dining room a yellow and white scheme was carried out in the decorations and also in the refreshments, which consisted of yellow cream, yellow mints and white angel cake. Here Mrs. Albert Dial and Mrs. Dial Gray were in charge for the first hour and Mrs. W. L. Gray and Mrs. Dunklin Watts for the second hour. Presiding in the bill room were Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cain, where a great number and variety of handsome presents were displayed. The bride, a graduate of Lander College, is a young woman of unusual charm and has a host of friends in Greenwood who will welcome her back. The groom is a prominent and successful young business man of Greenwood. After returning from their bridal tour in the North they will be at home to their many friends in Greenwood.

Madden-McSwain

Miss Lena Madden and Mr. Horace L. McSwain, of Cross Hill, were happily married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Madden, near Cold Point, Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Samuel H. Templeman. The bride is an attractive young lady of the Cold Point community, while the groom is a prominent merchant and farmer of Cross Hill, where they will make their home.
