No Worms in a Healthy Child
 All children troubled with worms have a unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS FOR RAILWAY THEFTS

Express and Railway Employees Arrested in Connection With Thefts of Goods in Transit.
 Macon, Ga., Oct. 28.—Indictments charging conspiracy to purloin and embezzle property of the United States, conspiracy to defraud the United States, conspiracy to embezzle interstate express shipments were returned by the federal grand jury here today against sixty-four express messengers, express agents, railroad conductors and others.
 The American Railway Express Company, presented evidence to the grand jury showing that for the first six months of this year property stolen from the express company in southern states amounted to $1,018,722.94.
 The articles alleged to have been stolen range from furs, silk shirts, pocket knives and guns to hogs, chickens, fish and eggs.
 Of the sixty-four persons indicated all are white and many are prominent. Most of them reside between Macon and Montgomery, Ala.
 There are five counts each against the following indicted:

Persons Indicted
 Messengers: E. M. Alsbrook, M. E. Bowdoin, J. A. Bradshaw, R. C. Brinson, W. E. Bruner, C. H. Condry, Ernest C. Fields, W. C. Green, W. A. Hughes, C. E. Langford, J. C. McArthur, R. S. McMichael, C. P. McMillen, C. W. Pearce, R. E. Staley, M. F. Stokes, Eugene C. Stovall, R. J. Gardner and H. L. Rucker.
 Conductors and baggage men employed by the Central of Georgia Railroad: C. R. Bake, O. B. Baldwin, W. W. Barbre, Walter Crittle, Lee Dix, Troup Floyd, W. V. Kimbrell, L. Knight, N. T. McKinnon, Dan McLenon, W. V. Meeks, J. F. Norris, J. N. Smith, O. L. Smith and W. W. Woods.
 Agents of the American Railway Express Company—R. C. Cheney, E. E. Dunaway, J. O. Hood, A. G. Johnson, W. G. Nixon, L. B. Rodgers, M. A. Sheppard, W. G. Simpson, O. C. Johnson and J. R. Rainey.

Others Indicted
 Others indicted, no employees—Marvin Prestwood, W. T. Prestwood, Ed Ridding, Joshua Stewart, Ed Knox, James Kendrick, Carlos Jordan, Charles Burgess, Henry Barlow, L. C. Cason, C. M. Crasson, Will Griggers, W. W. Hodges and W. P. Hoxey.
 The conspiracy is said to have included a password, "Will he ride?" The answer being "Yes, he'll ride," and when given is said to have insured the person seeking to enter into negotiations for various articles that he was all right.

The thefts are said to have started with the World War, when the book-keeping department of the express company was unable to keep up with the business. Messengers are alleged to have torn the tags from shipments and put on new tags, addressing the shipment to a conspirator, destroying the shipping bill at the same time. A third party, the indictments charge in most of the cases, disposed of the goods and then divided the spoils. Specific cases are named in the indictments and specific sums of money are named as passing between the alleged conspirators.

S. L. Rossier, special agent for the American Railway Express Company; Superintendent Mays and a number of detectives have been at work on the case for two months.

WHO WILL PRINCE OF WALES MARRY?

Much Speculation in London Over Bride of the Future Ruler
 London, Oct. 23.—Pressure on the Prince of Wales to marry an English girl is growing in volume.
 The London Times, in a remarkable editorial Thursday, took the unprecedented course of advising the royal family not to marry the prince off to a foreign princess. The other papers of Viscount Northcliffe have reprinted the editorial which is indicating that the newspaper leader is now making the future monarchy of the country his own special care.
 The Globe has also joined in the editorial crusade to have the prince choose his bride from the British aristocracy, saying: "Our greatest kings have married with the daughters of their greatest subject and in the blood of the House of Windsor runs the strain of many noble families of our own land."

The bringing to prominence of the prince's matrimonial affairs has caused a tremendous excitement in British society. Speculation on the bride is "all the rage."
 Society girls recalled that at the beginning of the year the prince was reported smitten on Lady Dorothy Cavendish, third daughter of the Duke of Devonshire. But since then she was married to Harold MacMillan, the son of the publisher. Various reasons for the failure of the prince to marry her, including royal disapproval, and the duke's unwillingness to have his daughter take precedence in state functions over the seniors of her own family, were cited.

Norfolk, the premier duke of England, is a bachelor. But the dukes of Westminster, Beaufort and Hamilton each have one marriageable daughter, the Duke of Buccleuch. The only other dual possibility is the Lady Mary Montague, daughter of the Duke of Manchester and his American wife.

In view of the public demand that the Prince of Wales be allowed to be guided by love only in his choice of a wife it is considered likely that he may find his mate in the lower branches of the peerage, but the numerous stage beauties who have set their eyes for the prince are believed to be entirely out of the running.

JONES

Jones, S. C., Oct. 23.—Mr. Cheshire Davis of Ware Shoals, was killed in an automobile wreck at Greenville the 19th instant.

Mr. Erskine Knight is in the hospital with a fractured leg and internal injuries.

Mr. Allen Arnold has returned from a visit to his brother-in-law, Dr. Boland of Athens, Ga., and reports the boll weevil has almost ruined the crops.

We extend sympathy to Mr. Thos. Stribling in the recent death of his father.

Rev. Jesse Morrison, a former pupil of Jones High School, after an absence of 25 years in Texas is on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ben Mattison is visiting her son, Ernest, in Atlanta.

Though somewhat late we wish to add our tribute to the memory of our warm friend, Mr. James Martin, of Donald, who recently passed away. He was a brave Confederate veteran, a staunch patriot, a genial hospitable Christian gentleman and was held in high esteem by all of his acquaintances. We very deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

Our cousin, Mr. Wilmot Smith, of Greenville, visited relatives and friends in this section recently.

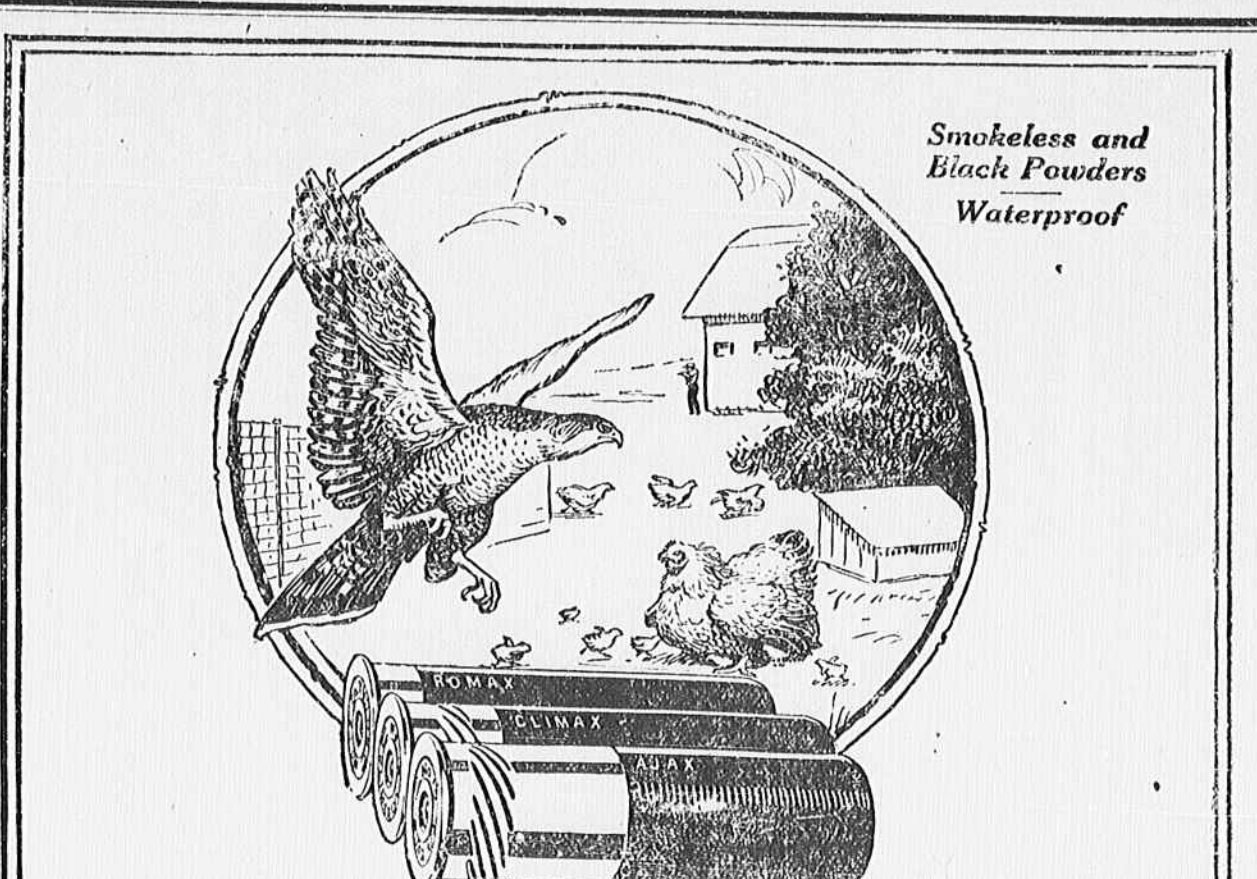

We are indebted to Mrs. Edgar Madden for some choice apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Tally Childress, of Greenville were the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Jesse Stansell Sunday.

Messrs. Walter, Frank, George and Adam Jones attended the Gipsy Smith meeting in Greenwood Sunday.

We recently met the following friends, Presiding Elder Leonard, of Anderson; E. B. Boland, John and George Culbertson, of Mt. Olive; Thos. Sullivan, of Mt. Bethel; Preston, Jas. and David Smith of Waterloo; Dr. Gilterson and Thos. Freeman, of Princeton; S. E. Razor, of Mountville; Mr. and Mrs. James Culbertson, J. W. Canfield and Kenneth Baker, of Greenwood, and Matthew McDaniel, of Tumbling Shoals.

The Spider as a Silk Maker.
 Successful experiments have been recently made in the island of Madagascar with the use of spider's web in the place of the thread of the silk worm in the manufacture of silk. It is claimed that a fabric has been made from the spider's thread that is far superior in many respects to anything that has ever been devised.
