

DIALS

Thanksgiving Day passed off quietly here, with most of the homes filled throughout the day with the usual number of "comers" and "goers." The day was an ideal one, typical of our Sunny South and the highway was full of cars laden with pleasureseekers most of the time. So despite the depressing times and "hard time" talk there could be seen no appreciable difference in the observing of Thanksgiving Day 1920, which was as it should be, for one has many blessings to be thankful for—they are many. One has only to count them and see. And believe me as you form the habit of counting them, you will be surprised and gratified to note the rapidity with which they multiply, there will be more at every count. The more you share them too, with those less fortunate, the more you have.

Few of us, perhaps none, realize not gift giving, but gift sharing brings happiness to all concerned. When the word of encouragement, the cheerful smile, the hearty handshake which says "somebody" cares, means more to one who is depressed than we can ever guess.

As we share our blessings lovingly and gladly with those who stand in need of them, our messengers will be filled with a joy, peace and overflowing like the angels who after years of weary wanderings in search of the Holy Gail, you remember, its last cruise with the paper, and at once there stood before him the one he sought with hands outstretched and the message: "Who gives himself with aim feeds three, himself his hungry neighbor—and me."

Miss Mattie Simmons and Miss Billie Dowle, of Greenville, accompanied by Miss Gray of Tennessee, were recent week-end guests of Mrs. H. Y. Simmons and family.

Mr. Marvin Harris of Greenwood, was a recent visitor with homefolks here.

Mr. L. M. Owings and sister, Miss Beah, spent last week-end in Greenville, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips.

Mrs. Wm. Brooks, and little Sarah Bell spent several days last week in Gray Court with Mr. O. L. Ropp and family.

Mrs. Eva Harris spent the week-end in Fountain Inn, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Owings.

Miss Clara McCall spent several days in Gray Court last week with Mrs. J. W. Watson at the parsonage.

The members in Gray Court Sunday, Nov. 14th by the Rev. Watson or Mr. James Robinson of Lake City and Miss Dora Moore of Laurens, proved an interesting news item to the many friends and relatives of the group throughout the section. Mr. Robertson was here and received here and is a deservedly popular with old and young alike, all of whom congratulate him on becoming a benefactor, while a host of good wishes follow Mr. and Mrs. Robertson to their home in Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Nabors, Messrs. Zick and Williams Nabors of Hickory

Grove, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Sullivan of Laurens, Mrs. Wm. Gray, Miss Claude Gray and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brooks of Gray Court, were among the members who spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. L. S. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boit and family, Miss Rose Summerell, and Mrs. Willie Abercrombie all of Hickory Tavern were visitors at the home of Mr. D. D. Brownlee Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis and children of Greenville spent Thursday and Thursday night with Mr. Harris Curry, and Mr. Willie Harris and family.

Misses Cecil Owings, and Alva Stoddard attended the state teachers meeting in Spartanburg Thursday and Friday.

The members of the W. H. M. Society of Dials enjoyed a most delightful event on Friday afternoon, when the president, Mrs. Festus Curry entertained in her most hospitable manner with a Thanksgiving party. A well prepared and interesting program was rendered. The devotional exercises were conducted by the president, after which the needs of Mexico and the Vashli school for girls was presented in an interesting way by Mrs. Curry, followed by an impromptu talk on prayer by Mrs. Watson, and brief sentence prayers by the members. A feature especially enjoyed was the solo, "Others," by Miss Clara Curry, the small daughter of the hostess. The dramatic "Praise the Lord" in which the members took part, proved very pleasing as was the missing word contest, partners having first been found by matching quotations, written on miniature turkeys, the poem was given out, the missing words to be supplied. This proved very mirth-provoking. However, every one correctly filled in the blanks, thereby making a tie, and as only one prize could be presented, it was unanimously decided that the two visitors from the other society, Misses Clara McCall and Sallie Brownlee should draw straws for the prize, which was done. Miss McCall being the lucky winner was presented with two lovely handkerchiefs. Delicious coffee with whipped cream and crackers were then served by the hostess, with Mrs. J. A. Curry assisting.

Those present during the afternoon were Mesdames: C. W. Watson, Dr. Rogers, L. R. Brooks, Chris. Owings, Clara Owings, Florence Ropp, Sallie Owings, John Thomason, Wistar Owings, J. A. Curry, W. C. Curry, Willie Harris, Harris Curry, D. D. Harris, Ross Meeks, R. R. Owings and Misses Susan Thomason, Emma Harris, Fannie Brownlee, Emma Dial, Sallie Brownlee, and Clara McCall.

Mrs. Willie Harris was the week-end host of relatives in the "Mountain City."

Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock the residence occupied by Mr. Mack Thomason and family was entirely destroyed by fire together with all contents. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Thomason had only just arrived at church when the conflagration was first noticed. The fire attracted a great many people, but too late to save anything. The house was owned by Mrs. Ena Harris, and it is understood some insurance was carried. The household effects of Mr. Thomason, however, were covered by no insurance.

Miss Nannie Campbell of Laurens, spent Sunday with homefolks here.

The Rev. C. W. Watson filled his usual appointment here Sunday afternoon. His sermon in keeping with the season was one of praise and thanksgiving, and greatly enjoyed by all.

Get Seven Stills in Day and a Half

Ashville, N. C., Nov. 27.—Capturing seven stills in one day and a half and emptying ten thousand gallons of corn beer, three gallons of whiskey and 1,100 gallons of apple pomace, prohibition raiders today established what is believed to be a record in Madison county.

The party of raiders was composed of Prohibition Agent Hampton, Sheriff Bailey of Madison county; T. R. Tweed, Troy Rector and Till Gazner.

All of the stills were reported to have been destroyed. Although no captures were made, Mr. Hampton says that the party worked up four clean cases.

Mr. Hampton returned today from the scene of the seven raids. It is said to be the greatest number of stills yielded up by any one county in the state during such a short period.

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets that are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colic and indigestion can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess, colomel tablets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing indigestion and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

O. G. Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's R. B. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasurable work. Next morning your colic is vanished, your liver is active, your stomach is purified, and you are feeling with a hearty appetite for breakfast.

Drugging a colic Calotab only in small sealed packages, price thirty cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them helpful.—(Adv.)

EKOM

We have had fine weather for several weeks for gathering crops, and most everybody is about up with their work and ready to sow grain.

We are glad to report the sick of our town improving. Mrs. Allie Elbertson has been on the sick list the past week, but is better. Also Master Edwin Burts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burts, has been right sick with pneumonia, but is thought to be better this morning. Little Julia Katherine Cooper is better after a week's illness. Also we are glad to report Mr. Eugene Elmore better. We hope for them all a speedy recovery.

Our community was honored Sunday by a visit from Gov. R. A. Cooper. He was in Laurens and came out for a few hours' visit to his aunts, Misses Edna and Kitura Cooper, and also called on his uncle, Mr. T. J. Cooper. He is looking fine and says he is a very busy man these days. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin, of Laurens.
