

MEET IN ATLANTA FOR TARIFF TALKS

Southern Producers to Enter Pleas. Coolidge to Speak.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 2.—Delegates from throughout the South, representing every line of Southern productive industry will gather in Atlanta Thursday, January 27, for the opening of the second Southern Tariff congress, which will last through January 29.

The congress has been called for the purpose of discussing a proposed tariff on Southern products, and while no set program has been devised, every line of industry will be allowed to present its reasons for a tariff schedule, and recommendations will be formulated and presented to the tariff commission at Washington by a specially appointed committee.

It is expected that 3,000 or more Southern business men will be here and more than 5,000 club women, members of the women's division of the Southern Tariff association, are expected. Vice President-elect Coolidge will address the congress.

Seventeen Southern governors and many state officials are also on the program for speeches, John R. Kirby, president of the association, will preside.

It has been pointed out that there are a number of lines of Southern products on which there is no tariff at all. Among these are Southern mineral industries, tale industries, graphite producers and many others. These lines will have representatives at the congress to present their pleas for tariff protection.

Some of the other lines which are to be presented are: Southern zinc producers; sulphur industry of Louisiana and Texas; Southern iron and steel industry; coke oven by-products; Southern glass manufacturing concerns; producers of ferro-alloys, asbestos, mica, potash, gypsum and other "infant" Southern mineral products; live stock dealers; allied manufacturing associations of all Southern states, and many others.

Delegations from chambers of commerce of principal cities of the South have been invited to attend.

EKOM NEWS.

Ekom, Jan. 23.—There has been much sickness in our community the past week or two. Mr. Brisson and all of his family, Mrs. Jennie Hamilton, Mrs. Dr. Cooper, Miss Nell Pinson, Miss Kittura Cooper, and Miss Dollie Culbertson have all been sick with colds, but all of them are able to be up and about again.

Mr. Carl Culbertson was right sick for several days with an attack of rheumatism but is better.

Mrs. T. J. Cooper was called to Enoree Friday night on account of the serious illness of her little grandson. Little Miss Evelyn Campbell, while playing at school one day last week fell and bruised her face up right badly, but is getting on all right.

Miss Myrtle Culbertson spent the week-end with homefolks.

Misses Nell Pinson and Blanche Trantham spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Grace and Lonie Cooper.

Mrs. Allie Culbertson and daughter, Dollie, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cooper and baby were visitors at the home of Mrs. Lou Culbertson last Thursday.

Mr. Jerne Check spent Friday in Laurens.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Culbertson spent Saturday night with Mr. Trantham and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Burts spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Bolt.

Mrs. Barbara Culbertson and daughter, Miss Jessie, visited Mrs. Lou Culbertson and daughter recently.

Mrs. Lou Culbertson and Mrs. Allie Culbertson spent Friday with Dr. J. G. Cooper and wife.

You better attend the Red Hot Price Sale this week at Red Iron Racket.

LANFORD NEWS.

Lauford, Jan. 24.—Last Friday afternoon was the first meeting in the year of the Rural Improvement Association. It was well attended. Some very good suggestive plans were laid out for the work of the new year. Next Friday afternoon, Jan. 28, all the patrons are requested to bring water oaks or some pretty shade trees to set out on the school grounds. A petition was signed by all the ladies present to ask the legislature that they appropriate a fund for the maintenance of a demonstration agent for the county. Our president, Mrs. C. L. Waldrep, was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Jennie Burgess, Misses Pauline and Margaret Waldrep and Lillie Mae Cox. The refreshments served were chicken loaf on lettuce leaves, sandwiches, potato chips, fruit cake and coffee.

The young people are practicing for a play in the near future.

Rev. J. D. Robertson the new Methodist pastor, filled his pulpit Sunday morning and preached a very impressive sermon and one very essential to heed in this time of adjustment.

Our school is progressing nicely and both teachers and pupils are doing such splendid work that several men have been heard to say that they wish we all would get up a petition and express to our teachers how much we appreciate their untiring efforts.

Miss Nina Lewis, our efficient principal, went to Spartanburg to spend the week-end with her brother.

Miss Pearl Chapman, our winsome little primary teacher, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapman, of Fountain Inn.

Miss Pearl Rawlinson, the Central teacher, spent the week end with Miss Jennie Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Houston, of Carrollton, Ga., are visiting their sister, Mrs. J. W. Lanford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Patterson are still on the sick list and also Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Holmes and children.

There seems to be almost an epidemic of colds, grippe and influenza among the people.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Thomas visited their brother's family, Mr. Oscar Thomas, of Enoree, recently.

Mrs. J. S. Higgins has returned from Union where she has been spending a few days with her son, Mr. Harper Higgins.

Mrs. Mamie Drummond and Mrs. Lillie Rogers are in Spartanburg at the bedside of Mrs. Charles Drummond who has been seriously ill.

Mr. J. W. Cooper of Union visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prince Sunday.

HARD WEEK AHEAD FOR LEGISLATURE

Many Important Matters Coming Up To Hold Elections.

(The State, Monday.)

The legislative mill will begin to grind properly this week and a number of important matters will be brought up for consideration.

Wednesday at noon the two houses will begin a joint session to fill vacant offices beginning with the election of an associate justice to fill the place of the late Daniel Edward Hydrick, who died eight days ago. Several other important officials are to be named including a superintendent of the penitentiary, a state game warden, directors of the medical college, four circuit judges and directors of the penitentiary.

Already seven candidates are in the field to succeed Mr. Hydrick. In case of a deadlock a "dark horse" may be placed in the running. Talk of one "dark horse" has already mentioned a well known member of the assembly.

Debate on several important bills already introduced is expected to come up in the house and senate during the week. Final disposition of the question of postponing the time for paying taxes is one matter of considerable interest that will be threshed out during the week.

Several bills of statewide importance are brewing, one being for a minimum wage law. The South Carolina federation of labor is anxious for a measure of this kind and it is possible that a bill carrying the requested minimum wage for women and children who work in shops, textile plants, etc., for $12 a week, may be offered. Representative Gerald or Senator Pearce may introduce the measure.

A pending bill by Senator Robinson of McCormick would abolish the office of coroner for his county and place the duties thereof on the various magistrates.

Appointment of committees from both houses to investigate the Confederate home and the highway commission, the latter in an effort to find out if there is not some means for facilitating the securing of federal aid, will also be a part of the week's work. The house will begin work again Monday night, but the senate will not reconvene until Tuesday at noon. Memorial exercises for the late W. T. P. Sprott, a member-elect to the house from Clarendon county, who died December 25, 1920, will be held in the house Tuesday at 1 o'clock. These exercises were scheduled to have been held last week but were postponed.

The week promises to be a busy one and before the time for adjournment arrives at the week-end it is likely that many important matters will have been given consideration.
