

LANFORD NEWS

Lanford, May 2.—The school closed Friday night with very appropriate and enjoyable entertainment, and everyone is praising and complimenting both teachers and pupils on the splendid success and the beautiful way they entertained the patrons and friends of the school, thus ending a very pleasant and profitable school term.

Miss Mattie Moore completed very satisfactory the fourth grade and received her diploma. It is hoped that she will enter college this fall, for she is thorough in her studies and has a brilliant mind.

Miss Chapman has returned to her home in Fountain Inn.

Miss Lewis left Monday morning to spend a few days with her brother in Spartanburg before returning to her home in Conway.

Miss Burgess will spend some time with friends before returning to her home in Manning.

We sincerely trust that these excellent young ladies will come back to us another year for all patrons and pupils are well pleased in the school management and the rapid advancement of the children.

Mrs. White Police has returned home from the hospital where she was operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. J. W. Johnson reports that his wife will be able to leave the hospital next Saturday, and will bring her home on the afternoon train. Her friends will be glad to hear this for she has been there about four weeks.

Mrs. J. S. Higgins went to Buffalo last Sunday with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harper Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Birch Holmes of Laurens spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Toy Crow.

Our community was shocked and saddened at the sudden and tragic death of Mr. John A. Payne of Greenwood, which occurred last Thursday evening on his return home from a visit to Newberry.

Mr. Payne was a fine young man with excellent traits of character, well known and loved here by a host of friends and relatives, was married to one of our home girls, Miss Ornelia Johnson, only seven months ago. She has the sincere sympathy of the entire community in this sore bereavement. The many beautiful flowers and the numerous tokens of sympathy give sufficient evidence of the love and esteem he was held in the hearts of all the people who know him.

Those going to Greenwood on this sad occasion were Messrs. H. M. and J. W. Johnson, Mrs. C. D. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waldrup, Capt. J. W. Lanford, Messrs. Charlton and D. Roy Patterson, Mrs. J. F. Byers and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall, of Hendersonville, N. C. also attended the funeral. The many friends of Mrs. Payne here wish to express to the people of Greenwood their hearty appreciation of the many deeds of kindness, their unbounded hospitality and their noble efforts they made to make the sorrow lighter for the bereaved. May God bless each and every one.

Mrs. Nannie Martin is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Patterson.

Mr. J. D. Johnson, and Mr. G. J. Lanford spent the week-end with their children in Arendell and enjoyed the old fiddler convention held there Saturday night.

Misses Gertrude Fowler and Margaret and Mary Drummond, Mrs. C. L. Waldrup, Mrs. J. E. Waldrup and Ralph and Miss Jennie Burgess and Miss Alice Drummond were in Laurens last Monday on a shopping visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Higgins and Miss Nannie Lanford were guests of Mr. R. J. Peterson and Mrs. Alice Mills last week at an excellent big dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. H. M. of Parkdale, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garrett.

We are looking forward with pleasure to the old soldiers reunion next Saturday, May 7th and hope all invited speakers and special guests will come and spend a good day with the soldier boys and all their families, friends and acquaintances.

Sugar in India.

The small Indian sugar grower makes no white sugar but simply boils down the juice and does not remove the molasses. The dark brown product is called gur or ru, and is generally sold and consumed without refining although in some parts of the country a certain amount of modern sugar is produced.

MAY DAY PASSES WITHOUT TROUBLE

No Disorders Reported in This Country, Bombs in Argentina.

Washington, May 1.—Reports to the department of justice tonight said that May day had passed quietly in the country as a whole. A few radical meetings were reported but they were said to be nothing out of the ordinary. Department agents, however, will maintain vigilance tomorrow because they will be observed then considerably since today was Sunday.

New York, May 1.—Tranquility marked the day here. There were several large patriotic gatherings, where the speakers stressed Americanism and pleaded for the quelling of elements dissatisfied with our constitutional form of government.

Buenos Aires, May 1.—May day here was marked by the throwing of two bombs, an attempt to blow up the railway bridge and a parade by Socialists and workmen who carried red flags. Nobody was injured by the explosions and little material damage was done by them.

Paris, May 1.—The first of May, with its traditional revolutionary demonstrations, passed today with probably less excitement than the ordinary Sunday. There were fewer than the usual number of arrests for minor infractions of the laws of the city and not one single case of disorder was reported throughout the other portions of France.

Madrid, May 1.—The May day demonstration of the workers of Madrid was conducted in the most orderly manner, the workers' leaders having laid emphasis on the necessity of making the Demonstration an impressive and peaceful manifestation of force.

Brussels, May 1.—The May day demonstrations throughout Belgium were carried out without disorder.

Mexico City, May 1.—Protests against the imprisonment of radicals in the United States, Hungary, Spain and Italy, and demands that the present Mexican government take definite action with regard to certain labor reforms were voiced today during the May day demonstration staged by the Confederation of Labor of Mexico.

The parade was disappointing in point of numbers and was lacking in enthusiasm although several American agitators attempted to harrange the crowd with a trade against American capitalism.

Philadelphia, May 1.—In a parade in which several thousand veterans of foreign wars participated marked one of the quietest May days here in years.

Two meetings of alleged radicals which were scheduled to be held, were forbidden by the police. Scores of persons gathered at the meeting halls found the doors locked and policemen on guard.

I AM THE CLUB BOY

I am the best lot of the country life. I am youth and enthusiasm. I am a learner of new ideas. I am industry personified. I am foe to laziness and enemy to idleness. I am friend to duty. I am forward-looking intelligence. I am the native farmer's right hand. I am a good producer and a fine product in one. I am a grower of crops and of character. I am a lover of God's great out-of-doors and of all growing things. I am my father's teacher, for he learns from me how to do things better. I am community instigator, for I make others try to reach and surpass my work. I am a minister of the gospel of better farming and I preach my example. I am a magician, for I double and triple production with the wand of scientific methods. I am the bright prospect of the country life of today, and the happy reality of the country life of tomorrow. I am the harbinger of a brighter, better, and happier country life. I am rural life's hope of the future. I am the Club Boy.

Dandy preached on the subject of the Crucifixion, urging loyalty to Christ and a life of service. This service was followed by the ordinance of the Lord's Supper.
