

TAYLOR BECOMES HEAD OF C. N. & L. RAILWAY

To Succeed Lyles. Latter Declines to Serve Again but Remains as Vice President and Counsel.

Columbia, May 20.—J. P. Taylor was yesterday elected president of the Columbia, Newberry & Laurens Railroad Company, succeeding J. B. S. Lyles who declined reelection at the annual meeting of the stockholders in the company's office yesterday morning. Mr. Taylor, who was vice president and general manager of the railroad, will continue as general manager as well as president, while J. B. S. Lyles will serve with the company as a member of the board of directors, as vice president and as general counsel.

Mr. Taylor, who is a native of Rocky Mount, N. C., began his railroad experience over 20 years ago as a telegraph operator with the Atlantic Coast railroad in North Carolina. In 1909 he came to Columbia as freight agent for the Atlantic Coast Line railroad also becoming freight agent for the Columbia, Newberry & Laurens railroad. In 1917 Mr. Taylor went to Camp Jackson as general agent for the Atlantic Coast Line, the Southern and the Seaboard Air Line railroads, serving there in handling troop movements in and out of the camp until 1919 when he returned to the Columbia, Newberry & Laurens Co. Two years ago he was made general manager of the road and last year became vice president and general manager, J. B. S. Lyles being named president to succeed John P. Livingston, who had died in 1918 while president of the road.

All other officers of the company were reelected as follows: C. P. Scarborough, secretary and treasurer; Lyles and Lyles, general counsel; J. T. Stewart, auditor; E. A. Tarrer, commercial agent; W. J. Craig, passenger traffic manager; R. A. Brand, freight traffic manager, and A. H. Shepard, freight claim agent.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

To Stop a Cough Quick

take HAYES' HEALING HONEY, a cough medicine which stops the cough by healing the inflamed and irritated tissues.

A box of GROVE'S O-PEN-TRATE SALVE for Chest Colds, Head Colds and Croup is enclosed with every bottle of HAYES' HEALING HONEY. The salve should be rubbed on the chest and throat of children suffering from a Cold or Croup.

The healing effect of Hayes' Healing Honey inside the throat combined with the healing effect of Grove's O-Pen-Trate Salve through the pores of the skin soon stops a cough.

Both remedies are packed in one carton and the cost of the combined treatment is 35c. Just ask your druggist for HAYES' HEALING HONEY.

CALLS SOLICITORS FOR CONFERENCE

Attorney General Inaugurates Annual Meeting. Effort to Get Crime on Wane and Exchange of Ideas.

Columbia, May 20.—Attorney General Wolfe is calling a meeting of the solicitors of the state for the latter part of June or the first part of July, to be held in Columbia. Besides the solicitors the governor, the attorney general and the assistant attorney general will be present.

Among the regular papers assigned will be the following: "Temporary Insanity and Its Abuse in Criminal Cases as a Defense;" "The Hippocket Defense and Its Dangers to Society;" "Recommended Changes in Court Procedure for the More Expeditions Trial of Criminals and Administering of Justice in the Court of Sessions;" "The Circuit Solicitor and His Opportunities for Suppressing Crime;" "The Solicitor and His Moral Weight in the Community;" "Amusing Incidents and the Human Side of the Criminal Court." Governor Cooper will contribute a paper on the subject of "Some of the Influences Tending to Crime of Today and How to Check Them."

"You may have all the machinery possible behind the solicitor," said the attorney general yesterday, "but if he himself should fail in his duty, the machinery is of no avail. He is the most important factor in the enforcing of the law against crime. He has never passed for his true worth nor come in for his merited interest and commendation. There is nothing which contributes more to rendering a public official indifferent in the prosecution of his duties than to have him feel that the public is indifferent."

The attorney general says that he hopes to inaugurate what will be an annual event with the solicitors and the attorney general and effect a closer and more vital relationship among the members of his department. In the midst of the astounding crime that has been prevailing in South Carolina no less than elsewhere in the country, the solicitors have, to a man, been working diligently and with splendid results. The statistics in the office of the attorney general show that the percentage of acquittals has been small and that the majority of homicide cases have been won by the state.

Another feature of the meeting will be a report of a special committee appointed for the purpose of drafting a revised form of indictment. It will be shorter and more simplified than that in present use. "There is no reason why the annual meeting of these officers should not bear in an important degree in the interest in suppressing crime," the attorney general said.

WOULD RECOGNIZE MEXICO UNDER PLAN SUBMITTED

Definite Statement Prepared Outlining Conditions of Recognition. George T. Summerlin to Deliver Statement.

Washington, May 22.—A definite statement outlining the conditions upon which the United States would extend recognition to the Oregon government of Mexico has been prepared for submission to President Obregon. This statement in the form of a memorandum, it was said tonight, will be delivered to Obregon by Geo. T. Summerlin, counselor of the American embassy at Mexico, who is expected to leave for Mexico this week. He was summoned here a month ago by the secretary of state to give first hand information concerning the situation in that country.

The conditions for recognition, it is understood, are practically identical with the recommendations made by Secretary Fall in his report at the last session of Congress as chairman of a sub-committee of the Senate foreign relations committee which investigated the Mexican question.

The important feature of the communication is said to be the insistence that Obregon must sign some document giving assurance that Americans and their interests will be properly safeguarded in Mexico before the United States will consider the resumption of formal relations with that country. If such assurances are given, it is believed that Henry P. Fletcher, under-secretary of state, who was ambassador to Mexico for a time under the Wilson administration until he resigned because of disapproval of that administration's policy toward Mexico, will be designated to represent the United States in drafting a treaty.

The communication which Mr. Summerlin will deliver to General Obregon contains nothing which can justify its being characterized as an ultimatum, but it is understood the Mexican executive will be left in no doubt as to the determination of the American administration to see that American interests are not indefinitely discriminated against. It is said to have been prepared not only with the knowledge of Secretary Fall, but in collaboration with him.

Among the conditions set forth, are: Elimination of those provisions of Article 27 of the Mexican constitution relating to the nationalization of the sub-soil rights insofar as they effect the tenure of land to which title was obtained prior to the adoption of the constitution in 1917.

Elimination of the provisions which deprive Americans of the right of diplomatic appeal in cases where property is acquired.

Modification of the provisions which prevent Americans acquiring and owning property within certain zones along the Mexican coasts and international boundaries.

Assurance that Article 33 of the constitution providing for the expulsion of "pernicious foreigners" will not be applied to Americans without the filing of charges and the opportunity of a fair trial.

Modification of the provisions governing religious worship in such manner that American clergy shall have the right to exercise the functions usual in their denominations.

It also is suggested that the two governments agree to the creation of a mixed court for the adjudication of claims.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH AMERICA TODAY?

- Fargo, South Dakota, Forum.
- What's the matter with America these days?
- Too many diamonds; not enough alarm clocks.
- Too many silk shirts; not enough red flannel ones.
- Too many pointed toed shoes; not enough square-toed ones.
- Too many serge suits; not enough overalls.
- Too many satin upholstered limousines, and not enough cows.
- Too many consumers, and not enough producers.
- Too much oil stock, and not enough savings accounts.
- Too much envy of the results of hard work, and too little desire to emulate.
- Too many desiring short cuts to wealth and too few willing to pay the price.
- Too much of the spirit of "get while the getting is good," and not enough of the old-fashioned christianity.
- Too much discontent that vents itself in mere complaining, and too little real effort to remedy conditions.
- Too much class consciousness, and too little common democracy and love of humanity.

I'd walk a mile for a Camel

The pleasure is worth it. There's no substitute for Camel quality and that mild, fragrant Camel blend.

The fellow who smokes Camels, wants Camels. That's because Camels have a smoothness, a fragrance and a mildness you can't get in another cigarette.

Don't let anyone tell you that any other cigarette at any price is so good as Camels.

Let your own taste be the judge. Try Camels for yourself. A few smooth, refreshing puffs and you'd walk a mile for a Camel, too.

Maxwell Prices Reduced—Now

New Organization, Taking Full Control, Turns Prices Back Three Years

The last step in the Maxwell reorganization was the sale of the Maxwell properties to the new and powerful organization, May 12.

The first step of the new organization was to raise the value of the good Maxwell still higher, by restoring prices to the former low level of 1918.

The reduction is $150 on each of the four models, effective at once.

This is the second price revision made by the new organization; and the total reduction from the high level, since Sept. 28, 1920, has been $310 on open cars and $350 on closed cars.

What this latest action means, literally, is turning back Maxwell prices to the basis of 1918.

The truth is that the good Maxwell today is a better car than it was three years ago.

It has been given a new goodness, by lowering costs, by increasing plant efficiency, and by greatly improving the manufacturing practices.

The new organization now owns the great Maxwell plants outright. Its way is clear to carry out in full its larger plans and policies.

It pledges itself never to stop working for the further betterment of the good Maxwell, and for the greater satisfaction of present and future owners of this good car.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it . . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.
