

LAND SURVEYING

I will be in a position from now on through the fall and winter months to do your surveying. Surveying is tiresome and expensive work, so why not have it done accurately now and not have to do it over.

Subscription Price Reduced

In keeping with the general reduction in war-time prices and in order that many of our subscribers may be better enabled to have their names continued on our mailing list, we have decided to make a reduction in the yearly subscription of The Advertiser from $2.00 to $1.50 per year. We have taken this step after mature consideration of various phases of the matter and have come to the conclusion that this step will be appreciated by many of our friends who would have continued to take the paper anyway and by others who would have found it difficult, under the present financial conditions, to continue their relations with the paper. We are confident that the financial returns from subscriptions at $2.00 per year would have been equal, and in the long run, in excess of subscriptions at $1.50, but both sentiment and business policy, as well as a desire to do our part in meeting new conditions, prompt us to make such a reduction that may keep on our list many long-time friends who might otherwise see fit to discontinue the paper. Subscriptions paid to us since the announcement of our contest will be extended four months per year.

We might also state that inasmuch as we have made a reduction of 25 per cent for the benefit of our subscribers, we will assume that delinquents will pay up and renew during the contest, but in case this is of done we will be compelled to drop all those delinquent from our list when the contest is over.

DIALS NEWS

Dials, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving day has come and gone. There is nothing left but memories in the hearts of all. The occasion, however, passed off quietly here, the day was a beautiful one, typical of our own sunny climate, and as a day of rest and joy, was devoted to wholesome recreation and pleasure. It was a happy day to many and yet of all those who participated in the quiet festivities of the day, not one, I am sure, but paused long enough in their enjoyment to realize their many blessings, and to give grateful thanks to the Great Giver of all good things, and for the glorious opportunity of living and laboring in this splendid age of progress.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Curry, Miss Annie Lou Curry, Mrs. Eileen Peden and little David, were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Armstrong, of Fountain Inn, on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bolt and children, Mr. J. M. Sumerel and family, of Hickory Tavern, and Miss Emma Dial, of Gray Court, were dinner guests of Mr. D. D. Brownlee Thursday.

Miss Pearl Henderson, of Hickory Tavern, spent Thanksgiving with her parents here.

Prof. C. F. Brooks, of the Pinkney Street school faculty, Greenville, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with folks here and in Laurens.

Miss Mildred Easterling, one of the teachers at Poplar Springs, spent the week-end in Gray Court, the attractive guest of her aunt, Mrs. Festus Curry.

Mr. P. M. Hellams and family spent Thursday with Mr. Ludie Abercrombie and family.

Miss Mattie Simmons, accompanied by a bevy of guests, among the number being Misses Grace Finley and Padgett, all of Greenville, were the guests of Mrs. H. Y. Simmons and family Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. J. T. Gillespie and family, of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Curry and children, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harris and children, Mr. Haskell Gray and family, and Mr. Arthur Curry and children, were the spend-the-day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Curry, Thursday.

Miss Grace Martin is on an extended visit with relatives in Woodruff.

The oyster supper given by the Improvement Association in the school house last Thursday evening proved a success, both in a social as well as a financial way, and a nice little sum was realized. The association has only recently organized, however, and the society is planning many ways and means of raising money for the benefit of the school.

The second Sunday morning in December will be observed at Dials as Missionary Day. Rev. C. W. Watson will preach a missionary sermon and a very interesting program will be rendered. It is hoped that many will attend this service and a cordial welcome will await one and all.

The union Epworth League met in the church here Sunday evening, Nov. 20th, and despite the inclemency of the weather a goodly number of people were in attendance.

Miss Dewey Armstrong, as leader, had charge of the program. Appropriate music was rendered by Miss Cecil Owings, after which short talks on "For What I Am Thankful", were given by Messrs. Bob Rogers and Shaw Johnson, of Gray Court, and Miss Sallie Brownlee, of this place. A feature that proved interesting, as well as instructive, was the Thanksgiving pageant. First to enter was the "Spirit of Thanksgiving," acted by Miss Clara McCall. She was followed by a little band of Pilgrims, Miss Lillie Thomason, Mr. Bob McCall, Miss Annie Lou Curry, Edwin Hellams, Nannie Campbell, Guy Campbell and Osteen McCall; then came the Nations of the World that the Epworth League are pledged to help: Japan, Sara Harris; Africa, Raymond Campbell; Belgium, Marselle Satterfield; China, Hattie Abercrombie; Mexico, Ernest Curry; last to enter was the Epworth League, represented by Miss Emma Harris, Ralph Hellams, Miss Sallie Brownlee, Talmage Armstrong, and Miss Laura Hellams.

The union Epworth League meets every two months, the next meeting being held at Gray Court with the Gray Court Leaguers having charge of the program.

Rev. C. W. Watson filled his usual appointment here Sunday afternoon, and while the afternoon proved a very inclement one, quite a good congregation were present and everyone seemed to enjoy the splendid Thanksgiving sermon delivered in Mr. Watson's best style.

NARNIE NEWS

Narnie, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving Day was enjoyed around here. Many went hunting and brought home lots of nice things to eat. Others went visiting to get good things to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Benjamin, Charlton, Jr., and Mrs. Benjamin were guests of Mrs. E. B. Bolt Thursday afternoon.

Those enjoying the kind and gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bramlett Thanksgiving Day were, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bramlett and William, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Willis and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bramlett and daughter Ina, Mrs. Oscar Medlock and children, Misses Bettie and Lee Bramlett, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bramlett.

Mr. E. B. Bolt spent Thanksgiving in Esley, with his son, Mr. E. Lee Bolt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reid and daughter, Remelle, Mrs. Mary Reid and Miss Nelle Burts were guests of relatives in Clinton, Thanksgiving.

Mr. Ray Thayneham, Misses Ora Powers, Mary Catherine Powers, and Mrs. Ross Powers spent Thanksgiving in Blacksburg.

Miss Julia Chapman and Miss Nelle Burts were the attractive guests of Miss Remelle Reid for the week-end. Miss Reid entertained a few friends in their honor Saturday night, rook and fortune telling being enjoyed throughout the evening. Those present were Misses Julia Chapman, Marie Tinsley, Eva Bolt, Miss Tinsley, Messrs. George Langston, Warren Tinsley, Claude Brown, Edd Bramlette and Mr. Pulley.

Miss Eva Bolt has accepted a position with the B. M. England Co., of Laurens, for the coming months, and is staying with Mrs. Carl Bramlett, on Sullivan street.

Mr. and Mrs. Law Nobley and son, Law, Jr., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Burts.

Miss Alvrice Henry who is teaching at Columbia school, was the guest of Miss Louise Hunter, Thanksgiving.

Miss Ruth Myers was the Sunday guest of Miss Louise Hunter.

CHIROPRACTIC

PRONOUNCED KY-RO-PRAK-TIC

DRS. COON & TODD

Chiropractors

announce the opening of

CHIROPRACTIC offices, Enterprise Bank Building, December 7

(KI-RO-PRAK-TIC) is a new science of adjusting the cause of disease, based on a thorough knowledge of the nervous system. Nerves which control the various functions of the body emerge from small openings between the bony segments of the spinal column. A slight variation of these bones will cause pressure on a nerve and diminish the flow of mental impulses, lowering the vitality and resistance of the tissue, the result of which is DISEASE.

The CHIROPRACTIC method is to adjust the abnormality, remove the pressure by removing the cause and thus permit the nerve to regain its normal size and functions, restoring health.
