

DIALS NEWS

Dials, Jan. 2.—Here's to wishing The Advertiser and staff correspondents and readers a happy and prosperous New Year.

The Christmas season has come to a close, the days passing off quietly enough, in family gatherings and week-end parties. It was indeed a season of "jollity and gayly" yet notwithstanding, all seemingly kept in mind that the season was the anniversary of His birth, to be observed fittingly by the faithful followers of the "Prince of Light," for the festival called Christmas has come to have a creed wider than any ritual and pessimism halts at its portals. Never before perhaps in the history of the world is the glorious lesson of nativity taught with such far-reaching results as at Christmas time. However, if all men could be brought to realize the glorious lesson of nativity, this troubled world of ours would be a brighter place during the new year of 1922.

On Christmas evening, the Epworth League gave the following interesting program in the church here. Miss Cecil Owings had charge of the music while Miss Laura Hellams presided over the program. First came a processional, by all the Leaguers.

Prayer—Magnificent—the congregation standing.
 Christmas Anthem—"Silent Night".
 Scripture Reading—By I. M. Owings.
 Recitation—"Christmas Carol"—By Miss Flora Graydon.
 Solo—"Under the Snow"—By Nell Harris.

"Story of the Star"—By Miss Sallie Brownlee.
 "Story of the Other Wise Man"—By Nell Harris.
 Pageant and Tableaux—Mother and Child—Mrs. Festus Curry.
 Shepherds—John Curry, Raymond Campbell and John Hellams.
 Wise Men—Coke Curry, Edwin Hellams and Talmage Armstrong.
 Angels—Misses Dewey Armstrong, Hattie Abercrombie, Lilly Thomason, Marcelle Satterfield.
 Prophet—I. M. Owings.
 Offering—The proceeds going to buy Christmas cheer for the little ones of a destitute family in the community.
 Prayer—By Rev. C. W. Watson.
 Dr. Clyde Curry, of Vanderbilt university, Nashville, Tenn., spent a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Curry, before going on to Baltimore, Md., where he was scheduled to give lectures before the college association of that city.
 Mrs. H. Y. Simmons has returned from Williamston, where she was called by the illness and death of her sister, Mrs. Lottie Cox. Mrs. Cox originally came from this community, and had many relatives and friends throughout this section, all of whom are grieved to hear of her demise.
 Misses Maggie D. Curry and Sue Henderson have returned to Winthrop college, after enjoying the holidays with their respective parents.
 Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Armstrong and little son Marvin, Jr., of Wilmington, N. C., were recent visitors of relatives here.
 Prof. C. E. Brooks, of Greenville, was the guest of relatives here during the Christmas holidays.
 Miss Clara McCall is on an extended visit to the lower part of the state where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCall.

 The Yule Tide season was ushered in here by a number of weddings, all of which came as a more or less surprise to many.
 The first was that of Mr. Ralph Hellams to Miss Nannie Campbell. The wedding took place in Greenville and was a very quiet one. Mrs. Hellams, as Miss Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Campbell, was extremely popular being a young lady of attractive personality. Mr. Hellams is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Hellams and is a well known young farmer and business man.
 The second took place on Christmas evening, when Mr. Archie Abercrombie and Miss Babb were united in marriage by Miss Henry Etta Owings, N. P., of Owings. The young people were unfortunate in not being able to find the Methodist or Baptist preacher at home. However, love knows no defect and learning that Miss Owings was a Notary Public, they asked her to perform the ceremony which she did in a most dignified and impressive manner. So far as is known Mr. and Mrs. Abercrombie are the first couple to be married by a woman notary public in Laurens county.
 The third wedding also took place on Christmas day, when Mr. Cleon Willis and Miss Alva Stoddard were married at the parsonage by Rev. C. W. Watson. Mr. Willis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willis and is a prominent farmer. Mrs. Willis is a very charming young lady, being the daughter of Mrs. Stoddard, from near Owings and has taught successfully two terms of the school here. Both young people have a wide circle of friends who extend to them heartiest congratulations.

 This community was greatly shocked when it became known that Mr. J. Harris Curry, a well known citizen of this place, had succumbed to an acute attack of pneumonia at his home Saturday afternoon at about 5 o'clock. Mr. Curry had been only ill a day or two. His condition however, was serious from the beginning, owing to the fragility of his constitution and age, he being 72 years old. The deceased was well known throughout the upper part of Laurens county, and was a peaceful, law-abiding citizen, faithful to his home, his community and his church, having been a member of Dials church for 50 years.
 Sunday afternoon the remains were laid away in the cemetery at this place under a beautiful mound of flowers, the services being conducted by the Rev. C. W. Watson.
 Mr. Curry is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Cook, and the following children: Mrs. J. T. Gillespie and Mrs. W. M. Davis, of Greenville, and Mrs. Willie Harris, Mrs. Haskell Gray, Messrs. Julius, Arthur and Frank Curry, of this place. Two brothers, Mr. Lewis Curry, of Green Pond, and Mr. Mart Curry, of Dials, also survive.

"Code of Hammurabi"
 The "Code of Hammurabi," a set of laws made by King Hammurabi of Babylon, 1958-1916 B. C., was found in 1901 A. D. in a stone eight feet high. The code contains 280 sections dealing with all sorts of questions. The law of bribery was stated thus: "If a man bear witness in a case for gain or money he shall himself bear the penalty imposed in the case." Breaking into mud brick houses was punishable by death. The old law of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" was enunciated by him long before the same law was stated by the Hebrews in the old Mosaic law.

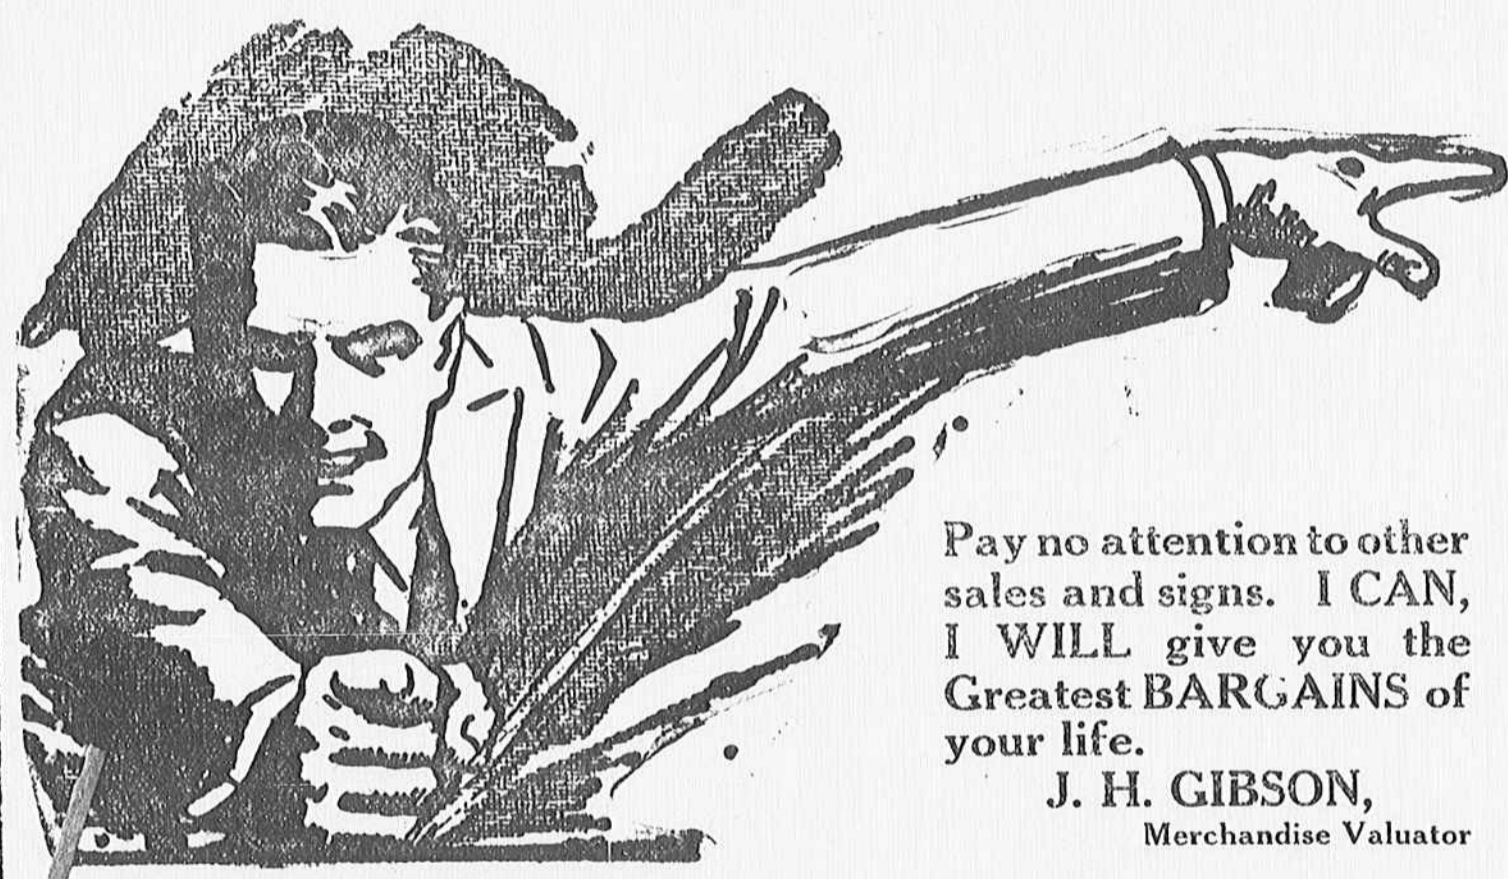

Turtles on the Amazon.
 Seventy years ago Bates predicted the rapid extinction of the turtles on the Amazon, but William Ray Allen who returned recently from an expedition to the upper reaches of that river, reports to Science that in spite of an enormous consumption of turtles and eggs that has continued from that day to this, they are still very abundant. Petroleum has replaced turtle oil since that time, but turtle eggs, meat and viscera continue to be favorite articles of food.
