CONCERTS MEETING FAVOR

McCravy Brothers and Miss Flora Bennett Giving Concerts Over State.

During the past few weeks the McCravy Brothers, Frank and James, with their cousin, Miss Flora Bennett, have been meeting with much success on a tour of the upper section of the state. They have visited Saluda, Fountain Inn, Woodruff, Cross Hill and a number of other places, where they have received flattering receptions.

Mr. Frank E. McCravy, tenor, besides doing solo and duet work, is winning much success as a reader and impersonator. Mr. James B. McCravy, who has won a wide reputation as a violinist, gives both instrumental and vocal numbers with much effect. Miss Bennett is the accompanist of the trio.

The McCravy brothers have had a number of offers to go on the lyceum platform, but they have chosen to continue in their chosen field of evangelistic singing. Their present tour is merely a diversion from their regular work.

Taylor-Pratt

A pretty home wedding of the holiday season was that of Miss Margaret Eliza Taylor and Mr. Hugh Hackett Pratt which was solemnized Wednesday morning Dec. 28th, at ten o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents on East Main street. For the occasion the home was attractively decorated, white and green being the color scheme observed, with quantities of ivy and palms and other potted plants being used. The altar was a bower of ferns and palms with a background of white. The soft glow from shaded electric bulbs and white tapers from many pedestals gave the ceremony room a beautiful setting.

Preceding the wedding march, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Miss Jennie Shealy, and "O Promise Me" by Miss Margaret Wright, the piano accompaniments being played by Miss Shealy.

At the first sounds of Mendelssohn's wedding march, under the skillful touch of Miss Shealy, the ribbon girls, little Misses Margaret Taylor of Greenwood; and Mildred Taylor of Laurens, cousins of the bride, entered first and stood at each side of the altar. They were dainty in white organdie frocks.

Next came the maid of honor, Miss Lois Taylor, sister of the bride, wearing a combination gown of black panne velvet and gray and large black picture hat, and carrying a bouquet of white narcissus. Then came the bride who had been joined by the bridegroom, taking their positions in front of the altar under a suspended basket of lovely white roses. The bride was attired in a brown velour suit with gray fox trimmings and wore a hat and accessories of a corresponding shade. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Using the ring service, the ceremony was performed by an uncle of the bride, the Rev. William B. McCuen, pastor of the Baptist church at Norway, Orangeburg county, assisted by the Rev. Samuel H. Templeman, pastor of the First Baptist church of Laurens.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, with a party of friends, motored to Clinton where the bridal couple boarded a southbound Seaboard train for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home in Greenwood where the groom is engaged in business and where he is well and popularly known. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor of Laurens. Since attending Winthrop college she has been teaching school near Laurens for three sessions.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding included the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor, of Princeton; father of the groom, Mr. L. M. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ben Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Beaudrot, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nickles, Julius Dean and Preston Devore, of Greenwood; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cooper, of Sedalia, and Mrs. A. P. Oxner, of Newberry.

man of great force and great ability and undoubtedly one of the foremost leaders of his party in his time. His loss will be greatly felt by his colleagues, his party and his state."

Senator Penrose's important post as chairman of the senate finance committee, with its generalship immediately of the pending tariff bill and of subsequent fiscal legislation, will be filled by Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota, another committee veteran. Mr. Penrose's death, Republican leaders said tonight, would not cause any material delay in disposal of the tariff, the administration allied debt funding and other bills.

The chairmanship mantle falls upon Senator McCumber, who was the sponsor of the last soldiers' bonus bill, by virtue of the senate seniority rule unbroken for many years. Mr. McCumber is the ranking Republican, and party leaders today said that he undoubtedly would be chosen. He is chairman of the Republican "steering committee" and comes up for reelection next November.

MARTIN FUND STILL GROWS

Contributions Came in Last Week From Several Cities. Fund Given Hearty Endorsement.

The Advertiser has received during the past week several substantial subscriptions to the Hosea Martin Fund and letters commending the fund. The total amount now in the treasury, after deducting the expenditures for the Christmas presents, is $119.70. Advertiser hopes that this sum will be increased to at least $1,000 and the amount turned over to the Connie Maxwell Orphanage, where it is understood, the orphaned children will be cared for.

Among letters received in regard to the fund, The Advertiser publishes excerpts from the three below:

From S. W. Lowe, Columbia
Editor: The Advertiser:

Find enclosed check for $2.50 for which please apply $1.50 for extension of my paper. And please apply $1.00 to the Martin Fund. Every law-abiding citizen in Laurens county ought to be glad to help these children whose father lost his life in defense of his county and state.

Judges have made great mistakes in giving the violators of the prohibition law a license to make liquor, transport and sell it, in giving the demons a fine, which amounts to a license to do business again. The suspension of sentences is all wrong and works against the enforcement of law. Yes, I say the State should protect these brave officers of the law.

Yours truly,
S. W. LOWE.

From C. B. Martin, Greenville
Editor: The Advertiser:

Herewith enclosed you will please find my check on The Norwood National Bank of this city, which you will apply as follows: $3.00 to advance my subscription and the additional $2.00 to be applied to the fund you are raising for the orphan children of Hosea Martin, your faithful officer, so recently deceased.

The fund, started by Captain Richey and being handled by you, is certainly a worthy one, and should receive liberal support. It is not a charity, for the members of the family of the deceased would not accept it as such, but it is an opportunity to give expression to our appreciation of unselfish devotion to duty on the part of an officer of the law, a man representative of a body of men who are underpaid for the service they render and whose sacrifices in the interest of law and order are not duly appreciated.

Wishing for you and for the good people all over my native county a full measure of happiness and prosperity during the good year 1922, I am,
Very cordially yours,
C. B. MARTIN.

From F. D. West, Brooks, Ga.
Editor: The Advertiser:

Enclosed find two checks for two dollars each which you will add to the Hosea Martin Fund.

Your idea of an endowment is wonderful and it is indeed a pleasure to give to such a worthy cause. I am glad, too, to see that your paper is taking the lead in the cause of helping an officer who was slain in the attempt to perform his duty. Hoping your paper the greatest of success the coming year, and wishing the Advertiser office a Happy New Year, I am,
Yours respectfully,
F. D. WEST.

NEW YEAR CROWD DEFILES VOLSTEAD

New York, Jan. 1.—Father Knickerbocker turned his pockets inside out today to pay the piper for piping in the New Year amidst a Volstead-defying celebration that overspread Manhattan from Harlem to the battery.

There were many casualties.

Police records enumerated four violent deaths attributable to holiday overindulgence, 16 men and women in hospitals with gunshot or knife wounds, a half dozen persons poisoned by bad liquor and scores of summonses served by members of the dry squad of 200 who attempted to make it the driest New Year's eve Broadway had ever seen.

Between midnight and 2 o'clock 12 raids by prohibition officers were reported, including a descent on Reisenweber's at Fifty-eighth street and Eighteenth avenue and similar interference with the festivities at a half dozen Greenwich village tea rooms.

Opinions differed on whether the prohibitionists succeeded.

Says Calomel Salivates and Loosens Teeth

The Very Next Dose of this Treacherous Drug may Start Trouble

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it looses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

scribed the night as a "celebration which rivalled the wildest pre-prohibition days."

William H. Anderson, head of the state Anti-Saloon league, however, said that "although wetter than the Sahara desert, New York was far drier last night, than it has been on other holidays."

Prohibition agents, he added, followed the line of least resistance and did not interfere with those who "carried their own." A more rigid enforcement of the law, he assured, would have caused "too much reaction against the law."

"Conditions", he summed up, "in the freest place in the country on the freest night of the year showed a big improvement over any previous New Year's eve since enactment of the Volstead act."

Hundreds of churches held watch night services that drew immense audiences without seeming to detract from the throngs that early took possession of reserved tables in thousands of hotels, cafes and restaurants.

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thick, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.
