LANFORD NEWS

Lanford, Feb. 27.—The remains of Mr. W. B. Harman, of Laurens, were brought here last Friday for interment in the Methodist cemetery. Rev. C. T. Squires conducted the funeral services. Several selections were beautifully sung by Messrs. Roper, McCravy and Powers and Miss Armstrong and Mrs. Martin from Laurens. The floral tributes were also beautiful. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the bereaved family.

Mrs. T. P. Poole and son, Mr. J. C. Poole, of Sandy Springs, worshipped with the congregation Sunday morning and were guests of relatives here.

The B. Y. P. U. had a large crowd of young people Sunday night, and were pleased to have Mrs. J. T. L. John present to make them a splendid address. The president expressed her appreciation of her remarks and plans are being made to begin the mission study course on March 12th. We congratulate these young people on their interest in the work. They are trying to carry on and will mean much in the development of their Christian work.

The Washington birthday program last Wednesday afternoon at the school house was very much enjoyed and the Rural Improvement association had a very interesting program. Their contest on Washington was joined in with much zest. The successful contestants were Mrs. J. B. Williams and Mrs. S. A. Cox, who were presented with a delicious box of home-made candy. Mrs. J. M. Fleming won the second prize.

Messrs. J. W. Johnson and C. C. Cox spent the week-end with home-folks. They have begun a new contract with the manufacturers at Simpsonville and will be there several weeks. Mr. D. R. Patterson left with them Monday morning, and will be connected with them for some time.

Mr. John Melmoth Fleming, a student at Spartan Academy, spent the week-end with his parents.

Mr. J. M. Fleming and Mr. W. L. Patterson made a visit to Leesville last Sunday to see Mr. Mel Fleming, who has been sick. He was able to return home with them. He has been spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Crouch.

The many friends here of Mr. Henry Ferguson were sorry to hear of his death which occurred there last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Higgins were in Spartanburg for the funeral. Mr. Ferguson was well known here, having spent most of his boyhood days in our midst. We sympathize with the family in this dispensation of God's providence.

Mr. B. W. Johnson and family, of Arcadia, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson is much improved in health. We are sorry to note that our faithful deacon, Mr. W. D. Patterson, was not able to attend church Sunday.

MT. GALLAGHER NEWS

Mt. Gallagher, Feb. 27.—The minstrel at Mt. Olive school house last Thursday night was enjoyed very much by all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davenport visited Mrs. Barzille Golden, last week. Mrs. Golden has been ill for some time, but is better at present.

The many friends of Mrs. Dave Madden will be sorry to hear she is still confined to her room.

Miss Margaret Davies is real sick at this writing.

We were indeed sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Wash Davis, who fell dead at his home near Ware Shoals, last Monday. He was buried at Poplar Springs cemetery Tuesday. Mr. Davis was 77 years old. He served throughout the Civil War, and was wounded at Frankland, Tenn. He leaves a wife and seven children: Mr. Frank Davis, of Princeton; Mr. Bill Davis, of Greenville; Mr. Warren Davis, of Ware Shoals, and Mr. Broadus Davis, Mrs. Lenny Redden, Mrs. Sara Valentine and Mrs. Texanna Crawford, all of Brewerton; 33 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren survive him. He also leaves one brother and one sister, Mr. John Davis, of Brewerton, and Mrs. Civilla Walker, of Poplar.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davenport visited Mr. John Medlock last Sunday.

A party given by Miss Phoenix Latimer last Saturday night, was very much enjoyed by the young people.

Mr. Bob Scott, of Princeton, was visiting in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. C. A. Marler and family attended meeting at Ware Shoals, Sunday.

Mr. Hosey Bedenbaugh, of Greenville, was the guest of Mr. Will Sligh last week-end.

Mr. J. R. Brown and family spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davenport.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Ellen Rysor, who died last Thursday. We sympathize with the loved ones.

MT. OLIVE NEWS

Mt. Olive, Feb. 27.—Mrs. J. H. Culbertson attended Friday afternoon, the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Ellen Riser at Bethlehem Methodist church. Mr. Culbertson and several children accompanied her. Mrs. Riser, who was the widow of the late Robert E. Riser of the Fork section, was before marriage Miss Ellen Wells. After a short illness she died Thursday, leaving three sons and one daughter, together with a number of other relatives. The funeral and burial services were held at Bethlehem church Friday, conducted by Rev. M. Lupo, of Waterloo. A number of her near relatives live in this section of the county.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Amanda Redden, who has been quite sick for several days is thought to be some better.

Mr. John Knight has been right feeble for a few days. Mr. Knight has passed his eighty-fifth birthday, the oldest citizen, so far as we know, in this section of the county.

Mrs. Emma Mahon of the Hickory Tavern section is here to spend a few weeks with her brothers and other relatives.

Young Mr. Craddock and Mr. Ray Godfrey, of Fountain Inn, were here for last week-end.

RIDDLES OLD FIELD NEWS

Riddles Old Field, Feb. 27.—Mr. A. W. Rhodes has recently purchased a grist mill and will soon have it in operation.

Mrs. Stevie Garrett, who has been ill for some time, is rapidly improving. Mr. Carl Garrett has been suffering for several days with a severe cold. We hope he will soon be out again.

Mrs. J. Allen Riddle, who has been suffering for several weeks, is now on the road to recovery.

Hosca Martin's children are with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Putnam at present.

Little Raymond Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hughes, fell from a ladder last week and is now suffering with a broken blood vessel in the neck. We hope the little one will soon be playful again.

Mrs. Willie Jones and little daughter, of Greenville, and Mrs. Raymond Cooper were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rhodes.

Mrs. Minnie Holcombe, of Easley, spent the week-end with her father, Mr. W. L. Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Owens and family visited Mr. H. P. Burdette, Sunday. Mr. W. L. Garrett has been sick for the past few days.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many kind friends and neighbors for the kindness shown to us during the protracted illness and at last the taking from our midst, the wife and mother, and may God reward them many times for every kind word and every good deed done. Also, we wish to thank them for the many beautiful floral offerings. J. B. Brownlee and Children.

Card of Thanks

We want to thank all of our friends and neighbors for the kindnesses and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our son and brother, W. Rook Brown. Their kindnesses will never be forgotten. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown and Family.

THIS IS TEAMWORK AND SURE SUCCESS

TEAM WORK

Team-Work is the foundation on which all great things are accomplished; it is the mainspring of all organizations. The town or community in which you live is an organization, the success of which should be one of the foremost thoughts in your daily life. Its success depends on the support it receives from its citizens and its success means your success. By supporting your local clubs and organizations, who are striving hard to do big things for your community, you will be doing your part in assuring its progress. MORAL—Team-work assures success.
