

HOME-COMING DAY AT NEW PROSPECT

April 29-30 Set Apart for Home-Coming of Former Pastors and Members.
New Prospect church, at Maddens Station, is planning for a Home-Coming celebration on April 29-30, at which time absent friends and former members of the church and school will be expected to turn their faces toward the old home church and gather for two days of reunion and worship.
Saturday, April 29, will mark the closing of Prospect school and the exercises will be in the nature of a home-coming for all former teachers and pupils of the school. A pageant of progress "Marching On" will be given by the present school, a picnic dinner will be served and the afternoon given to meeting friends and talking over old times.
Sunday, April 30, will be in charge of the pastor and will be a church home-coming, at which a special place will be given to all former pastors and members of Prospect church. A full program will be given later.
Former pupils of Prospect school, members of Prospect church and friends are invited to come. A picnic dinner will be served, each family being expected to bring a basket.
