WOMAN'S PARTY DEDICATES HOME
Notable Men and Women Take Part in the Exercises.
 Washington, May 21.—The headquarters of the National Woman's party was formally dedicated today, with the laying of the cornerstone of their new building which is to be constructed opposite the capitol of the United States. A crowd of several thousand people, including a number of notable men and women of this and other nations, took part in the ceremonies.
 To music furnished by the marine band, the purple, white and yellow banner of the National Woman's party was formally raised and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, of New York, their president, declared the purposes of the occasion were to "acclaim the acceptance into political life of an organized body of women" and "to lay the cornerstone of the first woman's political parliament in the world."
 President Harding had accepted an invitation to attend, but at the last moment found that he was unable to do so and expressed his regret in a letter.
 "I share with you and your associates a rejoicing in the enfranchisement of the women of the United States," the President wrote, "and I very truly wish that the larger opportunity of American womanhood will be marked by the highest ideals, lofty patriotism, noble inspirations and great good to our common country."
 Senator Curtis, of Kansas, and Representative Fess, of Ohio, Republicans, and Senator Carraway, Democrat, of Arkansas, brought cordial greetings from the congressional branches to the women in short addresses.
 One of the interesting features of the dedication was the placing in the cornerstone of historic documents connected with the suffrage campaign, as well as greetings from all parts of the world. The first of the presidential series of medals struck off by the mint at Philadelphia for President Harding and the historic "Woman's Rights" charter, drawn up in 1848, were given places of honor. The cornerstone was sealed with a silver plated trowel presented by the only survivor of the convention which drew up the famous charter, Mrs. Charlotte Piercer, of Philadelphia.

MULLINS CITIZENS TAKES OWN LIFE

R. Miles Shoots Self After Wounding Merchant. Latter May Die Too.
 Mullins, May 17.—R. Miles is dead and Ben Snyder is possibly fatally injured from shots alleged to have been fired by Mr. Miles in Mr. Snyder's store about 10:30 o'clock this morning.
 At the coroner's inquest this afternoon the verdict was that "R. Miles came to his death by gunshot wounds inflicted by his own hand."
 The bullet which ended the life of Mr. Miles was fired into the temple. Dr. J. Hagood Smith, who examined Mr. Snyder's wounds, is of the opinion that the bullet entered Mr. Snyder's back, ranged the full length of the left lung and barely missed the heart. His condition is very grave.
 The story as told by Mr. Snyder is that Mr. Miles came to the store early this morning for a settlement for an iron safe which he had sold to Mr. Snyder. It is alleged that Mr. Miles contended for a sum in advance of the agreed price and that the shooting followed in consequence of Mr. Snyder's refusal.
 Mrs. Snyder was in the store at the time but knew nothing of a misunderstanding until the shots were heard. Ike Sheer, a brother-in-law of Mr. Snyder and a clerk in the store, had left the building a few moments before.
 Mr. Snyder is a nephew of Mr. Miles and both have been in the clothing and dry goods business here for a number of years. Mr. Miles was the oldest clothing merchant in Mullins and by hard work and attention to business, he had amassed a small fortune. About 90 days ago he sold out his business to Mr. Snyder.
 Mr. Miles was regarded as a good substantial business man, always liberal to every worthy cause and ready to serve where needed. He was about 60 years old and leaves a wife and one son, Edgar, 12 years old, a student in Charleston. Mr. Miles' only brother, L. Miles, died in Mullins in 1914.

RED CROSS AIDING HOMELESS REFUGEES

Probably Five Thousand Will be Added to Total of Sixty Thousand.
 New Orleans, May 17.—Probably 5,000 homeless refugees will be added to the 60,000 already made homeless or otherwise seriously affected by the floods as a result of the breaks in the levee on Bayou Des Glaises, near Hamburg, La., according to estimates made today by Red Cross workers. Today's break increases the total area flooded to more than 5,500 square miles in Louisiana and Mississippi.
 A total of 42,000 persons are now being fed and clothed by flood relief agencies in the two states, according to these officials, 23,000 in Louisiana and 19,000 in Mississippi. It is expected that at least 2,000 persons who will be affected by the Hamburg crevasse will be added to this roll.
 The loss of livestock in the area being flooded by the Hamburg break will be very great as residents of that section did not anticipate a flood and but little time was given for the removal of livestock. Thousands of acres of sugar cane in Averilles, St. Martin, St. Dandry and Iberia parishes have either been flooded or will be within the next two days by the water from Bayou Glaises and the Red river through the break in the levee near Hamburg, now about 900 feet wide.
 Reports from the affected area today stated the water had reached and inundated the towns of Moreauville and Placheville and is gradually rising around the town of Melville which is expected to go under early tomorrow. At the present rate it is estimated Palmetto will be inundated by Friday.
 The flood at Melville was reported rising at the rate of six inches an hour.
