ONE HUNDRED PERSONS PERISH WHEN STEAMERS COLLIDE

Number of Americans Were Aboard the Steamers and Some of Those Reported as Among the Missing. Brest, France, May 21.—Nearly 100 persons perished last night when the Peninsular and Oriental line steamer Egypt sank off the Island of Ushant after a collision with the French freight steamer Seine.

The Egypt sailed from London for Bombay Friday with 44 passengers and a crew of 200. A roll call on board the Seine after the disaster showed that at least 15 of the passengers and 80 of the crew of the Egypt were missing.

The collision occurred during a dense fog within 23 miles of the Armen lighthouse. The dinner gong was about to be sounded on board the Egypt, many of the passengers and most of the crew were on deck. The shock threw several persons into the sea; others jumped and a number went down with the ship, which sank in 20 minutes. The Egypt was rammed amidship on the port side.

The Seine, badly damaged, reached Brest today with 29 rescued passengers, more than 200 of the crew, and the bodies of 20 dead. The captain of the Egypt is among the saved.

When the collision occurred there was a rolling sea, some of those rescued charge that the Indian sailors on board the Egypt took to the lifeboats immediately the vessels crashed, so that a large number of the passengers and crew had to shift for themselves.

Those who jumped into the sea and who could swim scrambled about for bits of wreckage to which they might cling. Many of these were rescued. They floated about in the fog after the Egypt went down, calling for help. The sound of their voices directed members of the crew of the Seine in small boats who were patrolling the sea, picking up both living and dead.

In some instances the rescue crews came upon persons clinging to bits of debris who let go and sank just as aid for them was at hand. The small boats on numerous occasions sought vainly in the fog to locate persons lifting cries of distress through the fog. Among the known missing are the doctor and chief engineer of the Egypt.

The Egypt was a vessel of 8,000 tons. The Seine was bound for Havre when the disaster occurred.

Captain Le Barzic, of the Seine, in describing the disaster, said:

"I was at my post on the upper bridge Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, 15 miles from Armen light. The sea was calm, with a slight swell. The fog was very dense; was listening for fog horns and proceeding at the slow speed of five knots.

"In less time than it takes to tell a great steamer emerged from the fog. It struck my ship and tore away the forward works and moved on at great speed. I immediately ordered our engines reversed.

"I saw nothing further. But then began to hear cries of horror that told me of a catastrophe. I went in search of the stricken vessel in the fog and darkness. I found her in twenty minutes.

"She lay on her port side, ready to turn over. Water was pouring into a long, deep tear in her side plates. Cries and wails of despair were to be heard coming from the steamer. Passengers were seen running about on the decks, as the steamer was about to go under.

"I saw a man throw himself into the sea with two little children in his arms. The ship-wrecked people in the sea clung to floating debris. I had all my lifeboats lowered. It was particularly perilous work, for we were on the main path of vessels going from the open sea to the English channel. I stayed at the scene of the wreck until 20 minutes after 11 o'clock Saturday night."

London, May 21.—Two American women, Mrs. M. L. Sibley and Miss V. M. Boyer, were on board the steamer Egypt and are missing, according to the Peninsular and Oriental line officials here. Their home addresses are not known to the company.

R. F. Evans, another American, was saved.

It was said late tonight that there might be more survivors of the disaster since the steamer Cap Iracon was nine miles away at the time of the collision and hurried to the spot and may have picked up some of those in the water who were missed by the small boats of the Seine.

It was also learned late tonight that the Seine brought in four bodies and that the tugs Vaillante and Canoniere landed 22.

RULES OF CONTEST

1. Contest closes June 20, 1922, and all answers must be mailed on or before that day, though it is not necessary that they reach the Advertiser office on that day.
2. Contest is open to everybody, whether they live in or outside of Laurens county. Employees of this paper or anyone connected with the Advertiser however are barred from participating.
3. Answers should be written on only one side of the paper. Write your name and address plainly at the head of your lists. If you write of anything else, use a separate sheet of paper.
4. Only English words found in the dictionary can be used. Obsolete and foreign meaning words will not be counted.
5. The same object can be named but once. This does not preclude however the naming of an object which is a part of another object.
6. Only such compound words which by long usage have become, and in the dictionary are given, as one word, can be used. Hyphenated words and words that appear in the dictionary as two words are not to be considered.
7. The word may be given in the singular or plural form but if the one is used the other cannot be.

8. The first prize will be awarded to the contestant whose answer has the largest and nearest correct list of objects found in the picture which begin with the letter "B", second prize to the next nearest correct, etc. Neatness and penmanship will not be taken into consideration, but every contestant should be careful about the spelling so that no mistake will be made.
9. Only one prize will be awarded to members of the same household, or to any group outside of the family who may have co-operated in the answering of this puzzle.
10. The judges will be three well known citizens of this community having no connection with the Advertiser and will be selected for their fitness for such a task. The award of prizes as determined by these judges will be final and each contestant agrees to abide by their decision.
11. In arriving at this decision the judges will allow one point for each correct word. A margin of 15 incorrect words will be granted to each contestant to allow for a possible legitimate difference of opinion; but each incorrect word above that number will count one against.
12. If two contestants tie for first place the first and second prizes will be divided between the two pro rata according to their class. The next highest will receive the third prize, etc. If three tie for the first place, the first, second and third prizes will be divided between the three in same manner, etc., etc.
