Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I found after one bottle of Cardui I was improving," adds Mrs. Crosswhite. "Six bottles of Cardui and . . . I was cured, yes, I can say they were a God-send to me. I believe I would have died, had it not been for Cardui." Cardui has been found beneficial in many thousands of other cases of womanly troubles. If you feel the need of a good, strengthening tonic, why not try Cardui? It may be just what you need.

BONUS MEASURE LEADS TO HOT SENATE FIGHT

Democrats Attack Reported Republican Compromise to Side-Track Bill for Tariff on Monday.

Washington, June 17.—The soldiers' bonus fight broke unexpectedly in the senate today when democratic senators attacked the reported compromise of republican leaders not to call up the measure next Monday but to have it follow the tariff bill. For two hours the party leaders clashed but with no effect except for additional indications that the republican plan would prevail. Open declarations, however, that an effort would be made in any event to call up the bill next week and the situation was further complicated by failure of the senate today to dispose of the naval bill which went over until Monday largely because of today's protracted discussion of the bonus.

The senate fray followed conferences between President Harding and republican leaders at which the president was assured that Monday's conference of the republican senators would result in holding the tariff between the senate but with a declaration the bonus bill should be passed before congress adjourns.

That the president would sign the bill if passed and that it undoubtedly would be passed before adjournment was stated during the senate debate by Chairman McCumber, of the senate finance committee in charge of both the tariff and bonus measures.

The senate debate was enlivened by a charge from Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, that an "honest majority" of the senate was not behind the bonus bill and that a group of senators professing to favor it were "ducking and dodging" and seeking to avoid going on record. Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona, who initiated the discussion demanded early action on the bonus measure and predicted its defeat if it should not be put ahead of the tariff.

Congress would adjourn after disposing of the tariff bill, said senator Ashurst.

Senator McCumber was asked pointblank by Senator Ashurst whether he intended to carry out his plan announced June 8 to call up the bonus bill and lay aside temporarily the tariff measure within ten days of so. Interruptions of other senators prevented Senator McCumber from replying immediately but later Senator McCumber in a lengthy statement in behalf of the bonus said he would be content if the republican conference Monday would renew definitely what he said was the pledge of the party in power to pass the bill before adjournment.

"We'll understand Monday and definitely," said Senator McCumber, pounding his desk with his fist, whether we're going to keep faith. I believe that we will. It is my duty to put the tariff bill through. It also is my duty to see that this other bill (the bonus) goes through and I intend to see to it that they do go through and there will be no adjournment of this session until they do go through."

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, said the republican conference decision did not bind individual senators and that he had not attended the conference which declared for passage of the bonus measure.

Senator McCumber said rumors were current that some democratic senators intended to filibuster against the bonus bill in order to declare the tariff measure if the bonus should be put ahead, but Senator Ashurst denied that any filibuster would be attempted.

Concluding the senate fray, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, said it was time to "be honest and frank." Pointing out that the bonus question has been before congress three years with two bills reported out, Senator Walsh said there was a minority in favor of the bill, a majority against it and another group of senators "who are dodging and ducking against going on record."

"The soldiers will know who are their friends," Senator Walsh warned.

And it came to pass that a stranger, entering the gates of Jerusalem, saw gathered there before the palace of Solomon the King, a multitude of women who spoke not but held their peace, yea, silently and with much shooting with their finger tips to their lips did they hold their peace.

So he accosted a wayfarer and asked of him: "Say, buddy, what's all that jam of women lined up in front of Sol's palace for? Suffrage pee-rade or something?"

And the wayfarer answered and said: "No chance guy. That's the King's wives waitin' for him to drop asleep so's they can go through his clothes."

Not even USCO ever touched this value before
30 x 3 1/2 - $10.90

WHEN you look at a 30 x 3 1/2 USCO at $10.90 think back for a minute as far as you can remember USCO.

Since last fall when USCO established the $10.90 price range they have recognized it as a value beyond any possible comparison.

A still greater money's worth than even USCO itself had reached before.

30 x 3 1/2 USCO $10.90

The truth is that men have always found USCO an outstanding money's worth no matter what its price.

Today at $10.90 USCO maintains its established standard of quality.

And because of the new price, it sets a new index of tire value.

Men who have used USCO have never been inclined to measure its value by the general run of tires.

There's No Mystery About Gasoline

The good-will and reputation for making dependable products which this company has among the great motoring public has taken years to build up and is today its greatest asset.

If two refiners had the same equipment and access to the same supply of crude oil they could both make good gasoline IF they both had the same amount of skill. But the fact remains that there are wide variations in the gasoline sold today, just as there are good, bad and indifferent clothes, bakers' pies and automobile tires.

Your motor will run on most any gasoline. It has been demonstrated that a balanced fuel will run it better and more economically than gasoline that is haphazard.

"Standard" is carefully refined to give a balanced, well-rounded performance in your motor. It has light, intermediate and heavy constituents that always insure quick starting, full power and maximum mileage.

To get the best results from "Standard" Gasoline use Polarine Oil—a right grade for every car.
