Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is simply Iron and Quinine suspended in syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs QUININE to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. Destroys Malarial germs and Grip germs by its Strengthening, Invigorating Effect. 60c.

CRAZED HUSBAND CLUBS WIFE TO DEATH; CLEARED

Returns Home Unexpectedly to Find Paramour in Home; Wife Taunts Him.

Madera, Cal., Oct. 23.—George T. Harlow, who early yesterday clubbed his wife to death and was exonerated by a coroner's jury, which returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide," told the authorities his story of his wife's death.

He is held in the Madera county jail while District Attorney Mason A. Dailley determines what action to take. In another cell in the same jail is H. C. Blanchard, a youth charged by Harlow with being in his home when he returned from work unexpectedly at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Blanchard is held partly for his own safety and partly while authorities determine if any action will be brought against him.

Harlow, according to the story he told the coroner's jury, composed of neighbors at North Fork, where he lived, returned home unexpectedly because he was ill and in the darkened bedroom came upon the sleeping form of Blanchard, who fled while he went to the front of the house for a shotgun.

The gun was discharged accidentally, Harlow told the authorities, and Mrs. Harlow was not shot. Harlow said his wife taunted him, admitting her relations with the youth, and then he struck her, smashing the gun stock.

As she turned and fled, he followed, belaboring her with the barrel of the gun until she fell at his feet.

"I did not mean to kill her. I just realized that something terrible had happened and I went mad," he declared.

"She stood in front of me when I asked 'How long has this been going on?' I became blind with rage when she smiled and said, 'Long enough; how do you like it?'"

Harlow then returned to the home and found portions of the clothing left behind by the youth when he fled. He slashed them with a large knife and was wrecking the furniture and dismantling the house when neighbors took him into custody.

The dead woman was 18 years old and the mother of a 3-year-old child. She and Harlow, who is 30, were married when she was 14 years old.

LANFORD NEWS

Lanford, Oct. 23.—The Rural School Improvement association had a very interesting program Friday afternoon. Some of the patrons met early enough to observe the work in some of the class rooms and are satisfied that the faculty is doing some very efficient work. The program of their literary society was carried out in an original way which made the meeting interesting and will prove valuable training in after years for these pupils. They handled the debate and other discussions in very satisfactory manner. Mrs. W. D. Patterson was chairman of committee.

Mr. J. R. Patterson and family went to Fountain Inn Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. James Adams, whose death occurred at his home at an early hour Saturday morning.

Mr. Carl Cooper and family, of Union, Mr. Oscar Hames and family, Mr. Bobo, of Laurens, and Mr. Wesley Bobo and family, of Enoree, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Prince, last Sunday.

Little Lois Harlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harlan, was very seriously ill last week with diphtheria, but is improving now.

Mr. John B. Harmon, of Laurens, was a visitor here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Owings, of Woodruff, and Mrs. W. L. Hammett, of Enoree, were guests of Mr. W. A. Thomas last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Stroup, of Columbia, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson.

Mr. P. A. Thomas and family, of Spartanburg, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. J. R. Franks.

Mr. B. W. Johnson and family, of Arcadia, spent a few hours Sunday with relatives and friends.

Messrs. J. W. Lanford, Mel Fleming and H. M. Johnson will leave Tuesday morning to spend a few days in the city of Columbia, with their soldier boy companions and to enjoy the old soldiers reunion.

There will be a Halloween entertainment at the school house Friday evening, October 27th. The school children will have appropriate exercises and ice cream, home made candy, peanuts and pop corn besides numerous stunts for all to enjoy.

WHEN THE METEOR SHOOTS

Across the dark bosom of the sky its brightness is only momentary, but the brilliantly luminous lustre of the Crepe Meteor which COLLINS' DEPARTMENT STORE sells for $2.95 is permanent, fadeless and faultless; even a wash with Octagon cannot change the brilliant beauty of its lustre.

SHALL THEY MEET

beyond the river where the serges cease to roll?" Irving said fiction is truth made beautiful, so here is a little foolishness not altogether fictional for the perusal of the school tots:

THE ROYAL OAK, it was the tree,
That saved his Royal Majesty.

His Young Majesty's feelings possibly flowed through his eyes while climbing the Royal Oak in the cold, as the old farmer had no Union Suits to lend him like the warm, fleeced, bleached, white kind that Collin's Department Store sells for so much less. Boys' Union Suits of all ages.
