

PAUL HAYNE IS DYING.

STRICKEN WITH APPOXY AT HIS HOME AT COBBE HILL.

The First Attack Occurred Several Weeks Ago—Physicians Now Have no Hope of His Recovery.

MACON, July 5.—The melancholy news reached this city this evening from Cobb Hill, Columbia County, that Paul M. Hayne, the South's beloved poet, lies at death's door with little or no chance of recovery.

It will be hard for the people of the South to realize how close they are to an irreparable loss, and hopes will rise in every heart and prayers that the shadow of death through a dispensation superior to man's judgment may be lifted from Cobb Hill.

We cannot believe that Paul Hayne's work is finished. May he be spared to illustrate still the virtues of a noble mind and the genius of the South.

It will be hard for the people of the South to realize how close they are to an irreparable loss, and hopes will rise in every heart and prayers that the shadow of death through a dispensation superior to man's judgment may be lifted from Cobb Hill.

It will be hard for the people of the South to realize how close they are to an irreparable loss, and hopes will rise in every heart and prayers that the shadow of death through a dispensation superior to man's judgment may be lifted from Cobb Hill.

It will be hard for the people of the South to realize how close they are to an irreparable loss, and hopes will rise in every heart and prayers that the shadow of death through a dispensation superior to man's judgment may be lifted from Cobb Hill.

It will be hard for the people of the South to realize how close they are to an irreparable loss, and hopes will rise in every heart and prayers that the shadow of death through a dispensation superior to man's judgment may be lifted from Cobb Hill.

THE ELECTION SO FAR UNFAVORABLE TO GLADSTONE.

LONDON, July 5.—The following Parliamentary candidates have been rejected without opposition: W. J. Lano, (Parnellite), Cork; C. C. O'Connell, (Parnellite), Limerick; D. Crilly, (Parnellite), Mayo; John O'Connor, (Parnellite), Tipperary; John Hooper, (Parnellite), Cork; T. Sexton, (Parnellite), Sligo; John B. Redmond, (Parnellite), Wexford; J. P. Kelly, (Parnellite), Kerry; M. Harris, (Parnellite), Galway; J. Cox, (Parnellite), Clare; Dr. C. Tanner, (Parnellite), Cork.

In Northampton, Bradlaugh and Bradlaugh, Gladstonians, were elected over the Unionist, Liberal, Conservative, and other candidates who had polled more votes than at the last election.

Up to 10 o'clock to-night the totals of members elected were 155 Conservatives, 30 Unionists, 53 Gladstonians and 29 Parnellites. The Conservatives have gained seventeen seats, the Unionists one seat and the Gladstonians nine seats. The Tories unexpectedly won in South Lincolnshire, where the Gladstonian candidate, who was expected to succeed, failed to qualify.

During a fracas at a polling station in the St. Stephen's Green division of Dublin, Messrs. Dudgeon, James and Sullivan, solicitors and agents of the Conservative candidate, were ejected by the sheriff's orders. Dudgeon will sue the sheriff for assault.

Gladstone has written a letter, in which he says it is impossible for British legislation to proceed until the Irish question is settled.

Yesterday's Gains and Losses. LONDON, July 5.—To-day the Tories gained Central Glasgow, Bromwich, Central Finsbury, East Hull, Chelsea, and Hermsdoy. The Unionists gained the St. Rollox Division of Glasgow and Hermsdoy, and Gladstonians gained the St. Rollox division of Glasgow and Hermsdoy, and Gladstonians gained East Finsbury and Blackfriars division of Glasgow.

The Unionists have made a net gain of fourteen seats. Messrs. Shaw and Stanfield (Gladstonians) have been elected at Halifax by large majorities. The Tradesmen division of Glasgow Mr. Corbett, (Unionist), who was a member of the late Parliament, has held his ground despite the vigorous fight made by his opponents.

Sir Charles Dilke, Gladstonian, has been defeated at Chelsea by Whitmore, Conservative. The vote stood 4,301 to 4,123. The news of Sir Charles's defeat caused a sensation. In many constituencies where Gladstone candidates have been returned the majorities were reduced fully 1,000.

The returns received since 10 P. M. show the election of four Non-Conservatives, one Unionist and four Gladstonians. Sir Charles Russell, attorney-general, has been elected in South Hackney by one hundred majority. At the last election his majority was 912.

THE STATES' NOBLEST WORK.

SUCCESSFUL COMMENCEMENT OF EXERCISES AT OGDEN SPRINGS.

The Grand Record of the Work Done at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

SPARTANBURG, July 1.—Spartanburg has the privilege of reporting on the commencement of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. The orator pronounced the oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

After a recess of two hours, the remaining members of the senior class delivered addresses as follows: "The School's Reward," B. G. Peoples, "Unrequited Queens," W. B. Sloan, Fayetteville, Tenn., "Worshipers of Authors," W. C. Bell, Greenville, S. C.

The young men acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the faculty of the college and of their immediate friends and they entertained and instructed a highly cultivated audience.

The address was closed by the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Dr. Grier. This was done in a most impressive and interesting manner. The oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

After a recess of two hours, the remaining members of the senior class delivered addresses as follows: "The School's Reward," B. G. Peoples, "Unrequited Queens," W. B. Sloan, Fayetteville, Tenn., "Worshipers of Authors," W. C. Bell, Greenville, S. C.

The young men acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the faculty of the college and of their immediate friends and they entertained and instructed a highly cultivated audience.

The address was closed by the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Dr. Grier. This was done in a most impressive and interesting manner. The oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

THE DAY ON THE DIAMOND.

CHARLES TOWN WALKS OFF WITH TWO MORNING GAMES FROM AUGUSTA.

An Immense Crowd Present both in the Morning and Afternoon—Over Six Thousand People at the Park—The Ladies Out in Full Force—A Regular Boom for the National Game.

The Charleston Augustus defeated a series of championship games was completed Monday. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

Charles Town walks off with two morning games from Augusta. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

Charles Town walks off with two morning games from Augusta. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

Charles Town walks off with two morning games from Augusta. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

Charles Town walks off with two morning games from Augusta. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

Charles Town walks off with two morning games from Augusta. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

Charles Town walks off with two morning games from Augusta. The first game took place in the forenoon and was played in the presence of a large audience, in which there were many ladies. It was a piping hot day, and this fact, together with the glare of the sun, was accounted for many of the errors that were chalked up against the players, some of which were made by the best players in the team.

THE STATES' NOBLEST WORK.

SUCCESSFUL COMMENCEMENT OF EXERCISES AT OGDEN SPRINGS.

The Grand Record of the Work Done at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

SPARTANBURG, July 1.—Spartanburg has the privilege of reporting on the commencement of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. The orator pronounced the oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

After a recess of two hours, the remaining members of the senior class delivered addresses as follows: "The School's Reward," B. G. Peoples, "Unrequited Queens," W. B. Sloan, Fayetteville, Tenn., "Worshipers of Authors," W. C. Bell, Greenville, S. C.

The young men acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the faculty of the college and of their immediate friends and they entertained and instructed a highly cultivated audience.

The address was closed by the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Dr. Grier. This was done in a most impressive and interesting manner. The oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

After a recess of two hours, the remaining members of the senior class delivered addresses as follows: "The School's Reward," B. G. Peoples, "Unrequited Queens," W. B. Sloan, Fayetteville, Tenn., "Worshipers of Authors," W. C. Bell, Greenville, S. C.

The young men acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the faculty of the college and of their immediate friends and they entertained and instructed a highly cultivated audience.

The address was closed by the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Dr. Grier. This was done in a most impressive and interesting manner. The oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

THE STATES' NOBLEST WORK.

SUCCESSFUL COMMENCEMENT OF EXERCISES AT OGDEN SPRINGS.

The Grand Record of the Work Done at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

SPARTANBURG, July 1.—Spartanburg has the privilege of reporting on the commencement of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. The orator pronounced the oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

After a recess of two hours, the remaining members of the senior class delivered addresses as follows: "The School's Reward," B. G. Peoples, "Unrequited Queens," W. B. Sloan, Fayetteville, Tenn., "Worshipers of Authors," W. C. Bell, Greenville, S. C.

The young men acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the faculty of the college and of their immediate friends and they entertained and instructed a highly cultivated audience.

The address was closed by the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Dr. Grier. This was done in a most impressive and interesting manner. The oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.

After a recess of two hours, the remaining members of the senior class delivered addresses as follows: "The School's Reward," B. G. Peoples, "Unrequited Queens," W. B. Sloan, Fayetteville, Tenn., "Worshipers of Authors," W. C. Bell, Greenville, S. C.

The young men acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the faculty of the college and of their immediate friends and they entertained and instructed a highly cultivated audience.

The address was closed by the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Dr. Grier. This was done in a most impressive and interesting manner. The oration pronounced to-day was equal to that of 1853, and by some regarded as the finest of the great orators to be heard in any part of the State.