The new Act allows the Circuit Judge, at the July term, to hear and determine all causes that do not require the intervention of a jury.

A Fatal Accident. This morning at Capt. Jas. V. McFall, our Clerk of Court, was coming down town, when at the steps at the corner of his lot he slipped and fell on the stones of the steps and broke what is commonly known as the small neck bone of the thigh. Dr. Mayer was sent for and gave him all the relief possible. He was resting as well as possible the last account. We hope to be able to report in our next issue that the injury is not so great as it now appears.

Whiling the Happy Hours Away.

Among the festivities of the Christmas holidays none contributed more to the enjoyment of the young people of the city than the "Calico Ball" given by the Mistletoe Dancing Club at the Crowell Hotel on Wednesday evening, December 29th, 1886, and the supper in the hotel building prepared by mine host Blease. Those who were so fortunate as to be present speak of the supper in the very highest terms of praise. We are indebted to two of the ladies present for a description of the costumes and the names of those present, which we would give but for want of time and space after it was furnished. Among those present were: Mrs. H. Brooks, Mrs. Raven Mathews, Mrs. H. Samuels, Mrs. Scholtz, Mrs. Robert Lyons, Mrs. Mazzyk, Mrs. E. M. Evans, and Misses Alma Werber, Mamie Holbrook, Helen Wardlaw, Cornelia Coppock, Iula Jones, Leah Foot, Annie Meggett, Laura and Clara Blease, Mathie and Sue Mazzyk, Kattie Mazzyk, Fannie Wardlaw, the Misses Simmons, Talu Garmany, Helen Hodges, Carrie Izlar and Miss Murchison. The gentlemen were: Messrs. D. A. P. Jordan, Lambert W. Jones, Drs. Gilder and Belcher, John B. Jones, Jack Chappell, Ed. Scholtz, Albert Lyons, E. M. and H. I. Evans, J. W. M. Simmons, J. P. Fant, Clarence Hunter, James Kennerly, S. A. Ewins, T. W. Smith, Mordecai Foot, S. J. McCaughrin and Douglass Davenport. The costumes were splendidly gotten up, and from the description furnished us we without comparison as they were all good and we think that we might give the young ladies too much the advantage of the young men to specify. Suffice it to say that all were pleased and wish for another occasion with such pleasures attending it.

On Friday evening there was an impromptu German at the NEWBERRY HOTEL, where a small company, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Evans, Misses Carrie Izlar, Emma Hale, Annie Murchison, Cornelia Coppock, Laura and Clara Blease, Helen Wardlaw and Iula Jones and Messrs. S. J. McCaughrin, I. W. and J. B. Jones, T. D. Lake, S. A. Ewins, J. P. Fant, Jack Chappell, Dr. Belcher and Mr. James Kennerly danced until the old year had passed away and welcomed the new. We witnessed a portion of the German, which was led by Mr. S. J. McCaughrin and Mrs. E. M. Evans, and would have been present at the Crowell Hotel but for an unwelcome invitation to partake of "printer's pie" at the office about the same hour.

The Fall of a Promising Young Man.

One of the on dits of our thriving sister city Prosperity, during the month of November last was the talk of the approaching marriage of Mr. J. T. Johnson, a favorite clerk in the employ of the firm of Wheeler & Mosely, and one of Prosperity's most charming young ladies. About the first of December, just before the day fixed for the marriage, Johnson left Prosperity, leaving a letter stating that as he was without the means to support a wife he had decided to go away, or in words the substance of the above, and not until his arrest at Palatka, Fla., was anything positively known of his whereabouts. We find in the Augusta Chronicle of the 31st ult.:

"HAVE MY MAN."—The following telegram explains itself: PALATKA, Fla.—Newt Heggie, Augusta, Ga. Have caught my man. Leave for home to-night. J. T. Johnson is the thief; he sold the horse and buggy to a man at Folkston, Charlton county, Ga. E. A. HEGGIE.

And in the Chronicle of the 1st instant: Some weeks ago an intelligent looking, well dressed young fellow called at the stable of Heggie Bros., and hired a horse and buggy, stating that he had to visit a certain point in South Carolina as quickly as possible. Nothing much was thought of his return until the time named for his return had come and gone. A painful period of waiting and watching for the return, it was finally realized that a robbery had been perpetrated. The Heggie Bros., however, did not retire and mourn their loss, but, with noticeable enterprise and determination, began at once a thorough system of search for the runaway. Their efforts, as was anticipated, were successful, the entire outfit was secured. The thief's name is Johnson, his home being at Yorkville, S. C. He sold the horse and buggy at Folkston, Ga., for $100 and when captured at Palatka, Fla., had only $50 left. When questioned as to what had impelled him to commit the deed, he said he was about to get into a difficulty at home, which caused him to leave there, and that on arriving in August he had seen and stole the horse and buggy to make good his escape. In explanation of "the trouble" at home, Johnson stated that he was engaged to be married and desired to break it off. On being questioned as to what point of destination he was making for, he replied that he left for no particular point, wishing only to get as far away from home as possible. Johnson is now in the custody of Mr. Heggie at his room and developments are anxiously awaited.

We regret to have to give this information to our readers about a young man so well connected and who, we have been informed, stood well in the store where he clerked, but as a news-furisher it falls to our lot to present the dark as well as the bright side of life. Let this serve a warning to the young men of our county.

The Cold Wave.

The signal service predicted a cold wave on Friday evening, the 31st ult. On Saturday it began to grow cold. On Saturday night it began to freeze. Sunday morning the thermometer registered 18 degrees above zero, on Monday morning 12 and Tuesday morning 10 above zero. The weather predictions for South Carolina on Tuesday morning were: Fair-warmer. It has been suggested that Lieut. Greeley has been to reach the North pole to make suitable weather predictions for the South. The first message sent out by him was: "holst cold weather signals; the thermometer will fall fifteen to twenty degrees within the next 24 to 36 hours." The signal service on Wednesday morning predicted snow or rain. It began sleeting at 7 a. m. and snowing at 10 o'clock, which is falling rapidly as we go to press.

A Well Deserved Promotion.

Some six weeks ago our friend Geo. P. Meredith, who had been one of the pioneer conductors on the C. & G. R. R. for the past two and half years, was suspended for having neglected to send the orders required by the company to the office at Columbia in regard to his train, which was delayed at the 34 mile post until 11 o'clock at night. Capt. E. S. Motte was appointed to fill the position temporarily, which appointment has recently been made permanent. We congratulate Capt. Motte on his promotion. Capt. Meredith was suspended for thirty days and is now conductor on the freight, made vacant by Capt. Motte.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Salt, Druggist, Rippon, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has helped in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Welby, Ind., affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 year experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the value is unmarred that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Coffey & Lyons' Drug Store. 7-21-11.

Children Starving to Death.

On account of their inability to digest food, will find a most marvellous food and remedy in Scott's Emulsion. Very palatable and easily digested. Dr. S. W. O'NEALL DOTS.

"Life is a strange avenue of trees and flowers."

Christmas has passed. Its hours are on file in the Great Record. In some homes orange blossoms have been wreathed; in others the mournful crypress has been bedewed with tears. As we travel on and vacantly gaze into the great unknown what joy it brings the soul to realize that "God knows best."

We mourn to-day over our loved ones who would not come to earth again, and though the dispensations of Providence seem dark, Christ still says: "What I do thou knowest not, but thou shalt know hereafter."

Rev. Huggins has been called to another field. He carries with him the love of old Bethel. Rev. Elkin will serve as pastor for this year. He will receive a cordial welcome.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Bosche's German Syrup within a few years has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles. 10-20-11-a-cow.

Raise your Horses, Mules and Cows at Home.

With so many available crops, supplemented by an unlimited supply of cotton seed and a mild, genial climate super-added, why should not Southern farmers raise more stock? Why should a mule or a horse ever be brought from the north side of the Ohio river? Why should hundreds of tons of butter and oleomargarine from the North be sold in the South every year? Why work ourselves to raise cotton to buy horses, mules, bacon, flour, lard meal, glucose or starch syrup when every one of these except the glucose, which can be supplanted by sorghum syrup, can be raised at home without the slightest difficulty? Why play into the hands of middlemen, railroads, banks, speculators, etc., to say nothing of the dependence upon the unsteady, unreliable laborers in our midst? You say cotton is always salable, always brings cash. So does first-class butter, so does a good mule or horse. Jersey butter finds ready sale simply because it is good butter. The owners of such stock make better in a business-like way; they have good milk-houses and proper arrangements for cooling and keeping milk; water power or some other mechanical device for churning. They do not lose patience in cool weather and pour hot water in the churns; they know that slow churning makes the most and the best butter. They know that large feeds of cotton seed spoil butter, and they feed something else. If all of our farmers handled their milk and butter in like manner, Northern butter would soon be driven out of the market. In the olden time, the little surplus butter on our farms was regarded as a trifle, and little attention given it. Hence, we have fallen into careless ways and methods—let us change them. Let every farmer arrange to make butter for market—handle it properly, make its quality good and its appearance attractive and he will always find ready sale at good prices.—Southern Cultivator for December.

Some years ago my mother's health began to decline; nervous prostration ensued. She had no relief for food and without strength of course she could not walk without experiencing a great fatigue. We used the ordinary remedies, but without any permanent results. Stimulants would refresh for the time being, but did not build up the system. We heard of Swift's Specific and its tonic effects. We secured several packages of the dry form—the powdered roots and herbs—and after using some half dozen packages my mother has regained her health and strength. She is more like her former self than she has been for years. She owes her present vigorous health to Swift's Specific. It is the best tonic I ever heard of.
