The Coate's Property. The Messrs. Folk of Edgeland are here examining the records in the clerk's office with a view to bringing suit against the town for the possession of certain property which it is claimed was leased by Mr. Coate to the use of the public years ago. The heirs think that these leases have about expired. Mr. Coate owned nearly all of the property on which the town of Newberry now stands, but we think these leases were never made.

To the Ladies Only. This article is intended only for the "good housewife." The gentlemen are related to the other side of the paper; we will care for the indulgence later. The other half, better known as the worst half, always indulges the anticipation of good desserts at the homestead. But when poor flavoring extracts and spices hitting to the palate, the good housewife is often disappointed. The best remedy for this is to use the best quality of these, don't call at Pelham's drug store, you can get the best there however.

The Newberry Mineral Well. A short while ago Col. C. H. Suber had a well bored on his plantation two miles south of town, the water of which is proven to possess mineral properties of valuable character. No analysis of this water has yet been made, but we understand that Col. Suber will send some of it either to the S. A. Johnson at a distance of Washington or to the Agricultural Department at Columbia for analysis. Certain it is that the water possesses remedial properties. Some of the persons using it say that its effects are similar to those of the water of Glen Springs. One case of dyspepsia has been relieved by drinking it, and cases of dyspepsia have been much benefited.

We were glad to note a general increased interest in different departments of the work, and are pleasantly encouraged to render to our people a just and full account of our undertakings.

One and all of our contributors are invited to examine our work carefully and critically, and see for themselves the way in which the means entrusted to us have been expended.

We need the active interest of more of our young men in our work. Your contributions of pecuniary aid are not all that is needed of you. If given alone, your gift may, like the fruit of a tree in the east, fall so heavily as to injure those for whose benefit it may be given. Come and bring it! and bring with it a warm grasp of the hand, and a cheerful greeting; and leave with it your prayer that it may do good! Make yourself sociable, and help us in making our rooms attractive to all.

Now is the time to prepare your ground for an early garden and buy Buist fresh Garden Seed from Robertson's Drug Store, opposite the Post Office.

Everyone should see Wright & J. W. Coppock's Underwear before purchasing. It is as comfortable as ornamentation. This is saying much, but 'tis true.

The Snow. On last Thursday we had one of the heaviest snows that has been known to fall in this section in years. It began snowing in the morning about ten o'clock and snowed continuously until some time after night. For some time in the morning it melted as fast as it fell, but on Friday the snow measured on a level from six to eight inches. All day Friday young people seemed to have a good deal of fun snowballing each other. No serious accidents resulted in Newberry further than two or three black eyes.

Helena Heraldings. Mrs. Sledge, nee Miss Hattie Pitts, of Taylorville, N. C., is on a visit to her parents.

Rev. James W. Wolling, Methodist Missionary to Brazil, will be here the first of next week. He is a nephew of Mr. Jas. O. Meredith and Mrs. C. W. Bishop.

Captain Fielding has a new and elegantly finished and furnished coach, and he will soon have a handsome second-class car, which will make the Laurens passenger train second to none elsewhere. The Laurens railway will soon be first-class in every particular. The O'Leary's is worthy of a large patronage, for it has always kept the country open, and supplied the "missing link." Its engineers are careful and skillful "runners" and its conductor is polite, prudent, patient and without firm, and for these reasons, popular.

We, in company with the rest of mankind here and elsewhere, and particularly at Newberry, enjoyed last Thursday's snow storm and the sights and sounds incident thereto. We were pleased to see the preacher pelting and being pelted in a merry party of snow-balls. The fun was innocent and exhilarating. We wish we could have caught, by some subtle process, the transitory thoughts of the "tiny tots," as they peeped for the first time from the window at the flying flakes or watched with wondering eyes their first snow scene. A leaden sky, a "white earth" and every object white as white could be, must have been a "mirration" of strange surprises, to infant eyes. Older ones conjured up the most beautiful as well as the most weird and fantastic shapes. Fence posts were covered with turban and ice-cakes; while from the trees and upon the shrubbery everything from phantoms to feathery-garlands, wreaths, festoons, streamers, banners, etc. Nature, guided by the mighty and mysterious Hand that moves the matchless machinery of its phenomenal play, works upon a gigantic scale—whether it be to lift the planets into perihelion, and shake "the eternal hills," or to cover the earth with a baptismal robe of immaculate snow.

SAXS SOCIETY. The man having played off several jokes on his neighbors about their turkeys. The story got out that he had given his gobler away and now he kills every turkey he finds on his place.

The abutment of the bridge over Little River at J. F. Burton's place is in bad condition, if the county commissioners will have the matter attended to at once the bridge will be all right. It is dangerous to ride over and some led horses have had a fall. No other damage to the bridges of the township that I have heard of.

Roads are again in a miserable condition but no fault to the overseers or county commissioners. The overseers are doing what they can to put the roads in good condition, but the rain and snow called a halt, but the overseers are rallying their forces for another battle this week and say they will put the roads in good condition or work the full 12 days as required by law.

Wright & J. W. Coppock have got a big stock, and they are going to sell it or give it away. Mark this.

PROSPERITY LETTER.

The new road law seems to be working well, and meets with general favor. The roads are being worked much better, more generally than heretofore. The greatest trouble is that they are worked in the rainy wet season, instead of dry weather—say after the crops are "laid by."

Farmers are busy, when they can work, preparing lands and other farm work preparatory to putting in another crop. The old custom of hauling away from town immense quantities of commercial fertilizers has already begun. Strange that there is such rush for it in the Spring and in the Fall when it is to be paid for, there is a curse for it.

The movement of cotton for the past week has somewhat spirited for the season and fair prices have been realized. Since our last report 275 bales have been sold, making a total to date 4,901 bales. We quote middlings at 9¢.

Mr. Fed. Calmes, some time since made a raid on the firm of Wise Bros., by which they were deprived of their milliner. These enterprising young gentlemen were not thus to be outwitted, but they immediately set to work and have secured the services of Miss Edith Fall of Baltimore. Miss Fall will have charge of both the millinery and fancy goods departments. She purchased the stock of millinery in person, and as she is a professional, the ladies may expect not only the very latest styles, but the most tasteful and fashionable work. Miss Fall is now at her post of duty, and with her winning ways and pleasantness must soon win a host of lady friends. We wish her the success she merits.

Snow-storms and broken arms and legs usually travel very close together. During the past week, Mrs. J. C. Koon, of the Smokey Town Section, fell and broke her arm near the wrist. Mark M. Mills in a playful tussle had the misfortune of having a bone in one leg, near ankle broken. Mr. Adam W. Monts and a party of friends were scaffolding upon which they were standing gave away and precipitated the whole party about twelve feet to the ground, injuring them all more or less. Mr. Monts, being the oldest, and falling on the steps, was severely injured, having one arm broken near the shoulder, and probably a rib or two. Old bones, especially, are very crisp in cold weather.

Last Sunday the Rev. Marks preached a Thanksgiving sermon from Neh. 12: 40. This sermon had been announced for some time but owing to the inclement Sundays, was postponed from time to time. It was a special thanksgiving service for the success which crowned the efforts for the Christmas offering by the congregation of Grace Church, which offering finally reached to the amount of $1007.70. To give even a synopsis of this sermon would require too much space in a letter of this character, even if we were able to do so.

The heaviest fall of snow that we remember ever seeing in this State except, perhaps in the winter of '61-'62, fell last Thursday. The actual fall was about 16 inches. It commenced about 9 a. m., and continued incessantly for about 12 hours, and at times it was so dense as to be almost blinding. The small boy and the large one too, had a real jollification snow-balling.

YUBE. SLEEPLESS NIGHTS, made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you.

ST. LUKE'S. All efforts to improve nature by painting are vain. Who does not admire Mother Earth wrapped in her rich mantle of snow? an emblem of peace and purity. Certainly, we have not seen a more perfect piece of nature's work than we observed last Friday, February 22nd, 1889. Truly, nature was extravagant in her decorations for Washington's birthday; a day that should be appropriately celebrated by every true American.

Our people are preparing to use fertilizers. It seems to us that every one must know the nature of his soil before he can use commercial fertilizers to any great advantage. We naturally conclude that what is best for clay lands is not adopted to sandy soil.

"The inventive genius of America knows no bounds." St. Luke's can boast. Mr. D. L. Ham has added greatly to the project on of hilly land by inventing a machine with which to terrace.

Mr. James Lester, has invented a cotton stalk crusher, which enables the farmer to utilize the old stalk and saves time and labor.

We look forward with bright anticipations to the time when St. Luke's settlement will take the agricultural lead in our county. Nothing eventful has transpired to disturb our equilibrium.

Farm work entirely suspended. Wind, rain, hail, thunder and lightning on Sunday and Monday and the worst snow storm on Thursday that has visited this county since 1852 or 1853.

The man having played off several jokes on his neighbors about their turkeys. The story got out that he had given his gobler away and now he kills every turkey he finds on his place.

For The Herald and News. How to Foretell the Weather.

By observing the following rules any one north of 15° North Latitude can tell for hundreds of miles around how the wind and weather are progressing:

1. When the temperature falls suddenly there is a storm forming South of you.

2. When the temperature rises rapidly there is a storm forming North of you.

3. The wind always blows from a region of fair weather towards a region where a storm is forming.

4. Cirrus clouds always move from a region where a storm is progressing towards a region of fair weather.

5. Cumulus clouds always make from a region of fair weather towards a region where a storm is forming.

6. When cirrus clouds are moving rapidly from the North or Northwest there will be rain in less than twenty-four hours, no matter how cold the weather may be.

7. When cirrus clouds are moving rapidly from the South or Southwest, there will be a cold rain storm if in summer, and if in winter a snow storm.

8. The wind always blows in a circle around a storm, and if it blows from the North, the heaviest rain is East of you; and if it blows from the South, the heaviest rain is West; and if it blows from the East, the heaviest rain is South; and if it blows from the West, the heaviest rain is North of you.

9. The wind never blows unless rain or snow is falling in 1,000 miles in the direction to which the wind is blowing.

OCCASIONAL. NEWBERRY, S. C., Feb. 22nd, '89.

McCabe & Young's Minstrels. Owing to the fact the Amphitheatre was not large enough to accommodate the rush of people to see McCabe & Young's minstrels, the Princess Theatre was secured last night by Mr. Paris. The rush for tickets was immense, and the Princess was crowded, there being about two thousand persons present, notwithstanding the threatening weather.

The minstrel company is composed entirely of colored men, but their singing and acting put them on a par with any company on the road. To judge from the applause and laughter that seldom ceased during the entire performance, they give thorough satisfaction. In every thing undertaken they did first-class work. In chorus, solo and quartette singing they are strong, and the words of the voices are excellent. The jokes are new, fresh and sparkling with humor. In every thing noticeable as novel nationalities in language and manner. There are several other new features that were well rendered, and the company may be said to have "caught on" Mobile.—Mobile, Ala. Register, Oct. 28.
