ELBERT H. AULL, EDITOR.

W. F. HOUSEAL, Proprietors.

NEWBERRY, S. C.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1889.

In his foreign appointments President Harrison has been very mindful of the editors.

Mr. Whitelaw Reid, of the New York Tribune, Minister to France, Mr. John C. New, of the Indianapolis Journal, as Consul General at London, Mr. Thordyke Rice, of the North American Review, as Minister to St. Petersburg, Mr. John Hicks of the Oshkosh Northwestern, Minister to Peru, and Mr. Murat Hosteiz of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, Minister to Berlin.

The Greenville News of recent date spoke what it termed some plain words to Greenville. There is much truth in what our contemporary says and it is well said, and it might be well for Newberry to ponder the truths therein contained, hence we desire to give prominence to the article.

"Everybody is standing back waiting for somebody else to move. Every now and then a few energetic men start something and go to work, and they find cold water dashed into their faces every corner until they are chilled into paralysis."

"That kind of thing will not do. If we are to build a city here and keep it moving we must move. Talk will not do anything and neither will money locked in the banks and waiting for six per cent. bonds at par, or eight per cent. mortgages on real estate. Neither will we accomplish any results by abusing rich men because they do not rush forward to assume every burden or waiting for Northern capital to come in and do our work for us."

"We need to pull together and work together, high and low, rich and poor, to encourage the home manufactures we have to do what we can to bring others here by personal effort, liberal treatment and giving what financial aid we can."

"No town can stand still. We must move one way or the other. If we do not go forward we will slip backward, and when we do begin that, there will be a falling in real estate and rents which will make us sick. The torpor of self-satisfaction is as bad as the torpor of despair. The men who said a few years ago 'Greenville is done' did no more harm than the men who say now 'Greenville is all right' while doing nothing to keep her all right."

"We have room and need here for a dozen smaller manufacturing enterprises, every one of which could be organized and put to work with a total capital of $50,000. They would add probably $150,000 a year to the trade of the city and a thousand good people to the population."

"We ought to start some of them if we propose to keep up with the procession."

The Senate has refused to confirm the appointment of Mr. Halstead. We cannot say that we have any special admiration for Mr. Halstead, but if his nomination is rejected because he made himself personally unpleasant to some Senators it seems to us a small reason for his rejection.

The United States Senate adjourned Tuesday.

The Republicans are having a family row in South Carolina, or rather there seems to be a hand to hand fight between the straight-out Republicans and those styling themselves independent Republicans. There have been several meetings and resolutions and committees, all hunting offices. The independents are Republicans only when there are some good offices to be distributed. We confess that we have more respect for the man who sticks to his colors amidst defeat as well as victory than the man who is there only when there is something to be gained for himself.

The annual report of the treasurer of the town council is published in to-day's issue. The finances of the town seem to be in a healthy condition near $1,200 being now in the treasury. There is only one more fire bond to be paid of $750 and the fire department now has left over nearly $500 almost enough to pay it.

The amount realized from street duty has been larger the past year than the year previous.

On the whole the report makes a good showing. The Opera House bonds remain the same, but when we get rid of the special fire tax we can increase our tax to retire some of these bonds.

THE DIVIDED DIOCESE. Colored Clergymen to be Admitted to the Episcopal Convention and Colored Laymen, these colored clergymen will be admitted to the convention, but no lay delegates. A prominent vestryman of St. Mark's, the aristocratic colored church here, said to-day that the terms will not be accepted. "We will not secede from the church," said he, "because we are in the church and propose to stay there. We shall simply wait and if we are barred out of the Diocesan Convention we will carry the case to the General Convention." As to whether St. Mark's would continue to pay its contribution to the Diocesan Convention he was not prepared to express an opinion. The question promises to be burning one at the coming convention. At the convention of 1887 most of the lay delegates from thirty churches and several city clergymen left the hall and have not attended a convention since. The situation viewed from a canonical point of view is serious.

THE STRAIGHTOUTS SCARED.

Harrison to Take Care of the Carolina Independents.

[Special to the News and Courier.] GREENVILLE, March 29.—It appears that open war upon the alleged independent party in this State is to be waged by the straight-out Republicans on the line of Senator Miller's recent remark to Mr. H. Bryce, the somewhat conspicuous Oconee County Republican, reached here to-day on his way from Washington, and issued a call for a mass meeting of straight-out Republicans, to be held at Wallalla, on Monday, for the purpose of denouncing the so-called Independents and appealing to President Harrison not to recognize them in the distribution of Federal aid in the State.

It was decided before that statement that President Harrison intimated that a day or two ago to a party of South Carolina Republicans whom he was hearing on the subject of State appointments that he proposed to take care of the Independents in the distribution of places in South Carolina. It seems that the Bryce, Bryanton and Tolbert crowd have taken fright at this and are seeking to bring condemnation upon the Independents.

A PARTIAL CONFIRMATION OF THE GREENVILLE STORY. WASHINGTON, March 29.—C. C. Levey is the latest addition to the cabinet of South Carolina Republicans temporarily located in Washington awaiting recognition by the Harrison Administration. Mr. Levey is a candidate for the postmastership at Camden, and accompanied by Ex-Congressman Small was called at the post office department yesterday and placed his papers on file. He has a rival in W. E. Boykin, of Maysville. Mr. Levey charges that Boykin formerly resided in Camden, but has been away from there a number of years. Hence he is not entitled to consideration.

Mr. Small and his friends are not very well pleased with the present outlook so far as South Carolina patronage is concerned.

THE INDEPENDENT TRIMMINGS. Hendrix McLane, J. B. Hyde, and Mr. Corley, of Lexington, Va., it is said, assumed to speak for South Carolina Republicans in the distribution of spoils. These three men, it is claimed, have established headquarters in this city and are waiting to persuade the Administration to make any recommendation they may make will be satisfactory to the rank and file of Republicans in the State. Small, Bryce, and Tolbert deny the right of McLane and Company to dictate South Carolina appointments. No other faction has received a crumb of comfort as yet, but all hands have out their drag nets.

CRUMBS IN THE SOUTH. The President has finally recognized the Republican element in the South, and among his list of prizes awarded to-day Georgia and Kentucky were remembered. The selection of Wm. L. Scruggs and Leon A. Donnell, of Georgia, the former as minister to Venezuela, and the other as United States district attorney for the Northern district of the State, are said to be due to the influence of A. E. Buck and his friends.

LONGSTREET LEFT. Gen. Longstreet and his followers are somewhat cast down, as they failed to get the slightest encouragement from the President.

SATISFIED WITH ANYTHING. Wm. O. Bradley, of Kentucky, who aspired to the Vice Presidency on the ticket of the late President, and was nominated by an appointment as consul to Corea. It is quite a big come down, but Mr. Bradley and his friends appear happy, and to-night they are celebrating the event at the Ebbitt House.

THE WHOOP AT WALLALLA. Old Time Republicans Rally Against McLane. [Special to the Greenville News.] SENeca, April 1.—The meeting called by County Chairman Bryce to-day was attended by about three hundred people, including about fifteen white men. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Bryce in the colored school house and L. C. Abernathy was elected secretary. Mr. Bryce stated that the speakers who were expected had failed to come and that the meeting was called for the purpose of burying the Democratic party face downward and for denouncing the independent-whip party which under the lead of Hendrix McLane and W. W. Russell had recently appeared on the scene as seekers for Federal appointments in this State under the new administration. C. A. Walker, County Chairman of Abbeville, who had attended the meeting in the interest of R. T. Tolbert as a candidate for United States Marshal, made a long speech denouncing McLane and Russell.

Weaver Jenkins, a one eyed negro from Pickens County, gave a description of the recent meeting at the Court House, where McLane and others spoke. He said the party had no following in his county. The resolutions adopted endorsed Bryce for district attorney and Webster for collector; denounced McLane, Russell and their followers, and Willard, who is aspiring as District Attorney. The meeting recommended Malone, of Virginia, and Fahnestock, of this county, to the favor of the party and recommended the removal of A. J. Folger, of Pickens, as county chairman.

The meeting was quiet and orderly but showed disposition to promote personal interests. The delegates came principally from Oconee County, S. C. BRYCE'S GRAND RALLY—HE DOES NOT AMOUNT TO MUCH. [News and Courier.] SENeca, April 1.—The grand mass meeting called at Wallalla to-day was attended by about three hundred of the nearest white negroes, and about twenty white negroes present. The meeting was held in the colored school house, which did not hold the crowd. Mr. H. Bryce, the leading up-country South Carolina Republican, was chairman and L. C. Abernathy of Wallalla acted as secretary. Speeches were delivered by A. M. Waifer, colored, chairman of Abbeville County; Warren Jenkins, of Pickens, and John R. Tolbert, Jr., of Abbeville. Waifer and Tolbert sought to present the claims of Tolbert's father for marshal, but they failed signally, as the meeting endorsed no one except Bryce for district attorney and Webster for collector.

The meeting denounced McLane and Walker Russell and all other members of the Greenback-Whip party as uncompromising terms. Other resolutions recommending the removal of County Chairman Folger of Pickens and recommending Bob Small to any office were also carried unanimously. Bryce seems to want some office, but what it is is not known, but it is supposed to be a deputy collectorship. He is said to be endorsing Bryce and Webster in order to obtain their support.

SMALLS GOES IT ALONE. WASHINGTON, April 1.—Small announces that he does not propose to play second fiddle to the self-constituted Independent Commission on Railroads, and in making his fight for the collectorship at Beaufort he will depend upon his own experience and influence to pull him through. He called at the treasury department to-day, accompanied by Mr. Bryant of Wallalla and Deas, and filed some additional papers in his own behalf.

ALLEGED SOUTH CAROLINIANS AT THE WHITE HOUSE. [Special to News and Courier.] WASHINGTON, April 2.—The South Carolina Republicans who still recognize E. M. Bryanton as their leader met at the White House to-day and laid their claims for a recognition before the President. It is true they received no intimation as to what course the Administration proposes to pursue in dealing with South Carolina appointments, but they had the satisfaction of explaining to the President from the Secretary of the Navy, Washington D. C. A hurricane occurred at Apia on March 15. Every vessel in the harbor on shore except the English gun-boat of the Trenton and the Vandalla are total losses. The Nipsic is beached with her rudder gone; she may be towed, but the chances are against it. I will send her to Auckland if possible.

DISASTER IN SAMOA.

The American and German Fleets Destroyed.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The following cable message was received at the Navy Department this morning: AUCKLAND, March 30, 1889.—To the Secretary of the Navy, Washington D. C.: A hurricane occurred at Apia on March 15. Every vessel in the harbor on shore except the English gun-boat of the Trenton and the Vandalla are total losses. The Nipsic is beached with her rudder gone; she may be towed, but the chances are against it. I will send her to Auckland if possible.

It is important to send 300 men home at once. Shall I charter a steamer? I can charter in Auckland. Lieutenant Wilson will remain in Auckland to obey your orders.

THE HARBOR OF APIA. Capt. Selridge, U. S. N., was found at the Navy Department this morning poring over a chart of the harbor of Apia, which he visited several years ago. He said that while it was a very good harbor, the best on the island of Upolu. Like all the Pacific island harbors, that of Apia is formed by a coral reef encircling the island at a short distance from shore. The anchorage space available for men-of-war is contracted by being about 1,000 feet from the shore, and the entrance is narrow. The depth of water ranges from four to eight fathoms, pretty deep water being found close in shore, which would enable a ship to get close in. Hurricanes or cyclones blowing from the southwest, and revolving in the harbor tend to force vessels on the rugged reefs or rough shores. The last hurricane occurred at Apia just six years ago. Fortunately, no men-of-war were in the harbor, but many native houses were destroyed and palm trees uprooted.

It is the opinion of Admiral Harmon, who is also familiar with the Samoa harbor, that the storm which he saw was driven ashore on trecked, houses were destroyed and palm trees uprooted.

DOUBLE WEDLOCK. A Gentle Formally Embraces the Jewish Faith and is Re-Married Yesterday. [Register, 2nd.] Yesterday was quite an important day in the life of Mr. A. McCarthy, formerly of this city; who, as will doubtless be remembered by many, about a year ago was united in marriage to Miss Camille, daughter of Mr. S. Peixotto, by a Christian clergyman of this city, without the knowledge of the young lady's parents.

Last evening, at the residence of Mr. Peixotto, on Laurel street, Mr. McCarthy was re-married to Miss Peixotto's daughter. Previously, at 1 p. m., yesterday, Mr. McCarthy, desirous of embracing the faith of his wife, a Jewess, was properly, lawfully and religiously "put into the Covenant" at the hands of the Rev. B. Ruben of Charleston, and in the presence of Dr. F. D. Kendall of this city.

The re-marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Ruben in the presence of Mr. H. Steel and Mr. Wm. Brill both of this city, at 5 o'clock p. m., the family and interested parties being participating. The new convert henceforth will bear the patriarchal name of "Abraham."

A Georgia Man Attempts to Kill His Family and Himself. CHATTANOOGA, April 1.—James C. Calhoun, a tinner, prominent in business, religious and social circles at Dalton, Ga., attempted to kill his family and himself yesterday. He procured a hatchet and a bottle of muriatic acid, and when he struck his wife, striking her three blows about the head and shoulders with the hatchet. He then struck his invalid daughter, cutting off her ear. He started for his little boy, but the latter escaped, and he finally cut his own throat and swallowed an ounce and a half of muriatic acid and zinc. Calhoun and his wife will probably die. The daughter will recover. It is supposed that he had suddenly gone insane over financial matters.

A LETTER FROM STANLEY. He was Well and in Good Spirits on September 4, 1888. LONDON, April 1.—A private letter has been received from Henry M. Stanley. It is dated September 4, 1888, and the place at which it was written, as far as can be made out, is St. Mure. Stanley says he is in good health and spirits, and left Emin Pasha well.

Through the letter received by Mr. De Witt from Henry M. Stanley, it is learned that Stanley and his fellow explorers met with great difficulty and experienced many hardships before reaching Nyanza. In addition to many obstacles presented by the dense forest through which they had to pass, the party suffered from want of food. Emin Bey met him at one period of the march and remained with him during twenty-six days.

Dr. McDow's Color and Driver to be Released on Bail. [Special to the Register.] CHARLESTON, April 1.—Moses Johnson, the negro driver for Dr. McDow and who was presented by the Governor's jury as an accessory to the murder of St. Mure, yesterday was released before Judge Witherspoon to-day on a writ of habeas corpus. The court directed his release on bail in the sum of $1,500. Johnson was not yet furnished with a civil service commission. He is now in a day or two. The jury brought him in as an accessory before the fact, but the foreman subsequently published a card stating that the jury meant accessory after the fact.

THE BOND SIGNED. (Charleston World, 3d.) The bond was signed yesterday afternoon by Bishop Stevens, Rev. L. A. Dawson and Solomon Johnson, the father of the defendant. The bond was duly approved by the clerk of the court, and yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock Moses bade farewell to prison life, at least for a time, and went on his way rejoicing.

Wanamaker Favors Prohibition. PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—Postmaster General Wanamaker made his first public utterance to-day on the question of high license and prohibition. He declared in favor of the constitutional amendment and exhorted eight hundred persons who listened to his words to work, pray and vote for it.

THE MINES AT BLACKSBURG.

Facts Regarding one of the State's Greatest and Quickest Enterprises—New Officers and Recent Operations. [Register, 2nd.] The inmates of an Entire Household Made Dangerous—Prompt Measures Relieved the Afflicted. [Register, 2nd.] The inmates of the boarding house of Mrs. S. A. Rowan, 150 East Blanding street, yesterday a variety of buttermilk at dinner, and by night every one of them was suffering more or less from typhoid poisoning.

The buttermilk was right fresh, being from Mrs. Rowan's churning of the very day, and for some reason or other something about the condition of the milk caused the distressing consequences noted.

The symptoms were alike in all affected, including terrible griping pains, nausea, etc., but varied in severity with different individuals. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon were among those made most seriously ill, the former in particular suffering intensely.

Dr. F. D. Kendall was summoned and took such prompt and judicious steps that in a short time all the sufferers were made more comfortable, and at last accounts none were in a dangerous condition but Mr. Vernon, who, though improved, is still in a rather critical condition.

A Female College at Spartanburg. [Register, 2nd.] A declaration was yesterday filed with the Secretary of State, and a commission issued thereon, for the incorporation of the Converse College Company of Spartanburg. The capital stock is to be $25,000, divided into 1,000 shares of the par value $25 each, and the objects of the proposed company are "the establishment and maintenance of a school or school for white persons only in the city of Spartanburg."

The incorporators, all of whom are residents of Spartanburg County, are: L. P. Walker, D. E. Converse, Geo. Coffield, D. R. Duncan, W. E. Burnett, W. A. Law, Wm. H. S. Manning, D. S. Hydrick, E. Bacon, H. E. Heintzsch, S. B. Jones, Jr., and John E. Brown.

Very little corn has been planted in this section as yet. The fruit trees are full of bloom. A good crop of fruit is predicted. Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Boyd, of Prosperity, paid a brief visit to this vicinity last week. School getting on nicely. Some few visitors attended the exercises on Friday evening. Monday was sabbath at Newberry, but very few of our farmers put in their appearance at the city.

Owing to the abundance of rain the farmers in this section are considerably behind with the plow. Some of our farmers have commenced putting down fertilizers. Mr. James Crosson, who has been attending the Technical department of Newberry College, has completed his course and returned home. Mrs. Wm. M. Werts, of Saluda, is on a visit to relatives in this neighborhood. Misses Betta and Carrie Cook, accompanied by Misses Alice and Sallie Long, of Mt. Pilgrim section, spent Saturday with relatives in this community.

One of our young men when he goes to Prosperity returns with a sweet smile on his face and a pretty bouquet on his coat. What is the meaning? Wait and see. The feather renovator has canvassed this community blowing up the bells. The farmers in this section have taken a great deal of pains this spring in terracing and building breast works in order to prevent their lands from washing. This is certainly the right move, for if land is worth cultivating it is worth saving. Mrs. Adam Hartman, who accidentally fell and broke her thigh, is doing as well as could be expected. STOMA.

DISEASED BLOOD. Hamors, Blisters, Sores, Scabs, Crusts, and Loss of Hair Cure. Terrible Blood Poison. Suffered all a man could suffer and live. Face and body covered with awful sores. Used the Cuticura Remedies ten weeks and was completely cured. A remarkable case. I contracted a terrible blood-poisoning a year ago. I doctored with two good physicians, neither of whom did me any good. I had a man come and tell me of a medicine called CUTICURA REMEDIES. I concluded to try them, knowing if they did me no good I would never use them again. I have been using them about ten weeks, and am good as well as I can be. I have had two months of relief, and my face and body are free of sores that covered my face and body. My face was a bad, if not worse, than that of a man who has been in the hospital. I would say to any one in the same condition, CUTICURA REMEDIES are the only cure. You may see this letter in the interests of suffering humanity. E. W. REYNOLDS, Ashland, Ohio.

Covered with Running Sores 17 years. I have been troubled with a skin and scalp disease for seventeen years. My head at times was a running sore, and my body was covered with them as long as a half dollar. I had a great many remedies, but without effect, until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I feel that I am entirely cured. I feel it my duty to you and the public to state the above case. I am now in good health. Dug and Scratched 38 years. I got Mr. Dennis Downing ten years better. I have been scratched for thirty-eight years. I had what is termed pruritis, and have suffered everything, and tried a number of doctors, but got no relief. I have been able to get $500 had they cured me. The CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me. God bless them who have cured me. I feel that I am entirely cured. CHENEY GREEN, Cambridge, Mass.
