A GOOD SCHEME.

NEWBERRY, S. C,

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1890

The scheme proposed in the Board of Trade meeting, on Monday night, to organize a Land Improvement and Investment Company in Newberry County, is a good one. The matter has been talked of for some time by some of the leading business men of Newberry and Prosperity, and we trust now that it may take some definite tion of general counsel for South Caro-shape. The idea seems to be to form a shape. The idea seems to be to form a company with sufficient capital to buy up unimproved land that may be offered for sale, and to improve the same and cut it in small farms and sell it to our people, or others who may desire to settle among us, on such terms and such time as they can afford of Greenville, and Major D. R. Dunt) pay, and at such interest that they can be able to pay for it. In this way our people can become owners of their burg, Union and Columbia Railroads homes and not merely tenants for large as their special charge respectively. land owners. There can be little doubt | GEORGIA SAYS BENET IS THE MAN. that many of our farmers are land poor anyway. It is also the idea of this enterprise to make the shares of this proposed company small enough and payable in such a way that all our people can become owners of the stock in the company and thus become personally interested in the development of our county in its material progress. More than that, the stock, if possible, should be distributed throughout the county so that the people could at least have one enterprise in which they could work together harmoniously for the common good of the whole county. We need above all things for the people | the seat. of the county to be united, for only by united effort can we build up material prosperity within our borders and com- not be chosen mand the respect and confidence of outsiders.

The scheme is a good one and we trust that it will be made successful.

THE WORST YET.

The killing of the negro prisoner in Barnwell last week seems to be a more atrocious outrage than the lynching of the eight negroes in the same county only a few days before.

There is evidently no excuse whatever for the killing of this defenceless negro. Then when he was in the custody of the officer, to be thus cruelly killed while others stood by and gave no assistance to the defenseless, and took no steps to prevent the outrage, does seem to be a shame upon civilization and manhood.

If we are to have courts, those who are charged with crime should be given a fair and impartial trial, and the

It seems in this case that all the parties who took part in the act are known, but little or no efforts were can to secure his election. He certainly made to have them arrested and held has the brain, prestige and every other for the crime they had committed.

We regret to see this tendency towards a disregard for the laws of the State and the indifference manifested in efforts to have the persons who are guilty of such outrages against the peace and dignity of the State brought to account for their acts.

We need a public sentiment that will condemn, in terms not to be mistaken or misunderstood, such acts of violence, and that will demand in all cases of violation of law, that the offenders be made responsible for their

The County Teachers' Association of Greenville has invited the State Teachers' Association to hold its summer meeting in the city of Greenville the coming summer. How would it do for the teachers of Newberry County at their meeting on Saturday to invite them to hold their meeting in Newberry the coming summer? It would be quite an advantage to Newberry to have the educators of the State to come and spend a week or two with us, and we feel quite sure that Newberry could furnish ample entertainment for this

We feel quite sure the teachers would receive a warm welcome here. Then, too, it will be just before the opening of our graded schools and could but awaken a deeper interest in education in our town and county.

THE THIRD DISTRICT.

What Some Newspapers Have to say of Judge Cothran's Resignation and His Prospective Successors.

Occasionally we see in the papers something in regard to the Third Congressional District and the various candidates who are aspirants for Judge Cothran's seat in Congress. It may be of interest to many of our readers to know what others are saying, and hence we quote some of these notices

Letter from Roanoke.

Editor Herald and News:-I suppose life is pretty much the same the world over. In some respects the above is so and in others it is not. But for the present the above will be admitted. 1890 is here, and with it every one settles down to realities and hum drum of life, that of earning daily bread by the sweat of honest toil.

With the new year Roanoke city has put on a great deal of new life. During my absence here and my stay in Prosperity quite a number of changes were made. Imposing stores and bank buildings were finished. SOME FACTS ABOUT THE PRIZE ACRE OF CORN. Capt. Drake, of Marlboro Tells How He

Beat the Record. [Special to Augusta Chronicle.] COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 10 .- The department of agriculture has received from the American Agriculturist a duplicate copy of the report made by Capt. Z. J. Drake, of Mariboro County, relation to his wonderful crop of 254 49-56 bushels of corn from one acre of land. Capt. Draka was a competitor, and will doubtless be the winner in the contest of the $500 in gold offered by The Agriculturist for the largest yield of corn from one acre. To this, if won by a South Carolina planter, the state board of agriculture will add $500 more in gold, and, in any case, will award a prize of $100 to the South Carolina planter raising the largest yield of corn rom one acre, if the great prize is not won by a farmer of this state. Some interesting facts are contained in Capt. Drake's report. The land used was of a sandy character, naturally drained, with a gentle slope and northern ex-The former growth upon the posure. land had been oak, hickory and long leaf pine. The value of the land employed previous to its recent improvement by fertilizers was only $8, and a crop of corn raised upon it a few years back amounted to but five bushels to the acre. Indeed, the plantation of which the acre is a part once bore the name of

THE WITNESSES.

The three witnesses who swear to the accuracy of the account of the harvesting and measuring of the crop are: G. B. W. Dunn and J. W. Reynolds, of Red Hill, and John J. Tant, of Blenhein, S. C. These witnesses saw all the operation of plucking the corn, husking, etc., and they each selected But he is staying in Congress now to an average lot of ears from different keep up the Democratic column and to parts of the field and then weighed out exactly 100 pounds of ears which were then shelled. The result was used at getting an average per 100 pounds for the whole yield of the acre. One 100 pounds of ears produced 801 pounds of kernels and 191 of cobs; another, 82 pounds of kernels and 18 pounds of cobs, and the third lot 831 pounds of kernels and 16} pounds of cobs. This made an average of about 52 pounds of kernels and 10 pounds of cobs to each 100 pounds of ears.

WELL FERTILIZED. Upon the land was used a vast amount of fertilizer, more, indeed, than it seems possible to have been taken up by the growing crop, and, the theory is, a large crop-say 200 bushels of corncould be raised on the same acre next year, with little or no additional fertilizng material being put on.

The crop planted the preceding year was cotton, and the report gives the fertilizers used to produce the corn as follows: Stable manure, 1000 bushels; cotton seed, 600 bushels; manipulated guano, 1066 pounds, cotton seed meal, 8664 pounds; German kainit, 664 pounds. Most of this was broadcasted, the cotton seed being used in the drill only. In addition to the foregoing, 200 pounds acid phosphate, 200 pounds ammoniated bone, and 400 pounds nitrate of soda was used.

EXPENSE AND PROFIT. The financial showing made gives an excess of cost of production over the guilty punished according to their Johnstone, of Newberry, will receive value of product, but allowing for the the nomination. ADDITIONAL TRAINS ON THE C. & G.

Expected to Break Out in a New Place, and More, not Only Through Trains to Cincinnati, but Double Daily and Sunday Local Trains.

[Special to News and Courier.] COLUMBIA, January 12.—The Columoia and Greenville Railroad and its branches traverse a very large section of the most prosperous territory in South Carolina, yet while other rail-roads have doubled and trebled their facilities for travel during the last ten years, this line has jogged along since 1880 on substantially the same old schedule of one regular week-day train each way and none on Sundays. Whenever people have asked why this line did not run Sunday trains they have been vaguely and unofficially informed that there was something in its charter or in the statutes of the State which forbade such a concession to the spirit of progress by this particular road. Other railroads have invaded its territory and reported a double daily passenger schedule every day in the week, but on the Columbia and Greenville's ines there is writ for over fifty days of the year "no thoroughfare." For thirtysix hours every week no passenger, whatever his emergency, can be transported over the Columbia and Greenville Road. The capabilities of the line are not developed. It is not the public convenience it was intended to be, and which the rush of business in 1890 demands that it should be. Is it not time for a change? Some good people may and do object to Sunday trains, but why should all the roads but one run them and that one be kept out of line with the others. If we are to have a strict Sunday law, let it be a general one, without discrimination.

But whatever opinion may exist as to the reason for this long "bottling up" of the Columbia and Greenville on Sundays, it is ascertained that there is no excuse for it in law. Neither in the charter nor in the General Statutes can any prohibition of Sunday passenger trains be found.

New lines, which will run daily trains, are cutting into the territory of the road, and a change will have to be made to meet their competition, and to win for it the legitimate business to which it is entitled. The Bureau hopes that the day is near when passenger trains will be run over the Columbia and Greenville seven days in the week. It not only hopes so, but has reason to believe that in response to the public wish the authorities will inaugurate such a schedule.

More than this. It is understood that the operation of double daily trains each way over the line is under consideration at headquarters, and will probably be determined upon. What a convenience it would be if passengers could leave Charleston at 5 P. M. and reach Greenville early next morning, or leave Greenville late one evening and reach Charleston at 11 o'clock next day. The putting on of trains to connect at Columbia with the Charleston trains arriving here at 10 P. M. and leaving here at 6 A. M. would place the Columbia and Greenville on an equal footing with its competitors, and by greatly facilitating travel correspondingly increase the intercourse and business between the sections. The proposed Charleston, Columbia, Asheville and Cincinnati sleeping car arrangement will be a great thing for through travel. Now let us talk up the local travel and see if we cannot have two passenger trains each way over the Columbia and Greenville every day in the year.

An Endorsement from Abroad

[Columbia Register.]

Governor Richardson has received from C. P. Williams, of Albany, N. Y a letter in reference to the attitude of the Governor and people of South Carolina on the recent lynching at Barnwell which is so sensible and well worded that it is reproduced herewith.

The writer, however, seems in some way to have got the Jessup affair mixed with the murders in Barnwell, which preceded and may be said to have caused the lynching there. The letter is as follows:

ALBANY, Jan. 4, 1890.-Governor Richardson-Dear Sir: I want to express my commendation of the sentiments you are reported by telegraph to have expressed yesterday to the delegation of negroes from Barnwell. Occurrences like the Barnwell massacre naturally impress strangers with the idea of either lax authority or, else of overwhelming public prejudice against the blacks and disregard of their rights and of their lives. It is evident there was provocation in this case in the acts of the negro desperado who seems to have originated the trouble. Bu neither race can be held responsible for the acts of its criminals unless they are approved or the criminals shielded. It must be manifest to all that no society can telerate with impunity crimes like the slaughter of the negroes taken from Barnwell jail without suffering loss of respect of the world at large. It will be reassuring I am certain, all fair-minded lovers of justice that yourself and Senator Hampton take he stand you do-in which I have no doubt the great majority of the good people of your State, of both races, coincide. Very truly yours, C. P. WILLIAMS.
