

The Herald and News.

ONE OF SAM JONES' LECTURES.

Honor and Wisdom on the Subject of Money and Manhood.

I used to sing "I want to be an angel, and with the angels stand." Now I have begun to pray for the matter, and I say "I want to be a man—and with the ladies stand."

I met a grand man once. The longer I stood with him the smaller I got, and the bigger he got. After a while I had to get up and go to have anything to get with.

I have met some little fellows whose eyes were so close together that they could see through a keyhole with both at once.

I do not believe in evolution, of course I don't. I do not believe we sprang from monkeys. But when I see a great many people I believe they are headed that way and that they will get there if they don't stop.

I have a great deal more respect for Nancy Hanks than I have for Sullivan and Corbett. Nancy is a daisy. She can go in 240. God made her so. But two old fop-eared mules can stand up in a lot and do as much as Sullivan and Corbett, knocking the filling out of one another.

I never go to horse races—not because I do not like to see them, but because of the small, scrubby set that is always there.

Some rich men say when you go to them for money for a good cause: "Wait until I get fixed!" Fixed! Fixed! Fixed when you are dead; fixed for the fire; fixed into a back-log for the devil's sitting room!

"Country facts" are a scriptural animal, and you need not be afraid of it. There was an old farmer in North Georgia who said one day: "I am going to save; I am going to lay up; I am not going to be poor when I get old and can't work." And he did save $150,000.

One day a neighbor went to see him on his farm: "Brother, how are you off for meat?" "I have got enough in my smokehouse for this year, and until hog killing next year," he said, "and enough hogs to kill then, and enough pigs to kill the next year, but what I will do after that the Lord only knows."

Then he left the old fellow starving on three years' rations. A dude is a kind of wart on the devil's nose.

You may sow corn and reap corn, but sow fudes and dandies and you will reap one-half a thimble full of calf-foot jelly.

Maj. Black says, "money per capita," but it's "per pockets."

I am afraid that we preachers are affected by money. Of course we don't work for money, but you stop our salaries, and we will quit. Ah, ha!

I believe in decision. You see these fellows who think they will and think they won't, but rather think they won't—tents a dozen like eggs in warm water, and for the same reason. There was a darkey who had a mule, and he said he had to hitch him by tying him to a tree by his tail to keep him from going through his collar.

You get after a great many people and they lay it all on Adam. Poor old Adam!

Adam is too far off. You put two drops of water in the Atlantic ocean, and the poison gets mighty thin when it gets to the other side. Adam is too far. It is our own devilment that is kicking up thunder.

When the devil got Job's wife on his side he got a trump card. A mule kicked a negro on the head, and couldn't put his foot down.

I have got a government job keeping Sam Jones straight. There are a lot of people who like to say other people are soft-headed when they are doing right. They got the impression from their own heads.

I go into some churches where the preacher looks like some big monument and the people look like head stones and I go down among them and I say "Sam Jones, you are among the dead."

Men and money are two antagonistic forces in this country. Men and money are each striving for the mastery with the odds largely in favor of money.

There is nothing sublimer than man. There is nothing more hurtful, more dwindling to manhood than the misuse of money.

David said to Solomon his son, "Be thou strong and acquit thyself a man." Nine-tenths of the people of the country are after money, and the other tenth are after a good time.

I would not give one grand man for all the cotton that was ever raised in the South. You can raise cotton with a negro and a mule, but it is a big job to raise a man in this country.

You say, "Every man has his price." I don't believe that. Selfishness is the meanest thing on earth. Selfishness is the first-born of Avarice.

There is not a good institution or enterprise born of God to do but what is going begging from door to door. Cussia is a very low-down type of a rascal.

Sin is in the blood like a cancer. A man may stop cussing on his tongue, but it will break out on his hand, and he will get to stealing.

He who can eliminate selfishness and avarice from himself, is enabled to stand on top of everything that ever ruined a man.

The grandest manhood and womanhood is that which has forgotten self and is consecrated to the service of others.

There is the stature of a woman in New Orleans. She has her hair combed in the sweet, good old way, down over her temples and she is holding out baskets of fruit and children are crowding around her. She lived working and helping the poor of New Orleans and when she died the bankers and the brokers and the capitalists all came out in front of their offices and stood in the sun with their hats off while the funeral procession of her who was one of the grandest women in America went by.

THIS COUNTRY IS RUNNING ON THE DOLLAR, AND JUST AS CERTAIN AS ROME FELL BECAUSE OF A TOO GREATLY CENTRALIZED MILITARY POWER, SO CERTAIN WILL THE UNITED STATES RUN INTO DESTRUCTION ON SILVER DOLLARS AS WHEELS, UNLESS THE COURSE IS CHANGED.

IT IS NOT HOW MUCH MONEY YOU HAVE, BUT HOW YOU GET IT? AND THEN WHICH IS MOST IMPORTANT, WHAT ARE YOU DOING WITH IT?

A reckless fellow always wants to fight. But a brave man wants a victory. There is a great deal of difference between the two. A dog can get a fight.

I can say dispassionately that my brother Tom Watson in this district seemed at every point to say, "I want to fight." But my brother Black, with no noble courage, seemed to say, "I want a victory." And he got it.

There isn't but one way to do a thing and that is to do it.

I like to see a man map out his course and stick to it and go like the train on the Georgia railroad, which goes on the course mapped out and sticks to it, and has not been to any other town but those on the route since the road has been a road.

The only absolutely unselfish man was Jesus Christ. Of all the acres of land in the world he did not stake off one acre, and say "this is mine."

When a fellow makes up his mind he never gets left.

You may talk about a man being intelligent. I have seen such men fail. But whenever you find him with a will he succeeds.

The will of a man is that which is in command of a man.

I always did have a contempt for one of those fellows who is waiting for an iron to get hot. But I have respect for the fellow who pounds on the iron until it is hot. I always did have a contempt for the fellow who is always waiting for something to turn up, but I have the profoundest respect and admiration for him who turns it up and rolls it to where he wants it.

Get in a hurry. The obstacles will get out of your way.

I like a man who believes in possibilities.

I believe in a hard head and a soft heart.

These wispy-waspy fellows, they don't amount to much.

Brother Timmons is a hard-headed man. He has a big heart. I know him. But he wants to do the right and tries to do the right.

A Short Catechism About the Earth and Other Things.

Of what is the surface of the earth composed? Of corner lots, mighty poor roads, railroad tracks, baseball grounds, cricket fields, skating rinks and Democrats.

What portion of the globe is water? About three fourths. Sometimes they add a little gin and nutmeg to it.

What is a town? A town is a considerable collection of houses and inhabitants, with four or five men who "run the party" and lead money on 15 per cent interest.

What is a city? A city is an incorporated town, with a mayor who believes that the whole world shakes when he happens to fall flat on a crosswalk.

What is commerce? Borrowing $5 for a day or two and dodging the lender for a year or two. Name the different races. Horse, race, boat, bicycle race, and racing around to find a man to endorse your note.

How many classes is mankind divided? Seven—being enlightened, half civilized, savage, too utter, not worth a cent, and Indian agents.

What nations are called enlightened? Those which have the most wars and the worst law and produced the most criminals.

How many motions has the earth? That's according to how you mix your drinks and the way you go home.

What is the earth's axis? The line passing between New York and San Francisco.

What causes day and night? Day is caused by night getting tired out. Night is caused by every body going home to supper.

What is a map? A map is a drawing to show the jury where Smith stood when Jones gave him one under the eye.

What is a mariner's compass? A jug holding four gallons.

Serendipity by 20,000 Swallows.

[From the Baltimore Sun.] The swallow nuisance continues with unabated vigor at the Naval Academy, Annapolis. From 8,000 to 20,000 swallows gather every evening in the five or six maple trees in front of the superintendent's residence and make evening and morning hideous with their cries. All efforts to drive them away have failed, and a bell and gong are kept going at intervals to drive the pests from the two trees next the superintendent's house. Every year from the 15th of July to October this disagreeable rendezvous is maintained by the swallows.

THROUGH ATLANTA.

The Coast Line Connection with the West—An Important Link Completed.

[News and Courier, 2nd.]

The officials of the Atlantic Coast Line Road yesterday received a telegram from the Seaboard Air Line authorities in Atlanta, announcing the completion of the latter road's belt line through that city. The announcement is a most important one to Charleston and her interests. The completion of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern's belt line through Atlanta was the only link wanting in the connection between Charleston and the West over that route. Upon obtaining control of the Columbia, Newberry and Laurens Road last spring and making desirable traffic arrangements with the Seaboard Air Line system, the Atlantic Coast Line system procured for Charleston a new route to the West. Traffic with Atlanta, both passenger and freight, was begun at once. But through traffic over the line to extreme Western points was not extensively engaged in because the Seaboard Air Line Road's belt line through the city of Atlanta was not completed, and there were consequently difficulties which arose from incomplete transfer facilities.

The telegram received from Atlanta yesterday removes this last obstacle, and the Atlantic Coast Line, in conjunction with the Seaboard Air Line system, will enter actively into encouraging through traffic from the West to this city.

It is proposed at an early date not only to place more through trains on this route than are at present operating over it, but to quicken up and in many other ways improve the existing facilities which are offered freight and passenger traffic. It is more than intimated by good authority that the Atlantic Coast Line system, through the medium of its Columbia, Newberry and Laurens branch and its Seaboard Air Line connection, propose to take an active hand in encouraging a heavy freight business to Charleston from the extreme West. It is undisputed that the road will be ready and willing to heartily co-operate with the promoters of schemes looking toward making Charleston a leading seaport for Western products.

Georgia and the World's Fair.

ATLANTA, November 28.—An effort will be made by the Legislative Committee, which has just returned from Chicago, to have the General Assembly appropriate $50,000 toward making a Georgia exhibit at the World's Fair, Gen. Northern, who was of the party, is strongly in favor of such action.
