NEWBERRY, S. C.

WATER.

The little town of Yorkville voted $16,000 of town bonds the other day to establish a system of water works for the town. It was a wise step, but it has only been a short time since the town had a bitter experience in the shape of a big fire. The town has a population of only about 1,600 people. to taxation. There were only seven votes against Wonder what the people of Newberry would say to a proposition to establish water works here? They are needed, but we opine that if there were an immediate prospect of voting any more tax some people would get the nightmare. Some people, no doubt, expect to carry some of their little dollars with them to the other world.

This town needs a stirring up and a good shaking, so as to get the scales from the eyes.

We have a good fire department now, but it would be helpless at a fire without water.

True, if we can always manage to have the fires near one of the holes we have in the ground, and it happens to have plenty of water in it, the department may be able to do good service; but it is impossible to regulate these things. We can't tell where the fire is going to be, nor when it will

We need to go to work and establish a good system of water works for the town.

The Herald and News would be glad to have expressions of opinion on this subject. Let us hear from the kickers as well as from those who want to be on the side of progress.

The Herald and News was the first to agitate the question of Graded Schools for Newberry several years before they were established. At first it fell flat, and some people hooted at the idea. After awhile they came. The Herald and News was forgotten and given no credit for its efforts, but we were satisfied to see that the work was accomplished, even though we were counted out. The men who bear the heat and brunt of the battle are seldom counted for much after the smoke of the battle has cleared away and everybody is in the flush of victory. But The Herald and News wants to see the town keep pace with the march of progress; but we cannot be more than we make ourselves.

If old fogies and grumblers and kickwick, we had better find it out—and this subject, and we append it here: the sooner the better. If we are to keep pace with the rest of mankind and move forward, we had better start -and the sooner the better. A town the size of Newberry, and with the commercial advantages and the capital of one of the best counties in the State, should long ago have had some of the modern conveniences and improvements. We cannot now recall another town in the State, of the size and importance of Newberry, that is without water works and a system of electric lights.

The Herald and News has labored, and labored hard, for Newberry; and in many respects it has been a labor of love, and, we might almost say, of love's labor lost.

But on this subject of water we will be glad to hear from the kickers. Let's settle them first, and then we will be in shape to do something and move forward.

There is talk of the reformers putting up Gov. Tillman next year as the candidate for Governor for a third term and in this respect, too, breaking the Well, there is no serious objection to that. In fact it seems to us that the present administration will have to have several terms yet to carry out the reform ideas of the reform movement. The two terms, which will close next year will have been spent mostly in litigation with no results of any benefit to the people.

And it should be understood if Gov. Tillman is re-elected for a third term that he must not take advantage of his position to have himself elected United States Senator, but he must remain at his post in the executive chair to carry out and put into active operation for the benefit of the people the reform ideas, whatever they are, or may be. It may be that his services will be needed for a fourth, or even a fifth term. When we get a good thing we ought to hold fast to it. This is a serious and an important matter and should not be trifled with. There, are no others among the reformers who want office, and it would be a difficult matter to get a man who could carry forward to a successful termination these reform ideas.

LYNCHINGS.

Lynchings are becoming quite frequent. It is strange that these people will go on committing this same crime when they must know that it means sure and speedy death. The lynching of Peterson in Barnwell was followed by lynchings in Williamsburg, Laurens and Kershaw.

The negroes have been holding meet ngs and passing resolutions looking to the suppression of lynch law. Lynch law is never justifiable, but or certain crimes it is as sure to follow as the perpetrator is captured, and he usually is. It seems to be the unwritten law and is so everywhere. Let white and black all remember this, for the case of personal property of any this unwritten law is no respector of

This advice followed and there will be a stop to lynch law. The speedy hanging of any man is just as sure to follow the commission of the crime for which these negroes have been lynched as night follows day, and the colored people should remember that it is no respector of persons. The white man, or the red man, or the black man who commits the crime for which these negroes were hung will meet the same fate, and his color has nothing to do

The county campaign will not open until after the 3d of June, and will time the reformers will not know for whom they will be permitted to vote. Everything in this day of political liberty and freedom has to be decided by the caueus which is generally run and managed by the leaders. It is virtually saying that the people are incompetent to cast their votes as they should and that matter has to be decided by the caucus. But then it is all right and proper for you know it is reform.

It is just as well, however, and possibly better to have a short campaign.

Cities and Towns Have to Pay Taxes on Certain Classes of Their Property.

The State, 14th.

The Assistant Attorney-General has just rendered a decision which is destined to overthrow all the systems of taxation wherein the personal property of cities and incorporated towns and villages is concerned. Heretofore it has been the custom practiced throughout the State to consider all such property exempt from taxation, and has never been placed upon the State tax books. Under the decision referred to, however, all such property will bereafter be charged upon the tax books just as in

THE FAIR GATES CLOSED.

[Special to New York Press.] CHICAGO, May 14.—Forty thousand people went down to the World's Fair Grounds to-day, but they did not gain admission. From 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. there was an almost continuous stream of wanderers passing down Stony Island avenue and along the whole western extent of the Fair Grounds. Then there was a line of buggies, carriages, tally-ho coaches and other rigs, which contained people who desired to have a glimpse of the Fair buildings over the fence. Buffalo Bill's Show near the grounds reaped a rich harvest. Every seat was occupied and it is estimated that the place contains accommodation for 18,000 people. Prince Roland Bonaparte and a number of friends drove down to the Fair but stopped at the show. Thousands turned from the Fair gates to the "fake" shows and merry go rounds and obtained a little recreation that way. Every fahir flourished while the Fair

Jonathan Havaland, Chief Justice of presidents were elected: Governor W. J. Northern, of Georgia; Joshua Levering, of Maryland; S. H. Ford, of Missouri; W. H. Whitsett, of Kentucky; Lansing Burrows, of Georgia, and O. F. Gregory were elected secretaries. Dr. J. M. Frost, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, extended a welcome to the Convention; Dr. H. M.

McDonald, of Georgia, responded.

A resolution was introduced and passed providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate the question whether in the matter of missions and other work the denomination was employing the best method. A committee was also appointed to report as to the advisability of reducing the representation.

An interesting feature of the mornng session was a talk by Robert J. Burdette, the humorist.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 12.—Dr. T.

T. Faton, of Louisville, chairman of the centennial committee, made a report. He said that Dr. W. D. Howell, of Mexico, had taken the field in the interest of the centennial missionary fund with magnificent results. The most encouraging reports came from Maryland, Alabama, Georgia and Texas. In other States fear that this contribu-tion would interfere with the regular contribution accounts for the comparatively small amounts collected. The report speaks in strong terms of the value and importance of the organ of the board-Our Home Field-as absolutely essential to the efficient prose cution of the work of the board, and urges the continuance of the office of assistant secretary, because "the work of the home mission board cannot be kept at its present magnitude by the labors of a single secretary, much less increased to meet the growing denands.

The report introduces the report of the Woman's Missionary Union, with the strongest commendation of the zeal, wisdom and consecrated tact with which these noble women have done their work.

WHAT WOMEN HAVE DONE. The treasurer's report shows that our Christian women have raised during the year, for the Home Mission Board besides what they have done for foreign missions, the sum of $26.283.97, being an increase of $7,041.44 over the receipts of the previous year.

The report then proceeds to give interesting details, and comments on each department of the work of the board. In Cuba 20 missionaries have supplied 5 churches and 17 stations, baptized 179 converts, and sustained schools with an aggregate attendance of 900 scholars; they report a present aggregate church membership of 2,261, and $3,000 raised on the field to support the work. THE TREASURER'S REPORT. The treasurer's report shows receipts
