We notice in some counties the exact amount of the sales are given out for keeping the business a secret. It is not a private business, but it is a public business in which every citizen is interested and it seems to us he should be entitled to know just what the business was doing.

It is a matter of little concern to us, however, one way or the other. The whole thing seems to have a good deal of secrecy about it. We suppose there D. Chapmau's charge came over will be a report made to the Legislature and then the people can know

MONKEYING WITH UNCLE SAM.

Lawyer Barrett of Spartanburg Arrested for Unlawful Use of the Mails.

[Special to News and Courier.] WASHINGTON, August 6 .- The acquaintances of Capt. C. P. Barrett, a well-known lawyer of Spartanburg, S C., express much surprise at his arrest on the charge of wholesale swindling, as reported this morning in special dispatches from Columbia to Northern papers. Barrett was in Washington not long ago pressing his claims to an appointment as chief clerk in the office of the Assistant Attorney-General. He was also a candidate for the railroad commissioner of his State, and said his chances for getting it were good.

The accounts of his operations state that he induced a number of fourthclass postmasters to order on letter heads bearing their names and official titles from Northern dealers large quantities of merchandise and manufactured articles. Credit was asked and Mr. Barrett given as reference. When sion and sold them for whatever he

In that way are fighting each other bitterly among themselves. Adjutant General Hugh L. Farley, who was one of the bes workers of the reform element, has dissolved with Senator Irby and Governor Tillman, and is already an announced candidate to succeed me in Congress. think he will be elected, in spite of the opposition of Tillman and Irby."

Will Senator Butler be re-elected? "If the election was in the hands of this Legislature he would have no chance; but many things can happen in two years, and I would not be at all surprised to see Gen. Butler returned."
All interest of the delegation now is regarding the places the members will get on the committees. If a chairman ship goes to South Carolina it will fall to Mr. Shell. He was the strongest Crisp man in the delegation. An effort is being made by Maj. Brawley's friends to have him given a chairmanship, but as he was the only one of the delegates who opposed Crisp to the last, it is hardly possible he will take. The new members will be scattered on the ninor committees. Mr. Shell has appointed his son, Frank Shell, to be his clerk. Mr. Shell thinks the next Governor of South Carolina will be either W. D. Evans or James E. Tindal. He does not know whom he will support for the Senate. "I am not ready to commit myself. A year makes a big difference sometimes,"

Appealing from Pope to Pope-Arguments in the Darlington Injunction Case. [Special to Greenville News.] COLUMBIA, S. C., August 7 .- The argument before Justice Pope to revoke his order in the Darlington dispensary case was heard to-day before Justice Pope. C. S. Nettles, for the anti-dispensers, argued that a supersedeas or stay of proceedings, while it would effect orders and judgments, had no effect on an injunction case to abrogate such injunction, but had the effect of keeping the orders under the niunction in statu quo. Mr. Boyd appeared for the dispen-sary people and argued directly opposite to Mr. Nettles, quoting authorities as he did. The authorities quoted will be submitted to Justice Pope and he will render a decision as soon as possi-
