Whitmire Gleanings The first marriage in the new Methodist church here took place last Wed- with an appropriate lesson from the nesday evening at half-past eight, Scriptures and a prayer by the pastor, clock. The contracting parties were Mr. Daniel May, of Monroe, N. C., and Miss Annie Sims of Union County. The church had been beautifully and artistically!decorated with the choicest flowers of the season, and everything presented a beautiful and attractive appearance. At 8.30 o'clock the sweet strains of a beautiful wedding march began to pour forth from the organ which was/presided over by Miss Louise Andrews, of Greenwood, and Mr. Walter Cameron came slowly marching up the aisle, followed by Dr. R. Jeter with Miss Beulah Davis. Then came Mr. John McCarley with Miss Maud Sims, followed by the bride and groom who took their places immediately in front of the chancel, with the attendants on either side, and the Rev. S. T. Blackman, in the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Methodist church made them man and wife.

The groom wore a handsome black Prince-Albert suit, while the bride was attired in a beautiful travelling dress of tan. The groom is from Monroe. N. C., and is the agent for the G. C. & N. Railroad at this place. He is one of our most active and progressive young men, and has made many friends since be came to Whitmire. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. Spencer Sims, of Union County, and has a host of friends who will wish them a happy journey through life. Mr. and Mrs. May left on the midnight vestibule for Washington. The farmers are making good headway toward getting their cotton gathered, but a great many are holding itwaiting for better prices, we suppose. Bachman Chapel Chips. Well, we have concluded that it is about time for us to pick up a few more chips for The Herald and News. For the past six or eight weeks it has been rip-Shealy at our house, as the saying goes, and we have found but ittle or no time to write. The general health of our section is very good, Mr. M. L. Strauss went to Orange-Chapins, was thrown from his mule and instantly killed. He was returning home from Lexington, and he and rents. another man were trying the speed of Mr. Adam Aull has completed his their animals. His companion fired a contract for the rebuilding of the bridge a quick halt and he went on over the Kinard's. The job is said to be a very good one. Mr. A. B. Piester has the contract to rebuild the Quattlebaum bridge across Timmerman's creek. The lumber is laid down, and Mr. Piester will commence work very soon.

Mr. O. S. Stron, who bid off the Hogle bridge contract on the same stream, about two months ago, has at last completed his job. The delay has caused much inconvenience to the traveling public of this section. Miss Polly Kinard, who has spent eight or ten mouths with her sister, Mrs. H. R. Epps, is now visiting Mr. W. B. Boinest's family. We noticed an advertisement in our county papers about a mouth or six weeks ago, stating that all overseers who failed to work their full six days on the public highways and make their returns of the same by the first of Octo-er would be prosecuted. We have been reliably informed that there are some overseers who have neither worked their full time nor made their returns, and still there is no one prosecuted yet, as we can hear of. What effect will your next adverdisement to overseers have, Commissioners?

It seems as though this has become almost the centre of mad dogs. On Saturday night the 14th instant, a mad dog passed through this section and fought with Mr. S. J. Kinard's fine bird-dog: just in two weeks' time the dog went mad and Mr. Kinard had him killed. The first dog in question, on its rounds, fought with the dogs of Messrs. J. P. and T. D. Kinard, and on last Saturday one of Mr. J. P. Kinard's dogs went mad. : It was immediately killed. At last accounts Mr. T. D. Kinard's dogs are "all right," but as there is no special time for hydro-phobia to manifest itself, we do not know whether they escaped the infection or not. Of the two bitten dogs which went mad, one showed his mad-

Missionary Meeting at Trinity.

The ladies of the Missionary Auxiliary at Trinity Methodist church held an all day's meeting last Saturday, which was both interesting and profitable to those present.

Services began with a sermon from the pastor, Rev. W. L. Wait, from Matt. 20: 6, in which he discussed woman's especial part in the duty of evan gelizing the world.

After the sermon the congregation adjourned to a grove and partook of a bounteous repast which had; been prepared by the Trinity ladies in their best style.

best style. The programme for the afternoon afforded a rich, intellectual and spiritual treat to those who were so fortunate as to be present. It would be invidious to make distinctions where all did so well. The meeting was opened which was followed by this programme:
"Missionary Greeting"—Recitation by Miss Clara Senn. "Responsive Reading"—Conducted by Mrs. M. J. Waldrop and Mrs. J. G.

Senn. "The Voice of thy Brother's Blood"-Recitation by Miss Theresa Longshore.
"Missionary Hymn"—Song and Recitation by Misses Lissa Wooten, Mamie Longshore, Ola Martin, and Ida

Hendrix. "The Heathen Woman's Prayer."-Recitation by Miss Lillian Martin. "Floral Lessons"—Recitation by Misses Ola Pitts, Carrie Reagin, Mary Hendrix, Maggie Martin, Alice Wooten and Jessie Senn. "Home to Mother in Heaven"-Solo, sung by Miss Jennie Wait Foster.

Address-by Mrs. E. S. Herbert,
Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference Woman's Missionary Society. "Mrs. Purdy's Perquisites"—Reading by Mrs. W. L. Wait.
"Kingdom Coming"—Song and Recitation by Misses Kate Hendrix, Mamie Hendrix and Hethie Longshore.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live bet-ter than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidnevs. Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
