Bachman Chapel and Union Academy

After rolling and tumbling with the fever for the past several days, we are not in very good fix for picking up chips, therefore they will be somewhat limited this week. But we are now on the mend and we acknowledge our sincere thanks and praise, unto whom praise is due. There is and has been any amount of s:ekness in this section for the past six weeks; scarcely a house has escaped, but we are glad to state up to this writing, that there has been none of a very serious nature. Rev. J. D. Bowles closed a series of meetings at Bachman chapel on Tuesday, the 17th inst. Rev. Bowles failed to secure help from his ministerial brethren, but he made every one of his sermons so edifying and full of interest that we do not think any one who attended felt the least disappointed: there was a deep interest manifested throughout and we trust that a lasting blessing will follow this series of meet-

The boll worm has damaged the cotton crop a good deal throughout this section, but we think that the recent dry, hot weather, while it has been injurious to the extent of causing the plant to shed, has been beneficial in stopping the ravages of the worm. A great many people seem to be somewhat alarmed at what we must call another Haskell movement, springing up in the Democratic ranks; but so long as there are men among the conservatives who show that they love white supremacy above everything else, as George B. Cromer, The Herald big business, while this popular drum-mer is on his rounds. Don't mistake his old home in Laurens, where he will and News and several others have negro is in the wood-pile, he will be or the most critical perious in the which we campaign: not a single thing did he try to keep hid from the people, and since his defeat he has shown that he would rather fall with an honest purpose than to rise carrying water on both shoulders. Capt. Banks has been a staunch Reformer ever since the movement has been on foot, and he has always stood to the front in the hottest of the fight like a stonewall. He has not only been true to the Reform Movement, but as an Alliance man he has been chosen lecturer of the Newberry County Alliance time after time; and has gone about making speeches, both in and out of the county, and neglecting, to a very great extent, his own farming interest to serve the people. Now, gentle reader, I will appeal to the conscience of any honest and good thinking man or woman, where will you find another man that will rise up under defeat and say to his friends, come on and let us not be discouraged, let us rather continue to advance under what we consider to be the banner of liberty, and go down with it in the last ditch only when there are none to bear it aloft. I heartily congratulate you, Captain, upon your firmness. I have heard not a few of our oldest citizens compliment your letter to the very highest; yes, this is the kind of a spirit I like to see in a man. Show to the country that a little public pap that led you to the The Conservatives have always accused the Reformers of rings, bossism, organization and combination of all descriptions, but the elections always show what side is the closest organized. It is an evident fact, if it were not for the help of the Reformers the Conservatives would not hold a single office in the county.

It seems that a great majority of the Reformers have their minds only concentrated upon Tillman, and all they care to do is just take care of the men whom they know would take care of Tillman and let all the rest of the little candidates take care of themselves.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were refuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The Meeting on Saturday—Newberry in Fa-vor of Standing by Democratic Prin-ciples, But Opposed to Another State Ticket at This Time.

The mass meeting of Democrats, as called by Mr. Thomas W. Carwile, met in the Courthouse here on Saturday last. There were about one hundred persons present, some, perhaps. only as spectators.

Col. O. L. Schumpert called the meeting to order and nominated Col. J. C. S. Brown as chairman. He was elected. Mr. W. Aug. Shealy was elected secre-

Col. Brown, on taking the chair, said this was the second time he had been called upon to preside over a convention of Demo rats, and he thanked the convention for the honor conferred. This body of Democrats had come here to consider matters that would be for the good of the party and the State, and he considered and felt it an honor to be called upon to preside over their deliberations. He hoped they would go at the business in hand with earnestness and conservatism. We should organize and be Democrats and stand up to Democratic principles, and then those who do not think as we do will know where we are at. The secretary read the call as issued by Maj. Carwile. Senator Mower said that, in order to divide the white people. My God, if beneficial properties of a perfect lax-bring something definite before the they are not divided now they can't be ative; effectually cleansing the system, convention he would offer the following resolutions, which were seconded by Maj. M. H. Gary: Be it resolved that it is the sense of this meeting:

will result in the organization of the Democratic party in strict alignment with sound Democratic doctrine as set out in the National Democratic platform of 1892, and in keeping the State in the Democratic column in 1896. 2. That a State ticket should not be nominated.

3. That the convention called for the 7th should adjourn without taking any action in the premises to some day later than the 19th. 4. That delegates should be elected

It was decided to take up the resolutions seriatim. Dr. McIntosh said that he would like to have the resolutions modified. He was not in favor of binding the hands of the delegates to the extent of withdrawing from the convention in

Prof. Evans said they only gave an expression of the sense of the meeting, and unless the last was adopted the delegates would not be bound.

Dr. McIntosh: It strikes me we are going into a movement that we dont know much about, and when we send delegates they will be able to know more about the true situation than we are able to know here and now, and those delegates ought to be free to act according to their best judgment with the new lights that may be around them. My judgment is one way and the county convention is another way. We ought to send delegates and leave them free to decide for what is best for the State under the circumstances after they get to Columbia.

Breckinridge has been defeated in the primary for renomination for Congress from the Ashland visit to Virginia. The Doctor is looking for the hard work of the Reform party in Newberry County, which appeared in your issue of the 5th instant, is worthy of much comment.

Specimen Cases. S. H. Chifford New Cassell, Wis., was rtoubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an plain, honest and free. This is just the plain, honest and free. This is just the plain, honest and free. This is just the prediction that Capt. Banks stood upon it, it was simply a first class movement.

The fifth resolution was then adopted with a few negative votes. to put second class men in first class positions and my position then in the light of subsequent events was almost prophetic. I want to be consistent and do the best thing for South Carolina, and the best thing for the conservatives to do who have indignities heaped upon them is to forbear. I told the editor of the News and Courier four years ago that the people of Newberry wanted to do right but as long as they were opposed and fought as they had been, the "movement" was given the only cohesive power it ever had. I want to see the time when each can-didate can go before the people on his individual merit. I have always opposed instructing delegates but this is a peculiar time. The conservative people of my township begged me to come here and make this protest for them. We can do nothing unless we can get hold of the conservative element in the Reform faction. This movement means that we are going to array the Reformers so much the stronger against us. This movement originated in a confer-euce held in the interest of Senator Butler. He is my old officer and I have great affection for him, but above my affection for him I hold the interests of South Carolina. Sometimes when in the heat of passion, after one indignity upon another has been heaped upon us, I feel like we ought to do something, but in calmer moments I feel that this it is not altogether a political greed for movement is a mistake and our delegates should be instructed to oppose nominations, and I hope the resolutions will pass. Mr. Sale: It seems to me that the discussion will more properly come up on the last resolution. Dr. McIntosh: I think the discussion comes up on one as well as another. So standing up here representing myself and my property. I am interested in my pocket. We have been standing up making a fight on side issues, and the time has come when we must fall in line with the National Democracy. There has been no better time to stand up for Democracy than the present. The National Democracy is the party of economy. We support our State government by a tax of $1.00 per head. The general government costs $7.00. Who has heaped up this tax upon us? The party supported by trusts and monopolies and combinations. Grover Cleveland, in spite of the abuse heaped upon him, has stood between us and Wall Street and the sugar trust, and he has managed to get a bill through Congress-the tariff bill-which saves us money. In the matter of pensions, the last Congress was asked for $165,000,000 but that did not quite meet the expediture and $15,000,000 more were appropriated. When Hoke Smith came in when the present administration came into office, this appropriation was cut down to $140,000,000. It amounts to about $600,000 saving to South Carolina. Cleveland and the Democratic party have saved this State about this amount. We sholud forget these little divisions that have been thrust upon us in the last four years Oriental Soap for all skin and scalp and we should stand up with the National Democratic party and fight or Democratic principles. Our deletates should not be tied when they are not to this convention in Columbia.

Was a P. Miller: It was just for that prion. that I made the speech I did.

spectator and did not intend to take any part. I doubt if the resolution is understood by the body. One Convention meets on the 17th and the other one meets on the 19th. Suppose the Convention of the 19th should affirm allegiance to the National Democratic platform and adopt a platform upon which every Democrat can stand. There is no difference among the people about standing upon the principles of Democracy. Suppose this convention should do this, would it be wise for any assembly of gentlemen to oppose that? The question is whether or not it is wise for us to forestall the conven-tion of the 19th. If it should adopt the

Mr. Cromer: While the argument on tariff reform and the sound principles of Democracy all meet with my sympathy, we are not met here to engage in a tariff debate, or whether we are sound in the Democracy or not. For the last four years we have not had free and untrammeled Democracy in this State. Why case nominations were determined should we reorganize the Democracy now. It reminds me of the boy who wanted to jump a ditch. He went back to get a good running start and by the time he got to the ditch he was so tired that he jumped right into it. When the question is not open let the delegates be instructed to do what you want done. You say that the Sheppard move ment brought over reform votes. Would anybody undertake to say that the Haskell movement has not been a handicap to us ever since 1890. Let your delegates go uninstructed and you will have projected a movement which cannot succeed. I am not here to discuss the grievances against Tillmanism, although we have enough of them. Looking matters squarely in the face. this movement will not only solidify Tillmanism. but it will divide the Conservatives. I do not believe that it will facilities.
