

The Herald and News

ELBERT H. AULL, Proprietors. W. P. HUGHES, Editor.

Mr. Job L. Hughey, alias "Broad River," should feel better. He relieved himself of a good deal of filth in last week's Voice.

The Herald and News is not advising its violation. As long as it remains a law we shall not violate it.

Now, Mr. Hughey, we will notice very briefly, and we trust satisfactorily, that part of your reply later on, but come back to the question we raised.

We do not intend that you shall go by going off into abuse of The Herald and News, and thus fool the people and make them believe you are a great man.

You published the charge against Senator Mower and Mr. Koon of Prosperity, that they were distributing registration certificates to negroes.

Now, Mr. Hughey, this is the point. Tell us how Mr. Koon could distribute registration certificates to negroes unless he first obtained them from the Supervisor.

is he carries out all of his threats. A law that requires all of these heroic treatments to its proper enforcement is evidently a bad law and will never be enforced.

Rev. James Smith Cozby, D. D. Exercises Conducted by the Pastors of Newberry in Honor of the Memory of Dr. Cozby—Appropriate and Instructive Addresses.

A large congregation assembled in the Newberry Presbyterian church last Sunday night for the memorial services in honor of Dr. Cozby, late pastor of the church.

Dr. Cozby had gone about among us for eight years and had greatly endeared himself to all our people.

Dr. Fox, of the Lutheran church, was then introduced and he spoke of Dr. Cozby as a preacher.

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I was taken down with rheumatism over year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have said that I could hardly endure even a bottle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it."

It has cured me. When the doctors do so much to no good what ever. After being benefited so much by this medicine I desire Hood's Sarsaparilla as a tonic and to give me strength.
