E. H. AULL, Editor.

AN EDITOR MADE HAPPY.

Among the visitors at the State Fair were Mr. and Mrs. T. Chris Robinson, of Jenkins. Mr. Robinson and one to Greenville and there secured the prize of a most estimable wife. Mr. Robinson and Miss Corbie H. Hunt were married in Greenville by the Rev. Mr. Rogers and came to Columbia to spend their honeymoon. Mr. Robinson is the editor and proprietor of the Jenkins People's Journal. During the last campaign he made the race for Superintendent of Education and came very near being elected.

The above is from the Columbia correspondence of the News and Courier. The editor of the Herald and News had the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Robinson on the fair grounds. We again extend our congratulations and wish them a long and happy life.

We very much hope that the Cotton Grower Convention will result in good to the farmers and cotton growers. We are of this State, not the whole South. We very much fear, however, that it will be barren. Its chief business will be to discuss the merits of various measures that look to the betterment of the farmer's economic condition. With the exception of the cotton growers, who are more interested in their own interests than in the improvement of the whole State, the agricultural community will not be interested in the success of the convention. We would advise the cotton growers to hold their own convention in Columbia, and to discuss the merits of the various measures that look to the betterment of the farmer's economic condition. We would advise the cotton growers to hold their own convention in Columbia, and to discuss the merits of the various measures that look to the betterment of the farmer's economic condition.

Mr. H. C. Hunter, the organizer for this county has appointed his township organizers. Their names appear in another column. They should go to work in one and hold their township meetings as requested and have a full meeting at the court house the first Monday in December. Send notices of the meeting to the office of the township organizers and we will print it for you free of charge. Then elect representative farmers to the county meeting and the yourselves of the politicians.

Utopia School News.

Mr. Editor: Our school desires special your valuable paper for the following items: We shall endeavor to furnish an article each week from our community for some one of the county papers. This work is to be done by the students of the school. The items will be such as the students may gather as we go about our work. We hope to serve several purposes in this work. Rev. M. W. Raden spent last Sunday night with J. W. Beaman and family. Rev. D. Tiller and wife visited several of his parishioners last week. Our school has been in session seven weeks. We have thirty pupils. More are to come in very soon and still others after Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Cannon went to Columbia a few days ago to attend Mrs. Cannon's sister's marriage. Miss Lucy Wright, of the city, is visiting Miss Lily Chapman, of our community. Miss Belle Cannon left last Saturday for Anderson County, where she has charge of a school. One of our bright boys the other evening went to say, "I have on my evening costume," but said "I have on my evening schoolbag."

Mr. J. C. Dominick and two of his daughters left for Columbia Wednesday morning and returned at evening. Mr. L. P. Cannon is building a new barn where his other was burned about two months ago. Mr. W. I. Herbert lost about nine hundred dollars from cholera a few weeks ago. Mr. D. L. Hamm is preparing to build a new residence to get farther from the creek. Mr. J. F. Blair and one son left Thursday for Columbia and returned that night. Mr. J. R. Purdie left for Columbia Wednesday and returned Thursday night. Mrs. M. C. Merchant, of Langley, S. C., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dominick and will remain until after Christmas. Dr. W. E. Lake attended the State Fair last week. Mr. C. W. Long and John George left Wednesday morning for Columbia to attend the fair. Mrs. J. H. Boulware left Tuesday for Columbia to visit her daughter, Mrs. Budie, who is at college, and returned Friday. Mr. W. I. Herbert left Tuesday morning for Columbia for the fair and returned Friday night. His object in going was to exhibit his canned goods, on which he always takes the premium. This is the third year in succession he has done so. He also took second premium on butter. He would have taken first if it had not been for carrying it the distance from here there. He is certainly well up on these two lines of work. Talk with him about the work. More anon. PUPILS.

The Greenville News tells us that the dispensary at Greenville has been running at a loss for a month or two, not even making expenses. There is not much business or profit in continuing such an institution.

Says The Newberry Herald and News on the murder of Turner by Newbold: "If this thing is to be kept up it will not be safe for a man to drive along the public highway. It does not seem to be very safe as it is."—The State. We accept the amendment. Our surprise is that Gov. Ellerbe has kept Newbold on the force and seems to intend as to his apprehension.

It was stated in yesterday's State that Newbold was in Columbia and was willing to surrender but wanted to save the State the reward that had been offered for him. Mr. Newbold need not give himself any worry about the reward. It will not be as easy for him when he is captured as he imagines.

The dispensary seems to be doomed. The decision of the Atlanta judges gives new life to the C. P. houses. The railroads are required to haul the original package goods. It is important that the Legislature should do something in the premises. The best thing will be to repeal the dispensary and adopt a strict and stringent high license law about dispensary regulations.

The Utopia school has inaugurated a good work which other schools might do well to imitate. It is proposed to have some one of the pupils write each week a letter for one of the county papers giving the news of the community. The first appears in this issue of the Herald and News. We will be glad to have a letter each week. It will improve the pupils in composition, and in the expression of thought. Send your letters to The Herald and News. We will be glad to print them for you.

A Great Scheme! Why not make your dollars out of rubber? That's a great scheme. Then they'll stretch. It's a pretty hard matter to make a Five Dollar Bill stretch over a Ten Dollar purchase, and we don't promise to do that for you, but until rubber dollars are made, we'll come nearer to it than any store you know of. We'll Stretch a Dollar. So that it will cover an all wool knee pants suit worth fifty cents more. We'll stretch four dollars and seventy-five cents of your common silver money so it will cover a splendid all wool suit to fit young men up to 19 years old, worth $7--the suit not the young man. We'll stretch $6.75 over a fancy Cassimere Suit that ought to cost $8, and would if this store wasn't here. Want to stretch your money? Bring it here, and you'll think its rubber. S. J.
