THE SECOND RACE.

There seems to be but little doubt now that the second race for Governor will be between Elberle and Featherstone. It will be a battle between prohibition and the dispensary. The people who are opposed to both can take their choice. As for The Herald and News in this fight we are for the prohibition candidate. He is our neighbor and has made a good fight and we believe would make a first rate Governor. The dispensary must go sooner or later. We believe this county will give Mr. Featherstone a good vote.

At this writing not more than 40,000 votes have been heard from but there is no probability that the rest will change the result.

For Superintendent of Education the returns received yesterday indicate that the second race will be between Mr. McManis and Mr. Brown though Mr. Maxwell is very close behind Mr. Brown.

For Adjutant General Mr. Floyd is in the lead but may have to run over with Mr. Rhyne.

For Secretary of State Mr. Tompkins leads with Mr. Cooper and Mr. Bradham not far behind and both with about the same vote.

For Railroad Commissioner Mr. Garriault with Mr. Thomas next and the second race will be between them.

Mr. Bellinger is nominated for Attorney General.

The race between Mr. Epton and Mr. Derham for Comptroller General is very close and it may take the official count to tell who is nominated.

This statement is made on the basis of a report published yesterday which accounts for only about 40,000 votes and there are about 20,000 more votes to come in.

COTTON GROWERS' CONVENTION.

We call attention to the call of President Wilborn for a Cotton Growers' Convention in Columbia on September 20.

It is an important matter to the farmers and if anything can be done to better the condition of the farmers and to increase the price of cotton it should be done.

The difficulty, however, is to get the farmers to unite on anything even when it is for their interest. The alliance was a strong organization a few years ago and is still strong but it was tugged with politics and sought relief through legislation, but the politicians got hold of it and many of them rode into office through it. Still there were and are many members of the alliance who were and are trying to benefit the farmers and who never did use the alliance as a political organization.

The call now is not for alliance men but for all cotton growers whether they belong to the alliance or not and is intended to see what can be done in a specific matter stated in the call.

The County Cotton Growers' association is to meet at Newberry on Saturday 17th, and we hope there will be a full attendance and that all members will come prepared to take action on the call issued by President Wilborn which is published in another column.

We do not see where much relief can come in the plan outlined but no farm can come of holding a meeting and making an effort.

Let there be a full attendance of the cotton growers of the county.

WITH PLEASURE We did not publish the editorial of the Voice because we did not consider that we were making any reply to it, but of course if our cotemporary considers what little we said as a reply and thinks it is unfair to it not to publish what it said we will give it space with the understanding that hereafter when ever it wants us to publish its replies it must confine its remarks to the subject of our articles and when we write about men not to go off and talk about prohibition and the dispensary and the prohibition column in The Herald and News. That had nothing to do with what we said. We were trying to write in the abstract and did not think we were discussing prohibition or liquor. And what we said in reply we thought included sufficient information as to what the Voice said on the subject.

We assure the Voice we have no desire to be unfair to it. We do not mind discussing any question with the Voice for we can do so and remain friendly and it as a rule never descends to personalities. We do not suppose that it is necessary to publish its lecture of us on the subject of fairness but we do that also in order to keep the record straight.

Now, all that we ask is that our cotemporary in the reply which it says we shall have will not completely annihilate us and leave some little gap through which we may pass without too many scars.

Since you have gotten on prohibition tell us how a prohibitionist who believes prohibition is a right principle of government and that the selling of whiskey is wrong can advocate the dispensary. Is not the dispensary selling whiskey for the money that will come from it rather than to restrict the sale.

Explains to us also how you link the prohibitionist with high appropriations and the dispensary advocate with low appropriations.

But by all means deal gently with us.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS.

We desire to extend our congratulations to Mr. Bellinger on his election. We fought him with all the power we had while the war was on but we fought openly and above board and never struck below the belt. The jury to whom we appealed has rendered a verdict against us. We do not admire their judgment but it is not for us to kick or ask the reason why, and we do not. We want to say to Mr. Bellinger that we are still his friend and send him greetings on his success. It was a fair, square fight, in an open field and the victory is his.

We believe he will discharge the duties of the office to which he has been chosen faithfully and with credit to himself.

GOOD MEN LEFT.

It seems that all of the Newberry men are left this time. All we have to say is that the voters exercised bad judgment, for our Newberry men were all competent and would have made able and efficient public servants, and the same may be said of those who have been chosen. We are sorry our men got left, but we are not sulking about it, but will fight on our feet and be ready for the fray when the war is sounded again. We shall help to elect and stand by the men chosen in the primary, and send our congratulations to the successful ones in this contest just closed.

In a few cases the war is not over yet, and we may be able to pay a few debts in this contest. We will see about it.

MEETING OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Hon. Jno. F. Banks has not filed a formal protest or notice of contest, but he has requested Chairman Hardy to call a meeting of the executive committee for Monday next so that he may state his complaint to the committee. He is not sure that he will enter a protest or contest the election, but as it is so close he desires a little closer investigation. Some one told him of some irregularity in the returned long lanes.

One man voted what he called a blank vote along with his ballot and told the managers of it and they then tore up his vote and did not count it. This voter had Capt. Banks on his ticket. If that vote had been counted and Col. Dickert's name was not on it there would have been a tie between Capt. Banks and Col. Dickert and both would be in the second race. If Col. Dickert's name was on it he would still be one vote ahead.

It is not likely that the committee will change their ruling of yesterday, but still no harm can come of investigation.

Capt. Bank is not complaining, but he feels that as it is so close he should look a little more closely into it. There should be a full meeting of the committee.

OUR PROSPERITY BUDGET

ALL THE NEWS OF A LIVE AND PROGRESSIVE TOWN.

[Special Correspondence Herald and News] Miss Fant and Miss Robertson, of Newberry, are visiting Mr. J. H. Hunter and family.

I am requested by Capt. R. T. C. Hunter to call attention to the Auxiliary Institute of Clemson College. A meeting will be held at Newberry on the first Monday and all who feel an interest in advancing the farming interests should attend.

Misses Corrie and Gussie Houseal, of Georgia, and Mr. Fred Houseal, of Memphis, Tenn., are visiting Mr. J. A. Simpson and family.

The many friends of Rev. T. O. Keister will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Keister, in Philadelphia last week where she had gone to undergo a surgical operation.

Burglars have again been at work in town and the C. & N. & L. R. It was raided and the ticket case broken open. The burglar or burglars seem to know just where to go to get shoes as they got 15 or 20 pairs of Schumpert & Lester's shoes. Second time they have worn their shoes and they must like them. They cut the glass out of the window and went in and opened several cases of salt and potted ham and not being in a hurry they sat down and eat their fill by the light of the moon in the side door of the depot. A reward of $25 has been offered for the arrest of the right parties. We trust they will get caught.

Mrs. Major and the children of Mr. D. M. Langford are visiting in Columbia this week.

Miss Mary (Pet) Luther has gone to Asheville, N. C., to visit relatives and enjoy the mountain air.

Mr. Elisha Cureton, a former Newberrian, but now of Georgia, is visiting relatives in and around town this week.

Kay did not get to attend but one day on the Sunday-School Convention at Colony. All who were there report a very pleasant time. The discussions were full and no doubt many new ideas were taken home. The one topic, "The advantages of the International Lessons," was alone sufficient to repay for time spent. The convention elected for President, Mr. R. T. C. Hunter, and for Vice-President, H. H. Folk. Secretary, W. Aug. Sheely; Treasurer, Mr. D. B. Wheeler.

Time and place of next meeting was left to the officers. A committee was appointed to arrange a program for Children's Day exercises and all the schools were urged to adopt this program when ready so as to have uniformity. Committee: Messrs. Geo. B. Cromer, W. A. Sheely, A. H. Kohn.

Had our fellow townsman, Dr. Wyche been nominated on the first ballot he would have been the happiest man in town and he is happy any way. He had a nice pleasant young lady to make him a visit last Friday and in the years to come she will call him "papa."

Mr. L. Baker, of Gaffney, a large contractor and builder who has been on a visit to his son, Mr. K. Baker, returned home Tuesday. He says there is too much material on the ground to let it go to waste and that the Cotton Mill Co. ought to utilize it in a building and erect a yarn mill if no more. He says the Gaffney Carpet Mills broke dirt June 4th and by August 4th was ready to steam up, and is now running night and day with orders ahead for 6 months. This is push and pluck.

Communion services in Grace church Sunday morning.

Mr. C. B. Martin is visiting Mr. O. P. Harris, his uncle, this week.

Mr. J. C. Boozer, of Williamston, has been on a visit in Prosperity.

Misses Lilly and Ruby Russell are visiting relatives in Fairfield County.

Miss Lizzie Reagin, who has been on a visit to the home folks, spent a couple days in town and worshipped in Grace church last Sunday. Her former pupils were glad to meet and greet her again.

Mrs. Whites, (Aunt Josie) and Miss Connie, will leave for their Atlanta home today, Thursday.

Our young friend, Frank Hunter, is now holding the fort for Messrs. Hunter, Wheeler & Wheeler at the new drug store.

We had a long letter handed us a couple of days ago bearing on the troubles of days of '76, and the part played by S. S. Bridges and the Wallace House. And Col. Keitt tells me that when he got the number 63, he knew that he would succeed, for the Wallace House was the then legal house. We may quote from this letter at a later date, and the writer says he may write a history of those times. We trust he may, as it will make interesting reading. Old Man Kay knows a little about it himself, being on the ground, and was present at several of the conferences held in the room at the hotel where he was quarred and acted as messenger to the executive committee and Wallace House several times.

It is from Long Lane, Crops in our midst seem very good, except the cotton crop. I fear many will be disappointed in it, although some say they have fine cotton.

The peaches of which we had an abundance are about all gone, but the watermelons are still here in considerable number. We are glad for friends to come and help enjoy them.

Mr. Drayton Ramage, who lived a number of years and fared so successfully on Mr. M. A. Carlisle's Doolla place, spent last week at Mrs. Gertrude King's. He also visited other friends in our midst.

Miss Nettie Moore, who has been visiting at Mr. John Epps, went last Saturday to visit her mother and aunts near Goshen Hill.

Mr. Milton King got his arm pretty badly hurt on a private railroad track which we have in our midst. We would advise Mrs. King to enter suit against the railroad company at once.

Miss Eunice Long, an estimable young lady, is at Mr. W. F. Brown's this week.

Mr. J. A. Rikard has had two rooms and a piazza added to his house in front, which I know must add greatly to its comfort for them.

Miss Dollie Kibler, after spending last week with Mr. James Kibler, returned home Sabbath evening. Mrs. James Kibler has been on our sick list this week. We hope she may soon be restored to health.
