ROLLER MILL.

We have before spoken of the matter but we desire again to urge some of our farmers who have the means and some of our town people who are interested to get together and raise the money and build a roller flour mill. It could be done with a capital of $5,000. The farmers are beginning to sow wheat again and if there was a good roller mill convenient where they could exchange their wheat for good flour it would encourage them to plant more wheat. There is a good mill in the lower part of the county and we are glad it is there but another at Newberry would not in the least conflict with this one or be in competition with it.

We need to grow more wheat and the way to encourage its growth is to be prepared to convert it into flour that is as nice as any that comes from any where and this we can do.

Will not some of our farmers take hold of this matter and investigate it, see if there is anything to be made by building such an enterprise and then if there is why let the good work begin at once.

One of the Tolberts has had warrants issued against several of the citizens of McCormick charging them with interfering with him in the exercise of his franchise. They have been taken to Columbia and arraigned in the United States court, and have given bond to appear at the next term of court for trial. One of them is more than 80 years old. All of them honorable and respected citizens. They deny that there was any interference with Mr. Tolbert, and that he was not only permitted to vote, but did vote unmolested. This action has aroused the women and they have met and passed resolutions condemning the action of Tolbert in having the arrests made. Mr. Tolbert had better let the matter alone where it is, and thank his God that he is alive. It will not now be safe for him to return to this place.

But he is taking the action he has, no doubt, for the purpose of gaining favor with the administration at Washington and thus securing a good job there for himself. This sort of thing may have worked several years ago, but it has about played out now. The Republicans at Washington know the situation down here pretty well now, and they are not going to be fooled by the cry of persecution. The Republicans at the South and the negroes are going to be treated properly as long as they deserve to be, but when the white Republicans undertake to put the negroes forward and undertake to cross the path of the white men there is sure to be trouble. The sooner we all learn this the better it will be for all concerned.

The Augusta Chronicle suggests that the people of McCormick should do the right thing and pay Tolbert a good price for his property, now that they are rid of him as a disturbing element. But are they rid of him? Is he not continuing to give them trouble by having citizens arrested and taken to Columbia to appear in the United States court. But if he will sell his property they should pay him what it is worth.

Lieutenant Hobson declined to go on the lecture stage and place himself on exhibition as a curiosity. He says he was no lecturer before he sunk the Merrimac and this feat has not given him any qualifications for the lecture platform. It is a pity all the would-be lecturers haven't as much sense. — Augusta Chronicle.

Wouldn't we be saved many an affliction if they had.

We have received a copy of the Aiken Illustrated Journal and Review, published by L. C. Lyon & Co. It is an illustrated write-up of Aiken—her hotels and boarding houses, her churches, her educational facilities, her business men, her schools, her residences, and all her principal places of business. It reflects credit upon the town and upon the publishers.

President McKinley will visit Atlanta next week and Atlanta is making big preparations to entertain him and the other distinguished visitors she will have on this occasion. Atlanta never does things by halves and this will be a big occasion.

The peace negotiations are progressing nicely and it is expected to have the treaty signed within a reasonable time. Both sets of commissioners seem to think there will be no hitch and that everything will soon be settled.

We publish the figures of the recent general election to show how light the vote was. The people should turn out more generally to the regular election.

Terrific storms have raged along the Atlantic coast and in the interior during the past week and many lives have been lost and much damage done to property.

To be entirely relieved of the aches and pains or rheumatism means a great deal, and Hood's Sarsaparilla does it.

OUR PROSPERITY BUDGET

ALL THE NEWS OF A LIVE AND PROGRESSIVE TOWN.

(Special Correspondence Herald and News) At a meeting of the teachers of Grace Sunday-school last Sunday they decided to have an "Old folks' day" on Sunday, December 25th. A programme will be arranged in keeping with the idea of the day and announced later. There will be old time songs, &c., and a pleasant time is anticipated.

Mr. Cato, a Christian Japanese, gave a lecture on Japan and its customs on Wednesday night. Not being able to get there ourselves we hear it very highly spoken of by those who attended. He is working to educate himself to return to Japan as a Christian missionary under the auspices of the Methodist church.

Rev. J. W. Blanton has gone to Darlington to attend the annual session of the Baptist association. During his absence his son, W. P., will wield the fable in the News office.

All the students from here and below town that are attending Newberry College spent their Thanksgiving at home and returned to their books on Monday.

Thanksgiving was observed by the congregations of Grace and the A. R. P. church, the pastors preaching appropriate sermons. A collection was taken in Grace church for the Lutheran Orphan Home at Salem, Va.

Mr. J. L. Wise has returned from Tennessee and brought with him a carload of fat porkers and from the squealing that has been heard over there somebody is preparing to have pudding and sausage galore. Don't you wish it was you, Mr. Editor? I wish it was old man Kay.

Say, Chips, where are you? Wake up or I will think you are taking a Rip Van Winkle nap again. What are you going to have for Xmas enjoyment? Say, come down to our Old folks' day in Grace church. Old man Kay gives you a pressing invitation.

The shelving and counters are being put in the new drug store of Messrs. Hunter & Wheeler and are being painted.

Mr. B. L. Dominick is having some needed work done on the front of his building occupied by A. D. Kohn as a dry goods store.

We had all kinds of weather this week—rain, sleet and snow and now we have sunshine and wind.

Miss Boland, of Little Mountain, has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. T. Lathan.

Mr. J. P. Cannon was in town for a short stay last week.

Laid to rest on Saturday, November 25th, Lindsay, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dominick, of Kinards, in Prosperity cemetery. Our sympathy goes to the bereaved parents as it was their only child.

Rev. H. A. McCullough, of Orangeburg County, is visiting his parents near Prosperity. If reports are correct the next time that he comes he will bring Mrs. McCullough.

The dime reading, owing to the rain of Friday night, was postponed until the night of the 9th.

Owing to continued bad weather trade has been slow and our merchants are getting ready for Christmas. Kohn has already put out his line of Christmas toys and many are the lookers among the little folks.

Miss Aiken's music class will give a musical at some time during the holidays. The exhibition will be open to all who may desire to attend as it will be under the auspices of the school.

Owing to the wind and cold there has not been the usual crowd passed through on their way to the court house today.

Come down to the dime reading next Friday night, Mr. Editor, and enjoy yourself.

One of the largest turkeys that we have ever seen is now in Kohn's Drug Store. It weighs 55 pounds, and was raised by Mr. T. J. Wicker. He has raised a number of large ones this year, I am told.

PROGRAM OF DIME READING. A pleasant time is in store for all who may attend the dime reading to be given at the school building Friday evening, Dec. 9th. Following is the program:

Music. Reading—Mrs. H. S. Boozer. Music—Song. Recitation—Miss Phoebe Schumpert. Music—Piano Recital. Humorous Speech—Prof. E. C. Counts. Song—Mrs. Wyche and Kibler. Reading—Mrs. F. E. Schumpert. Music. Recitation—Miss Gertrude Simpson. Music—Song. Speech—Hon. C. T. Wyche. Music.

The music will be under direction of Mesdames Moseley and Wyche, Misses Bobb and Russell, and Mrs. Wyche and Kibler. Public cordially invited. Admission—only a dime.

Mr. Editor, you and your friends are cordially invited to be present and enjoy a pleasant hour and contribute your dime. See! We have been almost a town of shut ins for the past few days, owing to the rain and mud, but with the bright sunshine of the past day things are brightening up.

Prosperity, S. C., Dec. 5, 1898.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturer. What better deodorant, cure for their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. W. E. Polham.

December at Jones'

I expect to sell more goods in December than I have any month since I opened my store. This means lower prices and you will be surprised how cheap you can buy.

DRY GOODS, DRESS GOODS, NOTIONS, SHOES, HATS, TRUNKS, SUSPENDERS, ETC.

For the next three weeks at Jones'. The people of this city and county were all excited over our sale six weeks ago, but the excitement will be greater still before January 1st. If you have anything to buy in my line it will be a great mistake to go to any other place. We offer among other things today:

2 cases yard wide Fruit of the Loom Bleach at 6c. per yd. by the bolt or 6ic. to cut.

2 bales Riverside Plaids at 42 cents by pc. or 5c. to cut.

2 bales Silver Star Plaids 44c. by pc. or 5c. to cut.

These are a few of the items we mention, but there are plenty of others. Come and see us often and don't forget that Jones always sells it for less because he sells for cash.
